JONES—CHERRY

The home of the bride's mother, Gormley, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, April 18th at 4.30 in the afternoon when Verna Irene, youngest daughter of Mrs. and the late Jos. L. Cherry became the bride of Douglas Lloyd Jones, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jones, Lansing. The bride was given in marriage by her only brother Joe of Upper Canada College and the ceremony was performed by Rev. I. Brubaker, Gormley. The wedding music was played by Miss Doreen Gooding. The house was beautifully decorated with pink roses and bouvardia and tall standards of calla lilies and white storks formed a background for the bride and groom and their attendants during the ceremony. The bride was becomingly gowned in a white gown with long full skirt of net trimmed with a design of satin, a satin basque with sweetheart neckline fastened with a long row of satin buttons down the front and pointed sleeves trimmed with satin, outtoms. Miss Florence Cherry, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a gown of pink sheer trimmed with silver and carrying a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and bouvardia. Miss Shirley Gray, Gormley, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a long dress of pale yellow silk trimmed with blue velvet beads and carried a nosegay of sweetheart roses, forget-me-nots and pansies. Mr. Harvey W. Rumble, Toronto, assisted the groom.

For travelling to Montreal and other points the bride wore a pale blue Redingote with navy top coat, hat and accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

Later the bride and groom will take up residence in Toronto.

Life isn't long; a little while
To live and love and sing and smile;
And words of anger are not worth
A moment's thought, and hour of earth.
The words that pleasant memories bring
Alone are worth remembering.
Yes, life's too short for folks to snarl
There isn't time enough to quarrel.
