HERE'S ONE THING YOU WILL LEARN REAL QUICK—WE NEVER PLAY A BUSINESS TRICK

LUMBER

We have no business bag of tricks—it's all straight dealing at this yard. There isn't a shoddy piece of lumber to be found in the place. It all measures up man fashion to what is expected of it.

The badly burnt automobile stationed in a King garage was owned by Mr. Jennings, 4th con. Vaughan. The car was literally "burned to death" in a Toronto garage which took fire. Even the "Gordon touch" could not restore it to any semblance of usefulness.

Reeve Lorne Goodfellow and Reeve Thomas MacMurchy are busy in the harvest fields these days.

Congratulations to Mrs. M. Forsythe who celebrated her 93rd birthday at her daughter's home, Mrs. J. S. Lawson's, on Sunday. Mrs. Forsythe is not in the best of health but is keenly manifesting the spirit of patience and consistency typical to her years as practical nurse and expert needlewoman.

We recall her pride and delight in the work on the "underside" of her beautiful pieces of fancy work. That has always been her principal through life; the "under side" and the unseen moments and acts of life have been as true to design and craft as those that the world has seen. Ninety-three years should be proof enough of this rule, whether it brings happiness or not.

On Saturday and Sunday many friends called on Mrs. Forsythe; included in these were Miss Tinline and Mrs. S. McVittie, Mrs. A. McClure, Miss Elizabeth McClure, Mrs. J. Charles, Wm. Charles and Mrs. Charles Jr. of Richmond Hill; Mrs. John McLean, Weston; Mrs. J. B. McLean, Miss Agnes McLean of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oliver and daughter of Maple; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bryson and daughter of Vaughan; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Glass, Aurora.

The Archibald McCallum farm has been sold to Mr. Leatherdale of Maple.

St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church of Schomberg held a very successful garden party on August 1st realizing $350. Fifty dollars in War Savings Certificates was given as draws, having been donated by parishioners. The majority of these drawn went to distant points.

King United Church will not hold service on Sunday evening, August 9th.
