KING CITY

Rev. W. L. and Mrs. Atkinson of Toronto have been guests of Mrs. R. Gellatly.

Mr. Charles Archibald, 87, was an honoured guest at the 4th Archibald Reunion picnic held at Woodbridge on June 21st. His wife was unable to be present. Most of the township members were present.

The Webster reunion was held for the 17th year at Thomas Blackburn's farm, Poplar Lodge, Kettleby, on June 21st. Sixteen of these picnics have taken place at Poplar Lodge and June 13, 1942 is the date set for next year. Nearly 150 were in attendance. The youngest was Lorraine Johns, 4½ months, of Toronto and the oldest, Fred Webster of Glenville. Officers appointed were Thomas Blackburn, president; Victor Smith, Toronto, Sec.-Treas., and a committee of six members.

Five hundred were present at Teston Strawberry Festival. It must be time for the third generation to be eating strawberries at this annual party, so long has it been established. Laskay play was good too. It will be heard at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Festival at Strange on June 27th.

$104,000 was the objective set for King Township Victory Loan quota, but reports show that the amount was far exceeded. Several outstanding subscriptions were contributed. The canvass committee, Rev. J. Galway, E. G. Lloyd, H. Pringle, A. Doane and W. E. Barker, express their appreciation of the reception accorded them by township citizens. Their mission was given serious and willing consideration everywhere they went.

Mrs. McVittie of Toronto visited Miss Tinline this week.

Miss Jessie Gellatly was a guest at Miss Mary Wilson's wedding held in Snowball church on Saturday last.

On July 30th a street dance will be held at King City in aid of the British War Victims Fund, sponsored by Lake Marie and King Athletic Association of which officers are: President, Councillor Cameron E. Walkington; Secretary, A. Well-lesley; Treasurer, D. M. Ross, and an energetic committee.

More than two-hundred from the congregations of King, Laskay and Teston United churches gathered at a picnic at Wilcox Lake on June 21 to honour Rev. D. G. and Mrs. Davis before their departure for Stouffville on July 2nd. Mr. H. E. Ross, E. Carson and Margaret Kerswill representing the three congregations expressed the circuit's appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Davis' 11-year service in this charge and presented their minister with a substantial purse of money and Mrs. Davis with a bouquet of flowers.

Lady Eaton recently made a fine contribution to King Township Red Cross Branch, the proceeds from a musicale held at her home.

War Work Committee of Township Red Cross met at Schomberg last week to discuss plans for distribution of new quota of supplies. It is considerably heavier and more varied this time as can be expected, and so greater time and effort will be required to make up the various articles. Mrs. Blake Skinner, chairman of the Township Work Units, explained the quota.

Excellent anniversary services were held at St. Mary's Magdalene Church, Schomberg, and at St. John's, Oak Ridges. Both celebrated the 98th anniversary.

On Sunday, June 29th, Kettleby Emanuel Baptist Church will celebrate its 98th anniversary. Rev. J. Galloway will preach at 11 a.m. and Rev. E. C. Goswell of Brampton will preach at 7.30 p.m. Maple mixed quartette will assist at both services.
