BUTTONVILLE

A week ago about 30 ladies of the community gathered in the basement of Brown's Corners United Church to quilt for the Red Cross. Three quilts were completed. Of these one quilt had been patched by Mrs. Craig, the other two by Mrs. Brown. A supper was served at which a collection was taken to help defray the expense of the boxes sent overseas.

Shipped from Buttonville this week by the Red Cross are the following articles: A boy's outfit consisting of coat, pants, shirt, sweater, 2 pair hose; a child's scarf, 2 sailors' scarfs, a sleeveless weater, 4 wash cloths, 7 pair rifle mitts, a boy's sweater, 3 quilts, 1' blankets 6 of which were donated by the Red Cross and 7 blankets were bought with money donated by several ladies in the community, 8 girls' dresses, a pair seaman's boots, or 26' stockings.

On Monday night the ladies of the Buttonville Institute gathered at the home of Mrs. R. Boyington to the last class in "New Ways to Cook Vegetables". This class was in charge of Mrs. Art Newson assisted by Mrs. E. Walton. Several new and appetizing dishes were made and sampled and with a very hearty vote of thanks to those who conducted the class and to Mrs. Boyington for the use of her house the meeting adjourned.

The hunting urge took the following hunters north, T. Patterson, D. Hood, R. Boyington, L. Hood, N. Burr and N. Boyington. We wish them luck.

Last week the Markham Institute invited the Buttonville group to attend one of their meetings. The majority of Buttonville Institute members were able to attend. Mrs. A. Stephenson gave two solos in her usual pleasing manner followed by Mrs. Newham who spoke on the topic "Peace and International Relationships". Her talk dealing with present day events in our troubled world was an inspiration to all who heard. The solos by Mrs. Miller were much enjoyed. The thought in Mrs. Maynard's short talk was one for us to remember in our present day—"What we value we hold."

Mrs. R. Boyington conveyed the thanks of the Buttonville ladies and their enjoyment in the programme they had heard and with the National Anthem the meeting adjourned.

VELLORE

NEWLYWEDS HONORED WITH PRESENTATION

Mr. and Mrs. "Pat" Clubine of Richmond Hill were honored at a charivari party at Vellore Memorial Hall last Thursday evening. A large number of the friends of the popular couple gathered to extend them congratulations and best wishes. A pleasant feature of the evening was when Mrs. Bryson Lloyd asked the couple to come forward and read a congratulatory message and Charlie Black made the presentation of a beautiful mantel clock. Mr. and Mrs. Clubine made brief replies thanking their friends for the lovely gift. The "Sixth" orchestra was in attendance and supplied music for dancing and Peter Craib ably acted as floor manager. The following is the address read by Mrs. Lloyd:

The address was as follows:
Mr. and Mrs. Clubine:
It affords us much pleasure to be gathered here this evening to honor you after your recent wedding.

Mrs. Clubine, we have had the pleasure of knowing you for some time, but we are happy to know that you have decided to remain with us.

Pat, we are very pleased to have you before us tonight in the position of a smiling bridegroom. Now that you have taken this serious step, we sincerely hope you have all the happiness and joy possible.

May your married life be long and prosperous. And to assist in the march of time we ask you to accept this clock with our very best wishes.

Signed on behalf of the Charivari group.

LATE FIELD CROPS PRELIMINARY ESTIMATE

The first estimate of the late field crops of Canada in 1941 places potato production at 29,290,000 cwt. This is slightly below normal and below the 42,300,000 cwt. output in 1940.

Commercial sugar beet production in 1941 is estimated at 731,000 tons, a slight increase in yield per acre at 10.34 bushels, but a decrease of 94,100 bushels in total production, due to a reduction of 11,500 acres compared with 1940.

Corn for husking, fodder corn, peas, beans and alfalfa cuttings showed increases, while decreases were estimated in turnips, buckwheat and mixed grains.

Thornhill

On Thursday evening last about twenty-five ex-school mates and friends gathered at the home of Miss Betty Bone to shower their good wishes and gifts on Miss Janet Little of Langstaff who is to be married on Saturday, November 22 in Trinity Anglican Church to Mr. Ernie Peters also of Langstaff. In a few very fitting words the bride-to-be thanked all present for their kind thoughts and good wishes. A social time was then enjoyed by all.

The Toronto Evening Telegram War Movies in aid of the B.W.V.F. will be shown under the auspices of the Thornhill Y.P.U. on Wednesday, November 19th at 8 p.m. in the United Church.

Mrs. Humphrey Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Humphrey Jr. and family both of North Toronto, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Eyer. Mr. G. Sparrow, now of Thornhill, spent the week-end with his family in Stayner.

Mr. S. S. Findlay and Mr. G. Nuttall spent the week-end with Mr. N. C. Findlay of North Bay.

We are glad to record that Mr. G. Campbell who has been ill for the past few days with the flu is now back on the job again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Patterson of Orono were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Findlay.

Miss Florence Rickwood was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Henderson.

Owing to war conditions the Thornhill Horticultural Society has decided to dispense with the annual banquet this year and in its place have a social evening for the members and friends of the organization. This social will be held in Lawrence Memorial Hall Wednesday, November 16th. Notice of the speaker and entertainment will be given in next week's Liberal. The distribution of prizes won by members this year will take place at this event.

Many parties are being given by residents of Thornhill for their friends who will attend the third annual dance of the Thornhill branch of the Red Cross tonight. Miss Shelagh Macdonnell is entertaining about 20 of her Toronto friends including Murray Maynard, Ken Cameron, Miss P. Syngé, C. Worsley. Mrs. Tom Jackson expects about 20 city guests including Wing Commander McCaul, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinette, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bryant, Dr. and Mrs. Ed. Harrison, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. John MacNeil.

A group of university girls and Air Force officers will be the guests of Col. and Mrs. MacLaren. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jaeger will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hinder and Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson. The guests of Mrs. Bruce Ross, convener of the dance, will include Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. John Angus and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. B. Hector. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Neil will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Pridham of Toronto, and Messrs. J. Taschereau, Robert Pinsonnault and Roger LaRoche of Quebec.

The W.I. bazaar will be held at the home of Mrs. James Pearson, Thursday, November 20th at 2.30 p.m. Home cooking and economical Xmas gifts will be offered for sale and the usual dainty tea will be served. The money made is to help with the war work of the organization.

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

The "Old Timer's Night" at Unionville Junior Farmers meeting sent many reminiscing along "time's highway". Bill Champion and Ruby Reesor gave some highlights of the early days and the crowded hall gave evidence that their efforts had not been in vain. Unionville Junior Farmers varied activities and their far-reaching influence bringing about many changes that tend to the betterment of farm living as outstanding improvements will verify. A unanimous co-operation in the allotted task is the secret of this success and an organization of this calibre is indeed a credit to the community it represents.

Speaking of community behaviour or getting along with each other, B. F. Cannon, formerly of the Normal School Staff, now Inspector of Schools in Scarborough said we must first have confidence in and respect for our fellow citizens and allow the right of the community to take precedence over the right of the individual as we see it. A constant co-operative effort needs the observance of community rules and regulations. Ways to lose friends, Mr. Cannon quoted were to have emotional sprees, dominate your friends, be a martyr, be a bore, never commend always criticize, and find fault, be a dignified snob.

Rules of good behaviour were summarized in: Be a good loser, develop sense of humor, make quick decisions and abide by the consequences, cultivate the habits of regularity and promptness and always live in the present. Learn to forget the "Dead Yesterdays" and the "Unborn Tomorrows". Live in the "Right Now". Jack Loudon's prayer made a fitting closing for this splendid meeting.

Lord, now I start my daily work, I pray the Lord, I may not shrink; If I should die before the night, I pray the Lord I may do right. The reading of extracts from former news sheets by Elliot Harrington was enjoyed. Presentation of Markham Fair prizes were followed by refreshments and dancing concluded the evening.

The Red Cross appeal for blankets continues, and donations either of money or blankets will be gratefully received. Thirteen blankets and forty-eight dollars which will purchase 24 blankets, making 37 that have been contributed by Markham Township. Only three units have been heard from and as the need is great it is desired that other units will answer the call as well.

Twenty-four ladies attended the November meeting of the local Women's Institute that convened at the home of Mrs. A. E. Milner Thursday. Mrs. Seth Thompson presided in the absence of the president Mrs. Whaley. An interesting event of the afternoon was a demonstration on "How to make the best of Vegetables" given by Mrs. A. E. Milner and Mrs. T. Burnett. Attractive salads, a delight to the eye as well as the appetite, along with other ways of serving vegetables were presented.

Plans to answer the blanket appeal were made and the appointment of Mrs. A. E. Milner as official delegate to the annual convention was included in the business program.

Refreshments were served with Mrs. A. E. Milner, Mrs. F. Atkinson, Mrs. Armitage, Mrs. R. J. Duffield and Mrs. C. E. Stiver as hostesses.

The Library Board catered to the Plowman's Association event last Wednesday when approximately 400 persons were served during the day. The inconvenience of no water supply at the Township Hall is a problem for such events and the solving of this problem by having a well or some means of supply would indeed be a splendid help on such occasions, also a boon as fire protection. Could not our council devise some plan for meeting this need?

We are pleased to report Mrs. John Brown home from hospital and making favorable convalescence.

Miss Jean Muirhead is attending Normal School.

Mr. Desmond Gale, of the Bank of Commerce spent the holiday in Beaverton.

Miss Grace Harrington spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warne and son Billy of St. Catharines were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy.

Mrs. F. Boadway and Mrs. D. Coulson spent last week with relatives in Toronto.

Miss Effie Middleton of Toronto spent Wednesday at her home here.

A number from our community attended the Fowl Supper at Victoria Square.

The Turkey Supper of Unionville United Church held last week was the best yet — good weather, a crowd of over 600 people and cleared approximately $200.00. The pictures presented by Mr. Walter Monkhouse were close to nature and very wholesome. Mrs. Garfield Hamilton was well received with her solo numbers and much enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Newham and Rev. Mr. Davis delighted us all with their humorous experiences in pastoral work and church life. The ladies were exceptionally well organized and served good meals.
