

Harvey Wilson R.C.A.F. Honored By Maple Friends

Presentation Held Last Friday Evening

A large crowd gathered in the Community Hall, Maple last Friday evening to do honor to Harvey Wilson who is serving with the Royal Canadian Air Force. Euchre was enjoyed as the first part of the evening's program after which J. Carl Saigeon who acted as Master of Ceremonies read an address and Frank Robson presented the guest of honor with a beautiful wrist watch. Harvey in well chosen words acknowledged the kindness of his friends and thanked them for their good wishes. Dainty refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing.

The address read by Mr. Saigeon was as follows:

DEAR HARVEY:—

In these days of extreme stress and strain, the most critical in the long history of our Country and Empire, it is a source of pride and satisfaction that our young men in ever increasing numbers are volunteering for services with our armed forces. Tonight we gather to do honor to Harvey Wilson, a boy from this community who has volunteered for service with the Royal Canadian Air Force.

The youth of probably no other age in history had the privilege of living in a day of such challenge and opportunity. The threat against our Freedom and our Way-of-Life by the Dictator Nations is a testing time and the burden of this testing time falls most heavily upon the shoulders of our young men. If our civilization is to be saved, if our way of living is to be preserved, it will be saved and preserved by our young men who man our airplanes, our ships and make up our fighting forces on land. No matter how much those of us who do war work in other capacities may help the final test of Victory will be in the hands of our men in the fighting forces.

Our fighting forces are made up of just such young men as Harvey who is with the R.C.A.F. We know these young men are made of the right kind of stuff, that they are second to none in the world, and that in the final test they will prove victorious and in the end Victory will be ours.

To these young men who join our fighting forces we extend our sincere congratulations. We admire them as they are the saviours of our freedom. We pledge them our support on the home front and promise that everything we can do to make their army life pleasant we will gladly do. We give them our pledge that we will try our best to keep things going on the home front and that they shall not want for the best in supplies and fighting equipment.

Harvey has volunteered to do his full duty in this war. Let's pledge ourselves to do our utmost.

We ask you to accept this wrist watch and may you long be spared to wear it.

Signed on behalf of your friends of Maple and vicinity.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Women's Auxiliary of Veterans are holding a euchre at the home of Mrs. J. Pollard, Centre Street, on Tuesday, March 31st at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Greene are grandparents to a daughter born Sunday, March 22nd to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greene at Mansfield, Ohio. The name is "Mary Ellen".

A euchre will be held in St. Mary's R.C. Hall on Friday evening, March 27th. Good prizes will be given and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Easter meeting of the Presbyterian W.M.S. will be held in the church parlor on Thursday, April 2 at three o'clock. Mrs. McClure of King, District vice-president, will be guest speaker.

The Anglican W.A. will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. A. Nicholls, 7 Yonge Street on March 31st at 2.30 p.m. Will the ladies kindly bring their cent-a-meal boxes.

At the regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Veterans a draw which was postponed from November took place the winners being: 1st, pair of gloves, Mrs. A. White; 2nd, wool scarf, Howard White; 3rd, wool rabbit, Helen Patterson; 4th, wool duck, Mrs. Deadman; 5th, 1 pair pillow slips, Mrs. Donaldson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doner and daughter Lorna visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wideman, Richmond Hill and plan to return to their home in Regina early next week. Mr. Robert McTaggart who spent the winter at the Wideman home will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Doner.

Over sixty-five relatives and friends from Toronto, Concord, Maple, Guelph and Richmond Hill called on Mrs. George Reaman at her Elizabeth Street home last Saturday to tender her best wishes and congratulations on the occasion of her ninetieth birthday. She received in addition many congratulatory messages and thoughtful gifts from friends in distant points. Tea arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Sam Adams of Richmond Hill and Miss Elaine Reaman of Guelph.

Evidence of the might of the British Navy and the efficiency of the postal service even under war conditions is the fact that despite enemy action the great majority of letters and parcels for overseas reach their destination. Mrs. W. Sayers, Richmond Hill, has for the past sixty weeks sent weekly parcels of tea to relatives in the old land and word this week advised of the safe arrival of the fifty-second parcel. Of the fifty-two parcels sent in a year only three were lost.

Mrs. J. W. Dewsbury, Mill St., entertained at tea in honor of her daughter Grace, a bride of this week, on Saturday afternoon. Among those assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Ough, mother of the groom, and his sister Miss Elaine Ough. Others who entertained for the popular bride were Mrs. Stewart Rumble, when her Sunday School class presented her with a pyrex set and Miss Muriel Barrow and Miss Marie Hayden who entertained at a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Sheldon Walker also had a miscellaneous shower for her sister.

Aircraftman Jack Beresford is enjoying a leave at his home here. He is looking fine and enjoying life and R.C.A.F. training.

Everyone is invited to attend the Hobby Show to be held at the Public School Saturday, March 28 from 4.30 to 9 p.m.

Thirty-two tables were in play at the euchre sponsored by the Red Cross and held Monday evening. The receipts from the euchre were $37.50, from a lucky draw $22.50, and from donations $25, making a total of $85.00. The list of donors and prize winners is as follows: Ladies, first prize donated by Mrs. J. A. Greene, won by Mrs. Ed. Rowden; second, donated by ladies of St. Mary's Catholic Church, won by Mrs. Percy Hill; third, donated by Hillcrest Beauty Parlor, won by Mrs. J. O'Neil. Men, first prize, donated by James Pollard, won by Stuart Kidd; second, donated by J. C. Young, won by K. Blanchard; third, donated by J. R. Herrington and won by W. Cox. Consolation prizes were won by Mrs. C. Patrick and R. D. Little. Winners of the lucky draw sponsored by Miss Lever were: First, donated by Albert Glass, won by Mrs. Percy Hill; second, donated by Mrs. McLatchy, won by J. C. Young; third, donated by Mrs. Shelke, and won by Mr. Rogers. Door prizes, donated by Mr. Kidd, were won by Mrs. A. Cruickshank and Frank Grainger. The convenors, Mrs. J. C. Young and Mrs. J. Pollard and members of the committee thank all who patronized the event, donated prizes or in any way contributed to its success.

The regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Veterans a draw which was postponed from November took place the winners being: 1st, pair of gloves, Mrs. A. White; 2nd, wool scarf, Howard White; 3rd, wool rabbit, Helen Patterson; 4th, wool duck, Mrs. Deadman; 5th, 1 pair pillow slips, Mrs. Donaldson.

Letter from Overseas

St. Maurs,
Chepstow, Monmouthshire,
November 8th, 1941.
To St. Mary's Church (Anglican)
Richmond Hill,
Ontario, Canada.

Dear Members of St. Mary's:—

The quilt which you have so generously sent to this platoon is proving one of the greatest boons which I have ever received since I joined the A.T.S. It is not only warm, but so beautifully worked that it is a decoration to a very bare and military looking room.

I came to Chepstow to take over a Platoon. I felt very frightened especially when I found that one of the first things I had to do was to move the 30 girls in my charge from a camp to a requisitioned house. We had next to no furniture until the Quartermaster took pity on us and gave the military scale. Comforts we had none and the poor officer had one night when she did not have even a bed because we were so short.

The next day our Group Commandant arrived by car and in the back was reposing a box in which were comforts which arrived from Canada and among them your quilt. My N.C.O.s insisted that this quilt should go on my bed and so I write to tell you how much it is appreciated, and how at night after perhaps a hard and difficult day I lie and think of the people in Canada who are doing so much for us, that we may not miss too greatly the home touches which so many have so bravely given up.

If any members of your church (men or women) should come to England and find themselves in this district we hope they will give us the chance to return in part the friendship which you have shown to us.

Yours gratefully and sincerely,
Margaret Evans, 2/sub.,
O.C. 23rd Western Platoon,
Chepstow Detachment.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many neighbours and friends who were so kind and sympathetic in our recent bereavement.
George Cooper and Family.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Mrs. Thos. Street of Newtonbrook wish to thank their many friends and neighbours for the beautiful floral tributes, acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during their recent sad bereavement.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Mrs. W. F. Nichols are extremely grateful to all the friends who sent flowers and cards and paid kindly visits to their mother, for the sympathy expressed and floral tributes during their recent bereavement, especially they appreciate the many visits of her spiritual adviser, Rev. Henry MacKay, a man of God in reality.

WEDDINGS

OUGH—DEWSBURY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church, Richmond Hill, Wednesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock when Grace Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dewsbury, Richmond Hill, became the bride of William John Ough, of Aurora. Rev. C. B. Brethren performed the ceremony and Miss Marie Hayden played the wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was becomingly gowned in a white dress of mousseline de soie, wearing a wreath of white flowers and carrying a bouquet of sweet roses and spring flowers. The bridesmaids, Miss Lenore Dewsbury, sister of the bride, and Miss Elaine Ough, sister of the groom, were gowned in dresses of blue and pink mousseline de soie, duplicates of the bride's, and carried bouquets of spring flowers. L.A.C. Wm. Hoskinson, R.C.A.F., New Brunswick, assisted the groom. The ushers were Mr. Sheldon Walker, Richmond Hill and Mr. Bert Franklin, Schomberg.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, Mrs. Dewsbury wearing a gown of powder blue crepe and a corsage of pink carnations and Mrs. Ough, mother of the groom, wearing navy blue crepe and a corsage of red roses.

The bride and groom later left for eastern points for their honeymoon and will take up residence in Aurora.

HARRIS—HISLOP

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Roseview Avenue, on Saturday, Mar. 14th, 1942, when Emma Irene Hislop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hislop became the bride of Arthur F. W. Harris, George St., Humber-side, Ont. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. C. B. Brethren of Richmond Hill United Church in an archway of ferns and flowers. The wedding music was played by Miss H. Harris, sister of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long white triple sheer chiffon dress with a shoulder length veil falling from a crown of gardenias, trimmed with pearls. She also wore the groom's gift, a silver necklace, and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her sister, Miss Gladys Hislop as bridesmaid wore a long pink chiffon dress with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and roses. Mr. W. A. Tomlinson of Islington was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride, where her mother wearing a light rose wool crepe and corsage of carnations and roses received the guests. Assisting her was the mother of the groom in blue crepe with corsage of pink carnations.

The couple left for a short trip, the bride wearing beige and a corsage of roses and freesia. On their return they will live in Islington.

UNITED CHURCH Y.P.U.

The United Y.P.U. will hold their regular meeting on Monday, March 30th at 7.30 p.m. Easter slides on the "Last Days of Christ" will be shown. This should be an interesting meeting so please try and attend.

IN MEMORIAM

WOODS—In memory of Neil Woods who died March 28, 1941. You are not forgotten Neil, Nor ever shall you be As long as life and memory last We will remember thee. We miss your coming footsteps, We see your empty chair, Our home is oh, so lonely, Since the one we loved is not there. —Ever and always remembered by Mother and Dad.

IN MEMORIAM

WOODS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Neil Woods who passed away suddenly at his home at Maple, Ontario, March 28, 1941. —Ever remembered by Margaret and Billy.

IN MEMORIAM

ADAMS—In loving memory of my dear sister, Evelyn Adams of Holt, Ont., who died March 29th, 1939. God knew that she was suffering, That the hills were hard to climb, So he closed her weary eyelids And whispered peace be thine. Away in the beautiful hills of God, By the valley of rest so fair, Some time, some day, we know not when, We will meet our loved one there. —Ever remembered by her sister, Josephine Hunt.

Plan now to attend the Hobby Show at the Public School on Saturday, March 28th.
