ARMY WEEK
Army Week was marked in Richmond Hill by lack of any demonstration or special event other than a sham battle on Yonge Street Tuesday afternoon with a thirty ton tank and Gar Yerex's DeSoto as the main participants. The big tank stopped at Cities Service Garage to cool off and in backing onto Yonge Street had a minor encounter with the DeSoto. Fortunately the encounter resulted only in a broken headlight and a bent fender. The tank was not damaged.

WITH THE VETERANS
Don't forget the regular monthly meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, July 8 at 8.15 p.m. in the Municipal Hall, Richmond Hill. Come along and make a good meeting that much better by your influence.

W. F. Wrixon, Deputy Grand Chaplain of Ontario West. The Offertory will be given to the British War Victims' Fund of the Evening Telegram. The parade will form up at the north end of the village at Little Bros. at 7 p.m. and will be headed by a pipe band.

FENWICK ESTATE SALE BRINGS $850

There was a very large crowd at the Thomas Fenwick Estate auction sale of furniture at Vellore last Saturday. Antique collectors were there in large numbers and bidding was brisk. The proceeds totalled $850 and Auctioneer C. E. Walkington was in rapid fire action for five hours and 45 minutes during which time he sold 513 items. A used stove brought $76, two vases sold for $20, a set of dishes $15, and many small fancy pieces of glass and china brought anywhere from $2.50 to $6.00. There were 35 quilts in the sale and they sold as high as $6.50. The Spinning Wheel was knocked down at $3.50 but an extension ladder sold for $17.50.

RICHMOND HILL PUBLIC SCHOOL RELIEF FUND REPORT

The teachers of the Richmond Hill Public School sincerely thank all who gave donations to their relief fund.

During the past school year we bought 6 suits underwear, 23 pairs stockings, 2 vests, 2 pair bloomers, 1 pullover, 3 sweaters, 2 windbreakers, 5 pairs pants, 75 cents school supplies, 4 pairs rubber boots, 3 pairs goloshes, 5 pairs rubbers, 4 pairs boots, 11 pairs shoes and had 9 pairs of boots or shoes repaired. We also gave out donated clothing. Imagine what it would have meant to these children if they had had to go without these necessities.

To all helpers "Thanks a million". Yours very truly, M. L. McConaghy.
