

Maple

A meeting of very special interest took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maple on Wednesday, May 21. It was the occasion of the 25th annual meeting of Section III of Toronto Presbyterian and the fiftieth anniversary of St. Andrew's Women's Missionary Society. Mrs. J. A. Agar, Sectional Vice-President presided and Mrs. N. A. Malloy, president, of St. Andrew's, welcomed the guests. At the morning session a most interesting address was given by Mrs. Hall, president of Toronto Presbyterian and the soloist was Mrs. A. C. Robinson. In the afternoon Mrs. Dickson, recently returned from Formosa, thrilled the audience with stories of her life in that land. Mrs. McLean of Bolton sang an appropriate solo.

At the luncheon to which former members had been invited Mrs. Malloy gave a history of the Society since its organization. Mrs. C. H. Bowman called on former members and visitors who spoke briefly, including Mrs. S. R. Robinson, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. J. B. McLean of Toronto, Mrs. James Cameron of Weston and Mrs. A. McClure of King. A beautiful four-storey birthday cake which had been made and decorated by members of the Society was the centre of attraction. Miss C. Malloy of Aurora placed the knife in the cake and Miss A. Walkington and Miss S. Robinson lit the candles. These three ladies were all members of the Society when it was organized fifty years ago. There are also two other charter members who were unable to be present, Mrs. Ness of Montreal and Mrs. Church of Thornton. At the close of the afternoon session Rev. Mr. Bowman dismissed the meeting with the benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Manning are spending this week at the home of their son George at Aurora.

Miss Ruth McCrimmon spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Forrest.

Miss Jean Matheson spent a few days at her home here last week and left on Friday night to spend some time with her brother Mr. John A. Matheson at Crossfield, Alberta. Miss Lelia Vanderburgh of Toronto accompanied her on her trip.

Anniversary services of the United Church Sunday School will be held on Sunday, June 1st with service at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. D.S.T. The guest speaker will be Rev. E. R. McLean who is General Secretary of the Ontario Religious Education Council. The Salvation Army Boys Band from Dovercourt Rd. Citadel will be in attendance in the morning and in the evening the male choir of Judge Motts Bible Class, St. Clair Avenue United Church, will sing under direction of Dr. Flath. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to come and enjoy these services with us.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Snider and Marilyn spent the week-end in Kingston and while there visited Edwin Crooks who is a patient in the Kingston General Hospital.

Miss Jean Robinson of Toronto spent Monday afternoon at her home here.

Mr. A. E. Sharpe, father of Mrs. A. E. Snider, left on Wednesday evening on an extended trip to the west coast and Alaska.

Friends will be sorry to learn that Roy Keffer had the misfortune to fall and break his arm on Friday. We hope for a speedy recovery.

The Sunday morning church service at Hope United Church has been withdrawn to enable members of the congregation to attend the anniversary services at Maple.

Mr. James Wilson, Edgeley, R.R. 1 Maple, who is in the R.C.A.F. Training School at St. Thomas, passed his intermediate examinations last week very successfully. Out of a class of ninety R.C.A.F. students he secured the highest marks of any. This brings one of our local boys to the front. Congratulations Jim.

VICTORIA SQUARE

The W.A. held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Mortson, Richmond Hill last Wednesday evening. About 25 were present, and a few visitors, which we are always pleased to have namely, Mrs. Neil, Mrs. Gee and Mrs. Agar of Richmond Hill, and Mrs. Alf. Bagg, Miss Gladys Smith and Mrs. C. Stong of Edgeley. The topic of the evening was taken by Mrs. G. Gee on the subject, "The Life of Charles Wiley." It was very interesting to hear the story of such a great man right from his boyhood days and to hear just what part his mother, Suzanne Wesley, played in his life. We were also favored with two lovely solos by Miss Smith accompanied by Mrs. Bagg.

On Thursday evening quite a number from Victoria Square gathered with the Gormley folk at the home of Mr. Roy Nelson, the occasion being a shower for his second daughter (Helen) who was recently married. The many useful and lovely gifts were a sign of a host of friends of this young couple.

On Friday friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Martin Styrmo to shower Miss Myrtle Avison and Mr. Harold Wellman, whose marriage will take place shortly. About 70 were present and a large number of useful gifts were received at the close of which they both in a few words thanked all for the gifts and extended an invitation to visit them. The best of wishes are extended to these two couples from the community.

Next Tuesday evening the J.W.I. and J.F.A. will meet at the usual hour in the Community Hall. The topic for the J.W.I. will be taken by Miss Mabel Sanderson on the Hand Book and Legislature. The motto will be taken by Mrs. Meek. The roll call, the funniest scrape I ever saw anyone in. The J.F.A. have as their guest speaker Mr. Dor Fairbairn. There will also be an interesting half hour held jointly for this particular month. Plan now to attend.

The Sunday School held their annual meeting on Monday evening in connection with their summer anniversary. It was decided to have special services on Sunday, June 15, with a picnic following, whenever the committee in charge thought best. There will be further notice later.

Miss Mabel Sanderson spent Friday afternoon with her friend Mrs. Wainwright of Toronto.

Friends are sorry to hear that Rev. McCausland is not able to be out and miss his presence and helpfulness at meetings.

Richmond Hill United Church is to be congratulated on having the speaker they had Sunday evening. After hearing him one would wonder where this Christian Canada had gone to. He certainly brought home the fact that there is good and bad in every race, and these signs you see "No Jews allowed" are anything but Christian. Perhaps if we were chased from country to country we wouldn't be any better. It isn't what our nation does, it is what the individual thinks and does that will make a Christian nation and the sooner we learn to read our Bible instead of so much common literature the sooner we will be Christian.

There was a good attendance at the Y.P.U. on Sunday evening. The meeting was in charge of Miss Irene Beatty. A reading was given by Miss Ruby Avison. Miss Marion Boston rendered two solos. Rev. McKay gave a very interesting topic on "Life Amongst the Indians".

Next Sunday evening the meeting will be in charge of Miss Viola Avison.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nursey (nee Irene Smith) had tea with Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and family on Monday evening.

WEDDINGS

YOUNG-BROWN

The marriage was solemnized at the Presbyterian Manse, Brampton on Tuesday, May 27th of Mrs. Winnifred Brown of Brampton to Mr. Wilton Young of Richmond Hill, Rev. E. J. Miller officiating. Following a honeymoon trip through western Ontario Mr. and Mrs. Young will live in Richmond Hill.

MANSBRIDGE-SIMS

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, on Saturday, May 24th, when Florence Mildred, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Sims became the bride of Mr. Edward C. Mansbridge, son of Mrs. Mansbridge and the late Mr. F. Mansbridge. Rev. C. W. Follett and Rev. W. F. Wrixon officiated. The couple were unattended. The bride wore powder blue sheer with navy accessories and a corsage of sweet peas and lily-of-the-valley. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short motor trip. On their return they will reside in Richmond Hill.

OBITUARY

LATE W. D. SCOTT

William D. Scott, father of Reeve R. W. Scott of Vaughan Township passed away Friday, May 23rd and the funeral was held from the family residence, south Yonge Street, Monday afternoon. The late "W. D." Scott as he was popularly known was in his 89th year, and had been in failing health for some months. Born at Beechburg, Ontario, near Pembroke, the late Mr. Scott in his early life was engaged in the contracting business and he had railroad and bridge contracts from coast to coast. He was one of that sturdy generation known as the "builders of Canada" and he pioneered in railroad building and lumbering. He was building a stretch of C.P.R. line west of Fort William at the time of the Northwest Rebellion, and he built stretches of line right across Canada, from the Rockies to the Maritimes. One of his contracts was the building of the bridges on the C.N.R. between Toronto and Parry Sound.

He retired from contracting and bought his Vaughan Township farm in 1908. A man of sterling character he was held in highest esteem in the community, and he was always ready to generously support every worth-while cause. The funeral service held at the family residence Monday afternoon was largely attended, and was conducted by Rev. E. B. Cook, former minister of Thornhill United Church of which the late Mr. Scott was a devoted member. Many beautiful floral tributes were evidence of the esteem of a wide circle of friends.

The late Mr. Scott is survived by his one son, Reeve Robert W. Scott of Vaughan. His wife predeceased him nine years ago, and a daughter Irene died in 1926.

Interment took place in Richmond Hill cemetery, the pallbearers being S. S. Findlay, N. J. Smellie, Morgan Boyle, J. A. Monkman, A. G. Savage and A. E. Glass.
