

Richvale Red Cross

An afternoon euchre party will be held at the home of Mrs. G. Allison, opposite Stop 22, Yonge Street, on Thursday afternoon, May 14 at 2.15 o'clock. All the ladies are welcome and a special invitation is extended to newcomers in our midst who would like to come out and get acquainted.

Anyone who would care to donate his truck for an evening for the collection of larger amounts of salvage is asked to communicate with the President, Mrs. A. W. Bailey, Spruce Avenue, telephone Richmond Hill 13673. Any offers would be welcomed.

Cigarettes to the amount of sixteen dollars worth have been sent to sixteen of our local men in active service during the past ten days.

The allotment for this district in the forthcoming campaign of the Canadian Red Cross is $400.00. Canada, through the agency of the Red Cross Society, is being asked to provide some 40,000 food parcels per week for our men and those Anzacs who are now interned and prisoners of war in Occupied Europe and the Far East. This work alone, in tracing men listed as missing, answering the anxious questions of relatives and providing the weekly parcels once the men are found, besides that of caring for sick and wounded among fighting forces and civilians alike grows apace as the war spreads and we can all share this national responsibility. Won't you be generous in your response? We must not fail.

If you would care to, please send your contribution to our local branch: Mrs. Ed. Rowdon, Treasurer, Richvale, Ont.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To the Citizens of Richmond Hill and District:—

Next week the Canadian Red Cross is appealing for $9,000,000 to meet the evergrowing needs of its service. The Red Cross is an organization dedicated to the answering of every cry for help. As the war grows and spreads in intensity so those appeals increase. Richmond Hill's quota in this campaign is $2700 — an increase of 50 per cent over the amount subscribed two years ago.

The Richmond Hill Lions' Club, with the assistance of a few other citizens, is again taking charge of the campaign, and plans calling on you Monday evening, May 11th. If a generous donation is ready for the canvassers when they call it will save the time of busy men, and show our gratitude for our freedom, our safety, and above all show our soldiers and airmen that their sacrifice and their survival comes first with each and every one of us. Give what you can, but let it be the most you can.

R. D. LITTLE,
Chairman Red Cross
Campaign Committee.

The Bridge Tournament sponsored by the Red Cross was brought to a delightful conclusion last Thursday and Friday evenings when all participating in any way met at the home of Mrs. F. Boyle, Centre St., to see if they could make a better score with someone else's partner than the partner they had through the series. Sad to relate, in some cases they did. In the ladies' group first prize went to Miss Lucy Yerex and Miss Marion Carter; second prize, Mrs. O. L. Wright and Mrs. N. J. Glass; lucky prize given for average score was won by Mrs. Jas. Stewart and Mrs. Edgar Kidd. The prizes in the mixed group were won by Mr. and Mrs. J. Grainger with high score; second prize by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McLatchy; and lucky prize for the average score won by Mr. and Mrs. H. Charles. The tournament was most successful, the total sum realized being $193.25; of this $136.00 was made up of the tournament fees, cash donations amounting to $37.25 and the proceeds of Thursday and Friday evenings $20. Much credit for the success of the tournament is due to the efficient way it was scheduled and carried on by the committee Mrs. F. Boyle and Mrs. O. L. Wright, which was enthusiastically acknowledged at the closing games. Appreciation was also extended to Mrs. A. G. Savage, Mrs. P. C. Hill, Mrs. J. R. Herrington and Mr. Godfrey Willis who very generously donated the prizes for the tournament, and to a number who were unable to take part in the play but gave cash donations: Mrs. H. J. Mills, Mrs. H. A. Nicholls, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hill, Mr. and Mrs. G. Walwin, Mr. and Mrs. C. McTaggart, Mrs. Jas. Langstaff, Mrs. Walter Mason, Miss Marion Scrivener, Miss Etta Endean and Mrs. H. Tuck.

The third lecture in the A.R.P. series will be given in the Masonic Hall tonight at 8 p.m. The speaker will be Major Collins.

Eleanor Young, assisted by Stanley Ransom, Eugene Hilliard and Eric Hillaby presented the cheque which was graciously received by Mrs. Unger and Mrs. Langstaff who spoke of the commendable way in which the girls and boys of the Public School are contributing to war activities. This is the second fifty dollar cheque presented to the Red Cross by them. The cheque along with the proceeds of the bridge and tea amounting to $82.25 made the afternoon a very successful one.
