'Twas a Glorious Easter.
Bright, springlike weather was ideal for the first showing of spring styles.

Golfers were in action on local links on Good Friday.

Farmers were on the land on many farms in this district last Saturday.

Fall wheat throughout the County is reported to be looking well.

William Vanderbent of Markham Township has kept a record on his seed drill for a number of years of the first seeding date. The average over a term of years is April 19th. This year promises to be earlier than the average.

Richmond Hill figured in a hold-up and robbery Tuesday morning.

Have you something to sell? A small "ad" in The Liberal will get you a buyer. Telephone Richmond Hill 9.

North Yonge Street is to lose one of its century old landmarks with the demolition of the Hicksite Meeting House at Armtage.

The historic old structure which played such an important part in the community religious life of the Society of Friends has been purchased by Holland Marsh farmers, who will tear the structure down and use it for buildings on their garden plots.

Dealers throughout the country report an unprecedented demand for bicycles. Apparently many people are going to do their travelling via bike this Summer. Many dealers in the cities are completely sold out of bicycles.

An appeal for $9,000,000 in voluntary contributions to the work of the Red Cross Society will be launched throughout Canada on May 11th and through the succeeding two weeks.

All churches throughout the district report almost record attendance on Easter Sunday. May the good attendance continue throughout the year.

A lunatic was trying to knock a nail into a wall. But he had the head of the nail against the wood and was hammering the point.

At length, he threw down the nail in disgust, and said, "Bah! Idiots! They gave me a nail with the head at the wrong end."

Another inmate of the asylum who had been watching, began to laugh. "It's you that's the idiot," he said. "Why?"

The other jerked his thumb at the opposite wall. "Nail was made for the other wall."

We wonder how anyone who complains about restrictive measures being taken by the government to better the war effort would like to trade places with an average civilian on the British Isles. How would he like to be closely rationed as to the clothing he can buy, get around on seven gallons of gasoline a month with the prospect of losing that in July, pay 20 per cent of a $1,600 family income in taxes, be limited to approximately a pound of meat per person per week with little fish or poultry obtainable, get two to five eggs a month, half a pound of sugar a week, and do without green vegetables, fruit or chocolate? It is under these conditions that the Britishers are carrying on.—Stirling News-Argus.

This bit of Rhyme and Reason came into our office a few days ago:

Keep your temper, Gentle Sir,
Writes the Manufacturer,
Though your goods are over-due
For a month or maybe two,
We can't help it, please don't swear,
Labor's scarce, and metal's rare
Can't get steel, can't get dies,
These are facts, we tell no lies,
Harry's enlisted, so has Bill,
All our work is now uphill.
So your order, we're afraid
May be still a bit delayed,
But you'll get it, don't be vexed,
Maybe this month, maybe next.
Keep on hoping. Don't say die.
We are trying as hard as we can try.

Wartime scarcity of tin has hit the Canadian one-cent piece square in the face but without disfiguring it or reducing its value.

The cent piece is made out of copper, zinc and tin in certain proportions. Now the formula is being changed at the Royal Mint, Ottawa, to cut down, if not cut out, the use of tin.

No change in the Canadian five-cent piece is contemplated. There is plenty of nickel to last out the year.

One reason why changes in the small coinage are rarely made is that, to vary their size or weight, would put out of business tens of thousands of telephone and other slot machines when metal for their rebuilding might be impossible to obtain.

Many a man has to buckle down to make both ends meet.

With Donald Duck in the movies, it seems we are turning from ham actors to quacks.

To Brave Mothers All

She strained her new-born to her hungry heart,
A life in bud — a child — of her a part,
A climax to her girlhood dreams, her wifehood's crowning joy;
With trembling lips she whispered, "tell me, is it a boy?"
A kindly voice assuring her, did blessings on him shower
"Oh! Make me worthy God," she breathed, "this is my greatest hour."

While he was still of tender years, he heard the bugle call
Fall in, ye men of Canada, fall in, ere freedom fall!
Tall and straight he stood there, a light shone in his eye,
"So help me God, I'll be a man, for never must our freedom die."

A brave proud smile upon her lips, his mother bade him go,
How great the cost of that little word, only a mother can know
"Grim reaper," she charged, "it is life's richest wine you pour,
Dearer to me than life itself is this, the child I bore,
But if sweat, blood and tears must be wrung from the nation's heart,
Then in my country's greatest hour, God make me worthy of my part."
—B. M. MacLeod.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

From Our Issue of April 7th, 1927

A business change of note took place this week when the drug business of Henry E. Wray was purchased by Henry F. Austin, formerly of the border cities.

One of the largest sales ever held in this district was that of the late R. J. Fleming estate on Lot 5, Con. 2, Pickering, Kingston Rd., on Saturday, April 2. Sale started at 10.30 and all was sold at 5.40. Prentice and Prentice conducted the sale and there were over 3000 people in attendance.

After fifteen or twenty years of city life Robert Collins, a brother of Alf. S. Collins, of Thornhill, has gone back to farm life. He purchased a 100 acre farm two miles east of Sonya in the township of Mariposa for $7500 and along with the stock, grain, implements, etc., the deal involved a sum of $10,100.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From Our Issue of April 11, 1912

At the Fire Department's Smoker and Euchre Wednesday evening Mr. John Palmer won first prize, a silk umbrella. The other prize was won by Mr. Reg. Cooper after a sharp contest. Between 80 and 90 were present.

On Good Friday, W. Cooper of Maple met with a painful accident. He and H. Kirby were shooting at a mark and while the gun was being loaded it went off and lodged in Mr. Cooper's knee. Dr. Routley was called and soon extracted the bullet.

Mr. Jas. Conner's auction sale at Victoria Square was a great success. Horses went as high as $290 and cows $70.

FORTY YEARS AGO

From Our Issue of April 10, 1902

Cruel war in South Africa continues in its bloody work. Last Saturday's despatches brought the news of a severe battle at Hart River between British and a large force of Boers led by General Delarey. The 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles were in the thick of it. Cablegrams from Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Roberts have been received by the Governor-General congratulating the Dominion on the heroic conduct of the Canadians. The pluck and endurance of the Canadian Mounted Rifles saved the day.

A weather bulletin may now be seen daily in the window of Mr. Jerry Smith's jewelry shop. Mr. Smith gets the forecasts every morning at eight o'clock.

During the past week football clubs have been organized at Milliken, Markham, Locust Hill and Almira. Some of these teams will compete for the cash prize at the Agricultural Fair on the 24th in Richmond Hill.
