In the old days, the shows in the theatre weren't so long. The life and blood actors didn't give a preview of the show to appear on the stage next week.

THORNHILL DISTRICT NEWS

Thornhill Pastor Is Made Army Chaplain

Rev. Eldridge A. Currey, B.A., B.D., for nearly two years minister of Thornhill United Church, and prior to that of Gore Bay, Manitoulin Island, says farewell to his congregation on Sunday next. He has been appointed to the Chaplaincy service of the Canadian Active Service Force, attaining the rank of Honorary Captain, and will be attached to Military District No. 1. Mr. Currey is a graduate of Victoria and Emmanuel Colleges, Toronto.

As is his custom on Monday evenings, Mr. Currey was in attendance at the regular meeting of the Young People's Union. After the recreation, business period and devotional exercises, Vice-President Jean Hicks suggested that the meeting be concluded in the church auditorium. Just as our minister stepped into the darkened church, the lights were suddenly illuminated and behold, to Mr. Currey's complete surprise, the church was filled with members of his congregation, who had gathered to honor him before his departure.

After the first shock of surprise had subsided, the National Anthem sung, and a brief sing song enjoyed, Miss Hicks called on her mother, Mrs. Lewis Hicks, who sang, very acceptably, "Friend O' Mine". Miss Betty Bone, elocutionist, delighted her audience with the reading, "The Ninety and Nine". Mr. N. L. Morton, chairman of the Board of Stewards was then called upon. He spoke in glowing terms of the qualities of Mr. Currey and the blessings he had brought to the many homes in and around Thornhill.

Mr. N. J. Smellie, church treasurer, then presented Mr. Currey with a substantial cheque. This surprise portion of the program was followed by a piano duet given by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davies, entitled "The King of the Forest". Mr. John Wickett, President of the Y. P.U. spoke on behalf of that organization, and told the gathering how much their minister had meant to them in their meetings and in their lives.

Miss Marjorie Jamieson then made the presentation of a beautiful finished Morocco leather dressing case and Morocco writing case. Mr. Floyd Davies then sang "There's a Land" after which Mr. Wm. Hallawell, President of the Men's Bible Class was called upon to say a few words. Mr. Hallawell told the people how a need was felt for a Men's Bible Study Group in the community, and how Mr. Currey had so graciously consented to be the teacher.

After his remarks and the presentation of an engraved pigskin swag-ger stick by Mr. Floyd Davies, on behalf of the members, Mr. Currey thanked his congregation for their kindness to him during his short sojourn among them. Rev. A. H. Halbert, of Newtonbrook United Church, spoke briefly and after pronouncing the benediction, all retired to the Sunday School room where a social hour was enjoyed, Mr. Currey being the recipient of best wishes from all his church people.

"And may God guide his wand'ring steps aright, And keep him safe, his Holy Guardian be."

Talking pictures will be held in Lawrence Memorial Hall on Friday, April 24th at 8.15. These pictures are entitled "Britain's Fight for Liberty", a picture showing the sterling qualities of the blood donors. As an extra there is to be another film display entitled "Mr. Proudfoot Shows a Light". These pictures are both patriotic and humorous. Proceeds are for a worthy cause and the programme is under the auspices of the Trinity Women's Club.

The Thornhill Salvage Committee received notice from the Directors of the United Church that due to fire hazard the church shed could not be used as a salvage depot. However Mr. Edwards immediately offered the barn at the rear of his butcher store for this purpose and his generous and patriotic offer is greatly appreciated. Mr. Edwards also collects fats and bones for salvage purposes. Heretofore Thornhill salvage has been collected by trucks and despite repeated requests to have the salvage ready when the collector called he often had to wait or call back. This made the collection very costly because the trucker was paid by the hour.

This is everybody's war and it is time individuals were doing their full share of helping to win it. The new salvage committee has provided this central depot and the least the public can do is bring their own salvage to this depot. Full instructions will be delivered to every household of the village and district and enthusiastic co-operation is anticipated. Any further information may be obtained by phoning Mrs. R. H. Neill, Thornhill 112.

Mr. W. A. Cameron will organize the Bayview district and Mr. Geo. Lake is managing the disposal of the salvage. Our new member of the salvage committee is Rev. Mr. Colclough.

LANGSTAFF

The regular meeting of the Langstaff Willing Workers Fund was held at the home of Mrs. Wrigglesworth the first Tuesday in April. All members present and a splendid meeting resulted. A bale was packed for shipment amounting to $170 and contained wool blankets, quilts, besides quantities of knit goods and sewing.

Mrs. Mills turned in $41. proceeds of the social evening held at Leitchcroft Farms. The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $59.08. The buyer was instructed to purchase a quantity of wool and material to start another bale.

The resignation of the president on account of the condition of her health was accepted with much regret and the appointment of a new president was left over till next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. James Hamilton, No. 7 Highway.

Refreshments were served and the meeting dispersed all feeling a splendid 3 months' work had been accomplished.
