GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Buy War Savings Stamps.
Our advertisers are "wheels within wheels"—keep them turning.

There is only one way to meet total war, and that is by total effort.

Despite unfavorable weather Markham Fair gate receipts were $200 higher than last year.

When requiring goods or services, patronize our advertisers. They have issued an invitation to you.

It is said that the average woman has a vocabulary of only eighteen hundred words. It may be a small stock but think of the turn-over.

"Remoteness from the immediate scene of conflict has ceased to be a safeguard for men and nations that cherish their freedom."—Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

The farm sale of William Dunn, Uxbridge township last week brought in $1600. A cow and calf sold for $118 and a bay mare brought $70.
The manure spreader sold for $70.

On the east side of the ticket office at the entrance to Richmond Hill park is a sign which tells in plainly printed letters that the dumping of ashes in the park is prohibited. Directly underneath the sign is a pile of ashes.

Mrs. Thomas Chatburn, a native of Vaughan Township, died at Aurora October 10th. She lived at Maple for many years, moving to Aurora some 17 years ago. The funeral service was held in Aurora, and interment followed in Maple cemetery.

A Kingston Magistrate deplored the fact there was so much perjury in the courts and warned one witness to get out of the court room before he sentenced him to 14 years for perjury. No doubt a few sentences of this kind would teach the importance of an oath.

W. E. McKay for the past thirty years a resident of Steele's Avenue West was drowned last Thursday when a boat in which he was riding with a companion capsized in Caribou Lake. His companion was able to hold on to the side of the capsized boat until it drifted to shore.

David Markle of Newmarket collapsed and passed away in the office of a taxi stand early Tuesday morning. The aged man was taking a wreath to the cemetery to place on his wife's grave, and had been ordering a taxi.

Rhea Jordan, 6th concession of Whitchurch, who is charged with setting fire to the barn of Albert Hoover, also to the sixth concession, on October 4, and with stealing $5.00 the property of Leona Hoover, on October 2, was remanded in Newmarket court last week.

East Gwillimbury Township officials are worried over an epidemic of "sheep killing dogs". Over fifty teen killed last week and it is stated the dogs travel in packs like wolves. The township constable has shot three of the blood-thirsty dogs but it is estimated there are ten or twenty in the pack.

George Robinson of Whitchurch township had a narrow escape from serious injury last week when he was charged by a maddened cow and struck down. The incident occurred on the farm of Charles Case on the second concession. Mr. Robinson escaped practically unscathed after being knocked down, as the cow had practically no horns.

The public auction sale held by Walker D. Piper, 9th concession of Markham, at Dickson Hill, drew a large crowd last week, and realized around $2,400. While horses were slow, cattle were brisk and prices ruled high. Best cow herd to Clark Johnson for $90, and her calf six weeks old to George Bennett for $27. Heifers not bred sold at $40 and bob-calves brought $7 and $8 apiece. Hay in the mow realized $10 a ton, buckwheat 67c. bushel, and oats 60c.

Canadians have contributed more than $27,000,000 to war charities since the outbreak of war.

Two cases of infantile paralysis have been reported in North York Township, the first in the municipality in two years according to Dr.
C. E. Hill, M.O.H.

Automobile backgrounds for 1942 will have an orange background with figures and letters in black. Supplie of the new plates are already going forward from the Ontario Reformator at Guelph, where they are manufactured, to license bureaus throughout the province.

Despite inclement weather there was a large crowd of spectators and keen competition at the annual field trials of the Eglinton Hunt held at the farm of Mr. O. D. Robinson, Oriole, Saturday afternoon. Galiv-vanter, one of Mr. Robinson's roan hunters, and well known to patrons of Richmond Hill Fair won the qualified hunter class.

Decorated with giant mangolds and turnips The Liberal Office windows these days resemble a produce store.
We are undecided whether to go in the business or buy a cow.

And talking of mangels, we came across these lines in our old files last week. They are by an anonymous contributor and must have been inspired by some roots like we have in our window today:
Mangels, Mangels, Mangels,
I wish they didn't grow, Because when I have to pull them, They make my back ache so.

Mangels, Mangels, Mangels, Hurrah, they are all done,
Mangels, Mangels, Mangels,
Picking them ain't no fun.

Heartlessly working their way throughout Toronto and its suburbs are the members of a gang or gangs of petty war-time racketeers who are daily mulcting the mothers and wives of men in the army, air force and navy, in promoting the sale of picture enlargements that will be "suitably framed."

A warning against dealing with such war-time parasites was given recently by A. R. Haskell, manager of the Better Business Bureau.

"Over sixty complaints last month alone came into the Better Business Bureau, and we were able to recover $735.70 from the mothers and wives of men in the services who had been imposed upon until they saw the quality of the work they were paying for," said the speaker.
