Teston and District

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Peterman and Misses Audrey and Donna Peterman of Alliston were guests last week for several days with Mrs. C. Peterman. The October meeting of the W.A. was held in the church on October 15th. After the usual business period the balance of the afternoon was spent in quilting. A dainty lunch was served by the committee in charge.

A large number from Teston and surrounding districts were able to visit Peterboro for at least one of the four days of the Provincial Plowing Match. Everyone reports a very interesting time.

A good program is being planned for the Annual Fowl Supper at Teston on November 12.

The anniversary service at Laskay on Sunday afternoon was largely attended. Rev. Roy Hicks of Aurora was the guest speaker, assisted in the service by Rev. J. H. Anderson. Laskay choir supplied special music.

Project activities have begun again at Vellore with Mary McNeil and Edna Keffer as leaders. The work promises to be interesting.

CARRVILLE

A vote was taken at church in regard to having service in the afternoon. The vote was carried. Starting November 2nd the church service will be held from 2 o'clock till 3 o'clock and Sunday School from 3 o'clock till 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Black and sons Maurice and Bruce of Oshawa were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Durey.

Mr. Stan Woods who has formerly been employed at Donalds Farms is now working at John Inglis in Toronto.

King City News Items

On October 22 a euchre will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hare at Temperanceville proceeds for Oak Ridges Red Cross branch.

The open course in Health Education will commence on Monday, October 27, continuing each day through October 31; classes in the afternoon and evening in King United Church basement. Miss Hamilton will teach, sent by the Women's Institute Branch, Department of Agriculture. King W.I. extend an open invitation to all to attend.

At the October meeting of Temperanceville Women's Institute branch Miss A. Mortson, L.T.C.M., of Jefferson, provided an excellent program on "Music" before an appreciative group. Miss Ruth Bull, a young pupil of Miss Mortson's rendered two piano numbers. While she has been studying piano only a short time, Ruth displayed fine ability and a keen sense of the true value of good music. Under Miss Mortson's experienced guidance Ruth Bull will develop this art, for art's sake. Ruth and her teacher also played two duets. Two papers were given by Miss Mortson entitled "Miracles Wrought by Music" and "Music as one of the greatest sanctuaries of civilization". "The Proper Care of the Piano", an instructive paper, was given by Mrs. E. H. Stoltz also of Jefferson.

Laskay W.I. heard Miss M. Todd in a talk on Education, in which she pointed out that the education of a child is a good investment for the country. The higher he reaches the greater the investment. The influence of the home and church are factors in determining the character and the place in life the child will find.

Anniversary services of the Second King Baptist Church at Pottageville will be held on Sunday, October 26. King United Church S. S. will held very special services on October 26th, the 70th birthday; very special arrangements are planned.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bailey and daughter of Woodstock visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Gillham recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hollinshead, Zelta and Doris motored to Ottawa for the Thanksgiving week-end, visiting Mr. Fraser, a brother-in-law. The annual meeting of the King-

Temperanceville Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held on October 15 at St. John's Church, mandated for overseas shipments. The actual quota fulfilment is often not completely met. Thus greater emphasis must be placed on the low supply in that particular line. One of these is turtle-neck sweaters and seamen's socks. The Township Red Cross Branch is anxious to advise each citizen who is sewing or knitting for the Branch to become acquainted with the quota, as follows: 30 skirts, 60 blouses, 30 nightgowns, 30 pairs pyjamas (boys). These of course are mainly for bomb victims.

One of the largest shipments yet made from King Township was sent to headquarters lately. Ten large cartons were packed very closely including 4 complete layettes, 34 quilts, 100 prs. socks, 10 sleeveless sweaters, 3 turtle-neck sweaters, 4 pullover sleeveless sweaters, knitted (hand) cardigans, 3 boys' pullovers, 5 ladies' knickers, 9 prs. seamen's socks, 14 scarves, 1 lady's overnight kit, 9 aero caps, 4 ribbed helmets, 2 pairs 2-way mitts, 28 washcloths, 115 handkerchiefs, 21 pairs gloves, 1 pr. kneecaps, 1 pr. wristlets, 2 boys' shirts, 6 boys' coats, 6 prs. men's pyjamas, 1 windbreaker, 10 prs. mitts, 4 shoulder wraps (hospital use), 2 prs. boys' socks, 10 sleeveless sweaters for 10 year old boys, 2 complete suits for 10 year old boys (flannel suit, skirt, belt, sweater).

Oak Ridges. Financial reports showed that more than $60 had gone toward the general fund, an increase over former years. The officers were returned, President, Rev. John Galloway; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Charles Egan. Rev. F. B. Alnutt, Field Secretary, gave an illustrated lecture showing the distribution of Bibles in Japan and Africa. Rev. Mr. Worrall kindly brought a number of children who attend St. John's Sunday School and they were much interested in the views and stories. Mrs. Alnutt also mentioned the distribution of Bibles to each member of the Canadian forces.

A letter from Pte. James D. Gray in England, and formerly of King, states he has recently recovered from bronchial pneumonia and is out of the hospital.

Your correspondent would appreciate bits of news concerning any overseas boys. Outside of their immediate families the rest of us know very little of them. We would be happy to use the column as an exchange of notes up to date.

Pilot Officer George Davis paid calls in King last week before transfer.

Rev. H. B. and Mrs. Hardy paid a visit to King City a short time ago.

Mrs. Tom Proctor, Schomberg, has returned from St. Michael's Hospital where she underwent an operation. She is convalescing at her mother's home, Mrs. George H. Stone of King. Mrs. H. Whitney of Southampton and Miss F. Butt were recent guests of Mrs. Stone's during Mrs. Proctor's illness.

Mrs. Harvey Wells of Ewatts, Alberta, is visiting the Wells families of the district and calling on as many old friends as she has time, and all are very pleased to see her.

Mrs. Effie Bath of Thornbury visited Mrs. L. Boys recently.

On Wednesday, October 8th, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Faires of Aurora, (nee Annie Gillham) at York County Hospital. Her name is Doreen Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gillham and son Jackie of Markham visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Gillham last week. Bill has been transferred from Winnipeg munition works to Pickering.

The last quota for Red Cross indicates that greater effort is indicated in deference to the Pottageville Baptist anniversary on October 26th the service in King Baptist Church will be held in the afternoon at 2.30 p.m. standard time.

HEADFORD

Anniversary services will be held next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. standard time. Rev. A. H. Halbert of Newtonbrook will preach in the morning and Miss Peggy MacKay will be guest soloist. In the evening Rev. J. McCausland will preach and music will be by Richmond Hill choir.

GORMLEY

Mrs. George Kerr had the pleasure of entertaining her three nephews, L. Cpl. L. D. Shuttlesworth, Pte. B. T. Shuttlesworth and Pte. C. E. Shuttlesworth, from Camp Borden on their last leave, and their sister, Miss Dorothy Shuttlesworth, all formerly from the West.

With The Veterans

It is expected that the Postmaster-General of Canada, Col. W. P. Mulock, K.C., M.P. Member for North York, will be on hand to take the salute in his own constituency in the Armistice Day parade to be held in Richmond Hill on Sunday, November 9th at 2 p.m. Detailed arrangements were made at a joint meeting of the Village Council and Veterans, held in the Municipal Chambers last Monday night. Invitations have been sent out to all military bodies of the district and beyond including the C.W.S.F. and the local Women's Auxiliary. It will be the first time the Women's organization has appeared in an Armistice Day parade. Capt. Mrs. Thompson O.C. of the Willowdale Company will be in command.

It is hoped to secure at least one first class band. The Trumpet Band is not available this year as most of its members have joined the various branches of the regular army. Congratulations to Tommy Kemp who has joined up with the Army Service Corps.
