

AN ARMY EVERY CANADIAN MAY WELL BE PROUD OF

◆ Crouched and poised, with disciplined impatience, waiting to pounce at the enemy, is Canada's great army which will form the spearhead of that decisive offensive just about to be—"a dagger pointed at the heart of Hitler."

That something, that the vastness and ruggedness of this great country imports to men who have still a strong strain of pioneer blood in their veins, has made possible the mustering of an army unsurpassed for physical fitness, and which in mental mould and moral might is the most magnificent that has ever set forth to defend the freedoms and uphold the honor of this young and virile nation of ours.

We, of Massey-Harris, are naturally proud that many from the various divisions and branches of our far-flung organization are serving in the ranks of this great army. It is gratifying, also, that the thousands in our several plants are permitted to play an important part in providing the machines and munitions so essential to the success of that army in modern mechanized warfare.

And the great Canadian Army which has, as our Minister of National Defence says, "a larger proportion of armored troops than any army in the world," will be a decisive factor in hastening the day of victory.

Five Ways Suggested To Assist Doctors In Wartime

Five ways to assist your doctor, whose duties have increased with the faster tempo of the war, are suggested by an official of the Ontario Medical Association, which held its annual convention in Toronto last week.

Dr. J. W. McCutcheon, assistant secretary of the association, asks the public to remember that there are 750 Ontario doctors on active service, and that although there is no shortage in the profession, the duties of those remaining are greater.

It must also be remembered, he added, that doctors are affected by wartime rationing.

Here are five suggestions, made public for the first time at the annual meeting:

If emergencies arise, call him (your doctor) at any hour.

If no emergency exists, call him at proper hours.

Try to see him at his regular office hours.

When possible, send in requests for home visits before 11 a.m.

Don't demand his time when he is at meals.

May 2nd, 1942.

To my friends at the Public School:
Many thanks for the splendid parcel which I received today. To say that I am sincerely grateful is to put it mildly. And for the kind messages that came with it, well, I can only say I appreciate them very much indeed, especially those from Marian Little, Eleanor Young, Shirley Heeley, Muriel Megdonal, Harry Hill, Donald Little, Gordon Taylor and Keith Dougherty. The news and the greetings are very welcome for we are always pleased to hear of home.

I have visited London on several occasions and while it has been badly damaged in a few places, it is still a wonderfully interesting place. I have seen many places that I have read about in our geographies and histories—the Tower of London, the House of Parliament, St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey and of course that famous of all rivers, the Thames.

Near where I am stationed is a famous old city, whose name I may not mention just now. But I can say that it still has city walls, a cathedral, castle and other places built in the 13th century and there are also some Roman ruins.

Really, it makes the days when I studied British History live again. Perhaps some day you too will see some of the places you read of in your studies.

England and Wales are very pretty with narrow winding country lanes, with hedges everywhere and a profusion of flowers. Thatched cottages are quite numerous and most houses are of stone construction. Indeed a most interesting place.

Well, my friends, I must wish you good-bye for now as it is time for me to go back to duty. Believe me I shall remember your generosity for a long time.

I shared my strawberry jam with some Canadian and English airmen and they join with me in saying thanks a lot.

Sincerely,
Harry Sayers.

Dear Sir:—
I want to thank you for so kindly sending me the cigarettes which I received today. Cigarettes are very scarce over here and it sure is a great help to us to be able to have them sent from home.

I am getting along okay with the English people over here and I really admire the way that they have been taking things. I was over here when the Battle of Britain was on and I can tell you that at times it wasn't very healthy to be standing in the streets. Things have quieted down considerably now and except for a lone raider machine gunning the town we very seldom see any Jerry's.

Well sir there isn't much more I can say just now except that I am in the best of health and I hope everybody is the same back home. I often remember the old school and I often wish that I was still going but I guess my schooling days are over.

Thanks again for the cigarettes and you can tell the boys and girls that I really appreciate them.

Yours sincerely,
Sid. Hunt.

To the Richmond Hill Public School and Pupils:—

I have just received the parcel which you so kindly sent and I wish to convey my sincerest thanks for your kindness. I think that you are all doing a fine job by sending parcels to our boys overseas and contributing to the war effort the way you are doing. I am sure that we all hope for a fast and victorious ending to this war and that is the only way to get it by putting all we have into the war effort.

I remember well my school days at the Richmond Hill Public School although it's some time ago and I realize now just how pleasant they were. It makes me feel proud to know that the school and its pupils are doing such a marvellous job and I wish you every success in the future.

I will close now with my best wishes and many thanks. Hoping for a quick victory with a capital V, I remain one of your ex-pupils,
Douglas Edward Gilbert.

To the Richmond Hill Public School,
Yonge Street,
Richmond Hill,
Ontario, Canada:—

I wish to send my sincerest thanks for the three hundred cigarettes which you so kindly sent. Cigarettes are one thing which are greatly appreciated by us over here as they are very hard to get and it just happened that they arrived when I was almost out of smokes.

Things are very quiet over here at present but we all expect some big changes before the year is out, for the better of course. I am looking forward very much to getting back home to dear old Canada before very long.

I'll close now with all the best wishes and hopes for a near victory.

Yours with many thanks,
Douglas Edward Gilbert.

Richmond Hill Public School:—
Would like to take this opportunity to thank you most sincerely for the cigarettes which I received from you yesterday.

As you doubtless know, cigarettes are one of the most welcome of all gifts over here, and are greatly appreciated by all of us.

Also, much more appreciated, is the thought behind such a gift, as it really is wonderful to be remembered by home-town institutions and people when far from home.

Thanking you again, I am,
Yours sincerely,
Brydon Ellis.
