GAMBRILL-BENTLEY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the church of St. Edmund, the Martyr, Toronto, at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 16th, when Mrs. Sarah Emily Bentley became the bride of Frank Robert Gambrell of King. The altar was decorated with choice blooms of salmon pink double gladioli and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. S. Tippett, while Mr. Everett Wiltshire of King sang "O, Love Divine". Given away by her son-in-law, Mr. William Reid of Toronto, the bride was becomingly attired in an ensemble of navy blue and white silk dress and navy blue triple sheer redingote; a small navy blue felt hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of Richmond roses and Bouvardia. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick MacDonald of Toronto. As matron of honor Mrs. MacDonald wore light blue with navy accessories and a corsage of pale pink roses. The ushers were Mr. Donald Cudworth and Mr. Richard Chaplin, both of Toronto. The groom's gift to the bride was a wrist watch.

A reception was held at the Royal York Hotel following the ceremony, Mrs. W. Cudworth the bride's daughter receiving with the bridal party and wearing a rose sheer gown, small black hat and black accessories. She chose a corsage of gardenias.

For a motor trip to North Bay and other points in Northern Ontario the bride added a blue wool coat to her ensemble.

One hundred guests were present from Toronto, King, Uxbridge, Stouffville, Sutton, Bancroft and Buffalo, N.Y.

Mr. Gambrell who is giving excellent service in the mail service of the locality will bring his bride to his home in King City. We congratulate them both and hope Mrs. Gambrell will find King a pleasant place in which to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin O'Brien have returned from a three weeks' honeymoon trip to Wasaga Beach, Plattsville and other points. Their recent marriage is of much interest as both are well known in the locality. The bride was the former Mrs. Esther McCallum of King and Mr. O'Brien was born in Laskay vicinity, living for many years in Toronto. We trust their companionship will afford them much pleasure. Their friends join in wishing them health and happiness.

Mr. Lloyd Kerswill is confined to bed and will require several weeks' rest. Miss Margaret Kerswill will enter Business College next week.

The death of Mrs. Eli Hollinshead of Kinghorn on Friday, August 22 came as a shock to a host of friends and acquaintances. Having recovered fairly well from a recent illness her passing was more or less unexpected although a condition of long standing was apt to prove fatal. Mrs. Hollinshead, in her 76th year, was formerly Mary Elizabeth Ransom, and lived all her life in Kinghorn. She attended Kinghorn school and after her marriage to her late husband, was deeply interested in his work and in the family. While Mr. Hollinshead operated the grist mill for many years, she would rise early and spend long hours of labour in her home. Her industrious nature prevailed all through for only a few days ago she all but finished a beautiful hooked rug. Mrs. Hollinshead was kind, considerate and faithful in all things. For many years, during the teaching days of Walter Rolling at S.S. No. 23, she administered aid to bruised and sick scholars who found a ready couch to rest upon in her home.

In her girlhood days she would walk 1 1/2 miles three times on a Sunday to All Saints Anglican Church and Sunday School. Her support and devotion to her church was indeed an example of fidelity. While living a quiet busy home life her daily life was filled with purpose and goodwill, and her passing has indeed caused a break in the entire life of Kinghorn. Mr. Hollinshead passed away about seven years ago. The strength of character they both gave to the little hamlet of Kinghorn should prove an enduring force and inspiration to the rest of us.

Surviving are four sons, Ernest, Albert, Harold and Roy; sixteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren.

The funeral service held from All Saints' Church, on Sunday was largely attended, Rev. E. W. G. Worral officiating. The floral tributes were many and the bearers were Messrs. George Hatley, Crawford Wells, W. J. Badger, Wilbert Burns, Victor Cull and Clifford Douglas. A wide family connection was present including Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ransom, Mrs. V. Breedin of West King; Mr. Sam Fraser and two children Evelyn and Leslie of Ottawa; Lyle and Aubrey McNertney of Newmarket; Harold Fenn of Toronto; Donald and Iona Ransom, Merchant of St. Catharines; Mr. and Mrs. M. Shrank of Newmarket; several of the Williamson family of Aurora; Rev. T. L. and Mrs. Williams of Uxbridge and many others.

May we also add that other survivors are two sisters, Mrs. John Cull, Kinghorn and Mrs. Ann Jane Wells of Aurora, one brother Alfred Ransom of Tottenham. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

$238.46 was turned in to the King Township Red Cross Treasury as proceeds from Schomberg Big Town Night on August 20th. All the people who could squeeze into the Town Hall for the Army presentation of "Thumbs Up Review" saw a good show, had plenty of fun at the auction sale and danced the remainder of the night to Camp Borden dance band. The entire performance was very gratifying to the Schomberg Horticultural Society whose aim was to raise as much as possible for Civilian Relief in England through the local Red Cross branch.

Just here may we point out that the loyal workers of the local Red Cross Branch find that it is taking more and more of their time to meet the ever-growing demand for supplies for the bomb victims of Britain. It may not be generally known by the people of our community of the great work which is being done by the Canadian Red Cross Society for the homeless people of Great Britain. In a report issued by the National Headquarters of the Society it is noted that during the month of September 1940, there were given for the relief of bomb victims of London over 22,000 articles of clothing, 1900 blankets and 19,300 quilts.

Since organization King Township Branch has spent much time and money in making supplies for the homeless victims of Britain. Among many other articles over 200 quilts have been made by this branch. It must be of great satisfaction to the women of our branch to realize that they have been able to do their part in providing the homeless with much needed comfort. Those in charge of the local work room located at Schomberg would welcome any ladies who could help in this work.

September 10th is the date of the second edition of B.W.V. street dance, plus an auction sale of tremendous interest, to be held at King City, sponsored by Lake Marie and King Athletic Association. All proceeds for British War Victims' Fund.

All Saints' Anglican Church will be decorated with gladioli similar to last year by the Jarvis family this Sunday, August 31st. The service will be held at 11.30 a.m. D.S.T.

RED CROSS NOTES

At the request of National War Services at Ottawa the Red Cross Society has placed its organization at the disposal of the Government and will be responsible through its branches for collection of aluminum scrap which is urgently needed now. The Richmond Hill Red Cross Branch is anxious to co-operate in this effort and will make a special appeal to everyone in the Richmond Hill Red Cross area to have ready every available pound of worn out, broken or other waste aluminum for Sept. 5 and 6. Watch the Liberal for further details as to collection. This collection is for aluminum ONLY.

Three of these articles were made from the material used in the Richmond Hill Red Cross room and the congratulations of the entire organization is extended to the ladies whose workmanship was of such high order to merit this recognition particularly this year when the entry list was the largest in the history of the C.N.E.

Young Canada Guests at C.N.E.

Shirley Paris of Richmond Hill One of the Speakers

Shirley Paris and Phillip Mihorean represented Richmond Hill Public School at the Young Canada Luncheon which was a C.N.E. feature on Monday, Children's Day. Some three hundred boys and girls representing city and country schools were guests of the Exhibition. Of the hundreds of guests two girls and a boy were selected to speak to the luncheon on the subject "What I would do if I were running Canada," and that honor fell to Shirley Paris of Richmond Hill, Donald Maynard of Unionville, and Hazel Burch of Toronto. The Evening Telegram reported the luncheon as follows: "Three young speakers took the centre stage at the Women's Committee luncheon yesterday and had something to say on the subject, 'What Would I Do If I Were Running Canada.' Two girls and a boy were the speakers.

Pretty thirteen-year-old Shirley Paris, of Richmond Hill, would get on with the war effort a hundred per cent. She would have a great army and navy and air force in Canada; would have all war industries working together, doing away with all strikes. She would have the women take charge of the salvage and she would have women doing a lot of home canning to let commercially canned products go overseas. Shirley wants home planning now so that when men return there will be no slums, but modern homes. With a "Serve, save and sacrifice for victory," the young speaker closed her address.

Donald Maynard, Unionville, said that every Canadian boy has a secret ambition to be leader of the country and that the duty of boys was to grow into the kind of leaders Canada would need thirty or forty years from now. He prefaced his remarks by admitting that youth only had ideas and not experience.

Donald would like an adjustment of soldiers' pay to meet that of the industrial workers' pay; he would cut down governmental expenses; he would put the educational system under the federal rather than the provincial government; hold off work on the St. Lawrence waterways until after the war, and he criticized the method of scattered manufacturing of parts of war materials, saying it was a waste of transportation, time and labor bringing them together for assembling. He thought there should be definite gasoline rationing and no one should drive over forty miles an hour.

Hazel Burch, a Girl Guide from Hamilton, had outlined her program for running Canada. Strikes would be absolutely out; she would cultivate more land and raise more livestock, and she would provide special education for children of men in active service in case they would have to support themselves if their fathers returned unable to do so."
