PLEDGE THEMSELVES TO KEEP STREETS CLEAR OF GLASS, ETC. TO PRESERVE TIRES

In an effort to promote the conservation of rubber, Lions in convention in Toronto resolved last week to constitute themselves a self-appointed committee to inspect the streets and highways in the vicinity of their residences and remove litter, trash, broken glass and other substances injurious to tires and tubes.

It was further resolved at the meeting of the resolutions committee to approach all governmental bodies to exert every effort to maintain the highways in a condition favorable to the conservation of tires.

Another resolution which met with overwhelming support of the delegates was one which decried the treachery and savagery of the Axis powers and which promised all out support of all Lions to the United Nations' war effort.

The resolution stressed the paramount issue in the war as being whether the privileges and sacred rights of democracy are to endure, or whether they are to fall beneath the heel of the aggressor.

"The 'New Order' which the Axis nations seek to impose upon the other nations and peoples of the earth is one in which conscience, religion, good faith between men and between nations, freedom, self-government, culture, and many of the nobler instincts of mankind would be suppressed, mocked, stifled and destroyed, and under it all free people will be subjected to a thralldom which would render life barren and unendurable and would nullify centuries of human progress... be it resolved therefore that all Lions reaffirm their loyalty and devotion to the principles of liberty, democracy and humanity... and dedicate every resource and effort at their command to the successful conduct of the war," read the resolution which was greeted and passed with great enthusiasm.

Rubber Salvage

VELLORE

At a charivari party in Vellore Hall on Friday, July 11th Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Fierheller were presented with a beautiful studio couch from the charivari boys. The following address was read by Mr. Arthur Fester:

Dear Kathleen and Eldon:

It is with much pleasure that we, the charivari boys and friends have gathered here this evening in honor of your recent marriage and to wish you prosperity and happiness on the voyage of matrimony.

Eldon, we congratulate you upon the important step you have taken and your choice of a help mate. We are pleased that you are not leaving the community and we ask you, Kathleen and Eldon, to accept this studio couch as a token of affectionate regard with our best wishes for a pleasant, happy, married life.

Signed on behalf of the charivari boys.

This was followed by all singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" and by giving the happy young couple three lusty cheers.

Make Check On Vegetable Garden

In midsummer there are spots in the vegetable garden that have lost the freshness they had a few weeks before. It is a good plan at this time of the year to make a check up. Early crops such as radish and spinach that may be passing to the seed stage should be removed, not only to prevent an unnecessary drain on the plant foods in the soil, but to eliminate an ideal breeding ground for cutworms and other insect pests, says Alan G. Dustan, in charge of Insect Investigations, Dominion Department of Agriculture. Cabbage plants should be dusted to control imported cabbage worm larvae. Dusting with arsenate of lead at the rate of two teaspoons to one pound of hydrated lime or low grade wheat flour is recommended. A handy duster can be made by pinching a few holes in the lid of a tin container. Paris green is also suitable to use for dusting. It should be used in the proportion of one teaspoon to one pound of hydrated lime or flour. Cauliflowers can be given the same treatment as cabbage. After the heads form in the cauliflowers it is better to use pyrethrum powder at the rate of one part to four of flour. It is advisable to pull rhubarb in the late summer so as to enable the plant to store a reserve of plant food within the root for next year.
