RICHVALE

The local Red Cross Society wishes to thank all those, especially the boys and girls, who so loyally braved the elements to come out on Monday evening when, due to unforeseen circumstances the showing of moving pictures was cancelled.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

January 24th, 1942.

Dear Friend:—

This is just a short letter of thanks for the Mas box sent from the Richvale Red Cross. Please accept this small thanks from all the boys on active service in England and myself for your splendid help. Here's hoping for best of luck in the coming year.

Yours truly,
Private A. R. Bailey.

Rt. Hon. Raoul Dandurand, Government leader and senior member of the Senate, died unexpectedly in an Ottawa hospital last week.

Many stories of employees of industrial plants in Toronto, who, through their own carelessness, found themselves in the hospital, were told by W. R. Laughlen, of Massey-Harris Co. Ltd., when he addressed a meeting of the Toronto York Division of the Industrial Accident Prevention Association, held this week. The story of a man who sawed the floor around him and fell to the floor below was not a myth, but an actuality, he pointed out. During the past few months this has happened three times in Toronto.

Marshall Bros. Lose Lives In Accident

The double fatality of Frank and J. Arthur Marshall, as a result of an accident near Hornby on Saturday, March 14th brought tragedy and sorrow to the Marshall families at King and Kettleby.

The whole incident is so filled with tragedy and deep concern to all involved. Words cannot express the widespread sympathy that goes out to them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall of King, Mr. Arthur Marshall of Kettleby, and their sister Mrs. Anne Marshall-MacMurchy, were travelling in the Frank Marshall car to attend the funeral of a relative; Mrs. Frank Dickinson of Milton. The collision with a truck occurred near Hornby, the intersection of sideroad No. 5 and concession line 7. Poor visibility was claimed to be the cause of the accident. The terrific impact caused both the car and truck to be sent 60 feet away into a field. The men were instantly killed reports state. The women were taken to Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton. At the time of writing Mrs. Marshall is suffering from fractured ribs and a fractured arm, shock and bruises; Mrs. MacMurchy from bruises and severe shock. Both are aware of the death of the men but neither were able to leave the hospital to attend the double funeral.

Surviving are Mrs. Frank Marshall and two children, Irene aged 20 and Aubrey aged 10 years, Mrs. J. A. Marshall of Kettleby and two children, Ray and Mrs. Jack McDonald, both of Kettleby, and three grandchildren.

The circumstances are such that Irene Marshall must take her mother's place, and with her young brother, face the situation as best she can.

Mrs. MacMurchy will recall that during the first Great War, her youngest brother, Aubrey Marshall, was killed on active service. Four years ago a brother Albert was laid to rest still a young man. With her to mourn the last and tragic deaths are two sisters, Mrs. Ella Campbell of King and Mrs. Louisa McCallum of Toronto.

One of the finest and oldest district families there has passed, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marshall and four sons, Arthur, Albert, Frank and Aubrey.

It is more than 100 years since Christopher Marshall pioneered the farm occupied by the late Frank Marshall at Strange. When J. Arthur Marshall married Elizabeth Allan of Laskay, shortly afterwards they settled at Kettleby. Both men were prosperous farmers, highly respected citizens and devoted to their church. They were both reared in Laskay United Church, Frank remaining a loyal officer there and Arthur an outstanding churchman at Kettleby.

A double funeral service was held from the Marshall homestead at Strange on March 17th. Rev. H. J. Anderson, Rev. W. J. Burton and Rev. D. G. Davis officiating.

The floral tributes were very numerous. Frank Marshall was interred in King Cemetery and Arthur in Kettleby Cemetery. Deep sympathy is expressed to the families.
