

UNIONVILLE

Markham Township Red Cross has already realized $386 from the sale of salvage, and the end is not yet. There is still a huge pile in the Township yard and there is more to come in.

Crops throughout Markham township look promising, but moisture is needed.

If you have something to sell, a classified "ad" in The Liberal will do the job. Advertising in The Liberal gets results.

Seek Entries for Quilting Project

Red Cross work activities continue throughout Markham Township and many groups are already planning to join in the mammoth quilting project to be held at the Canadian National Exhibition. To the groups that perhaps have not heard of this venture, Mrs. Aitken has given out information that there is no specified size of quilt. The main request is that it must be made out of clippings from Red Cross sewing that has been made by the group. A pass for one car and six quilters will be given each group. The quilt is to be at least three quarters made before going to the Exhibition and to be finished there. The C.N.E. will be host to the quilters, supplying a picnic supper. It is desired that as many groups as possible get in line for this event. Perhaps the prize may come to Markham Township.

Each entrant will receive $2 whether or not prize winners. The quilts are to be the property of the C.N.E. and forwarded to the shelters in England.

WEDDING

HAINES-WESTLAKE

At the home of the bride's parents in Albion township on May 24th, Eleanor Margaret Westlake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Westlake, became the bride of Alvin Raymond Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haines of King. Miss Elsie Proctor was bridesmaid and Mr. Douglas Harris of Aurora was groomsmen. Rev. Alfred Laycock of Mono Road performed the ceremony. They will reside near Aurora.

WOOLEY-WILKIE

A wedding of local interest took place in Erskine United Church, Toronto, on May 23rd when Miss Gladys Evelyn Wilkie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Wilkie, Toronto, became the bride of Desmond Barton Wooley, son of the late Rev. F. and Mrs. Wooley. The groom, now working at Granby, Quebec, is a former Woodbridge resident, and the bride is a sister of Mrs. Andrew Cossar of Woodbridge. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip Duncan; wedding music was played by Mrs. H. Melrose, and an aunt of the bride, Miss Isobel Wilkie, sang during the signing of the register. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Beatrice Wright. Andrew Cossar was best man and George Eldridge the usher.

Following a reception at the bride's home the couple left for a wedding trip to the maritime provinces. They will take up residence in Granby.

Prize for Decorations

The North York Victory Loan Committee announced this morning that a $10 War Savings Certificate will be awarded to the best decorated building in Richmond Hill, during the Victory Loan drive.

On Saturday evening, May 24, relatives and friends, numbering about forty, held a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. Chris Thomson and Kate at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Colton. Mr. Thomson was presented with a mahogany smoking stand, Mrs. Thomson with a beautiful handmade Tuscan lace dinner cloth, and Kate with a Morocco leather hand bag. The following address was read:—

Dear Friends:— We, your friends and relatives, are gathered here this evening, to express in a small way, our sentiments at this great milestone of life. Although we fervently hope that you will not go far away, we feel that a small remembrance of our pleasant relationships during the past years would be fitting at this time. We all wish you the very best of good luck and a very happy home in the future. As a token of our esteem we would like you to accept these gifts.

Signed on behalf of those present.

Our bravest and best lessons are not learned through success, but through misadventure. — A. Bronson Alcott.

WOODBIDGE

Although in his 81st year, John Longmore of Woodbridge, this week lent a helping hand in the existing farm labour shortage by planting William Brownlee's potato crop on the outskirts of the village. Mr. Longmore is still enjoying good health and is very active. He took a keen pleasure in assisting with the farm's spring work.

Honours in 9 subjects out of 10 were won by Miss Patricia Harris, of Woodbridge, in her first year examinations at the Ontario College of Art. Miss Harris, who headed the list of students in the first year, carried off the Mrs. John M. Lyle scholarship. She also was awarded a special prize in the form of a valuable book. Previous to entering the Art College she attended St. Mildred's College, Toronto. Some years ago she lived in the Woodbridge business area with her mother and uncle, J. Richards, who operated a business here. The family now reside north of the village.

A vote will be polled in Newmarket in the near future on the question of whether or not that town will have beverage rooms.

Allen H. Baker, son of Morgan Baker, M.P.P. for North York, is now a sub-lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Navy. Allen Baker is a graduate of S.P.S. (School of Practical Science) Toronto University and has joined the Navy as a marine engineer.

Jim Wilson, Edgeley, last week headed his class when he successfully passed his Intermediate examinations at an R.C.A.F. training centre in Ontario. He reportedly took highest credits in a class of ninety.

FOR EVERY CANADIAN who sails the deep, for every airman who flashes through the skies, and for every other man in the fighting forces, the prayers of the nation "rise like a fountain, night and day."

In times of crisis our people stand steadfast. In daily devotions they renew the flame of faith and arm with unseen powers their warriors in the field.

Oftentimes they discern the Unseen Hand. Witness the miracle of Dunkirk. Witness, too, in the darkest hours the emergence of great inspiring figures to steady the ranks of Democracy and fire its courage and confidence.

Church bells are ringing throughout Canada calling men and women to worship and sacrifice in defence of our freedom, the sanctity of our homes and the future of our children.
