Short of Coffee? Just Use Carrots

Five Richmond Hill "Farm Commandos" can vouch for the goodness of coffee made with the following recipe, which we hope will solve the rationing worries of many of our readers. The recipe is one given over the air by Mrs. Aikens, and was served at a farm home Wednesday evening to the thorough enjoyment of a group of local volunteer harvesters.

Carrot Coffee

Cut carrots in very small cubes, place in thin layer in baking pan and dry in 275-300 degrees oven for about 1 hour, until rich brown in color but not burned. To make six cups of coffee use 3 teaspoons of the toasted carrot and 1 teaspoon of coffee, make in usual manner. May also be used without the addition of coffee.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

Sunday, September 6th DAY OF SPECIAL PRAYER

In Church

"God comfort those who suffer in this war," the parson prayed.

The sun shone in through coloured glass; vibrant, the organ played.

Deep in my foolish heart I asked, "How much does God take heed?"

Thousands of hearts are broken and a million people bleed!"

And as I sat remembering only such things as these—

The victims of the devil's work were rescued from the seas;

A thousand nurses stooped to ease a thousand soldiers' pain;

A hundred Spitfire pilots rose to clear the skies again;

Many a foster mother kissed some little orphaned child;

Smoke-blackened firemen fought huge fires with spirits undefiled;

Ten million willing, outstretched hands fed homeless, hungry folk;

A tired crowd underground laughed at a wounded actor's joke;

White helmeted young doctors braved a screaming shower of death,

Binding up hurts, speaking kind words, restoring failing breath.

"Oh thou of little faith," He said,

And humbled, deep I bowed my head.

—Joan Frances Austen.

CORN STALK OVER TWICE AS HIGH AS ANDY CLARK
We have displayed in front of our office this week a stalk of corn which measures eleven feet eight inches in height. It is from Roselawn Farms and the grower, Mr. E. T. Stephens, stated that this remarkable growth was accomplished in just eleven weeks. The corn was sown June 15th and cut August 31st. We will be pleased to hear if any grower in the district can beat this stalk, or if Andy Clark in his "Neighbourly News" broadcast Sunday morning can find any in Ontario to top it.

VICTORIA SQUARE NEWSY NOTES

There was both gladness and sorrow mingled with our services on Sunday. Gladness because we were all pleased to have our minister and wife with us after having a three weeks' vacation. There were 90 to church Sunday. Sorrow because we were sorry to hear that our good friend Mr. Allen Read was leaving our community on Monday to prepare himself for the winter months of schooling in Toronto. Mr. Read has been a great help to the Junior members of our congregation in leading them in the form of a junior choir. After choir practice on Friday night Rev. and Mrs. McKay joined with a few other adults and served refreshments to the choir and a few words of appreciation were spoken to Mr. Read for his services.

At the regular monthly meeting of the W.A. on Thursday night it was decided that the War Work group would again start their quilting bees for the winter months on Wednesday, September 16th. All are requested to bring their dinner and spend the day. If anyone has any material for quilt tops, please have an idea for the committee of when you might have them ready to quilt, or when you can bring the material for them to work up into tops.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ash of Toronto and their daughter Mrs. Sisler and little daughter spent Sunday with their older daughter Mrs. Heber McCague and family also Master Geo. McCague of Alliston.

Last Tuesday evening a few of the ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. McCausland to give her daughter a little presentation. While Miss McCausland is not very well known in our community, the gift was given more on behalf of the work her father has done both for the Y.P.U., W.A. and regular church service. Mrs. Meek read the address while Miss Grace Boynton and Mrs. C. Stansbury presented her with an electric table lamp and iron.

Miss June Collard is spending a few days with her aunt in Toronto.

The Y.P.U. and a few friends numbering about 30 spent last Wednesday afternoon at Centre Island on a picnic, returning to Toronto for the evening.

Saturday afternoon was an enjoyable time for the Mission Band and friends at the home of Mrs. Stanley Boynton when about 30 folk gathered to have their regular meeting at 2 o'clock followed by a picnic and afternoon lunch on the lawn.

Miss Iris McCausland was quietly married at her home on Friday afternoon with Rev. and Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Ida Nichols, Mrs. Harvey Collard and Mrs. James Smith as guests. The community extends best wishes and a long, happy and prosperous life to the happy couple.

On Saturday evening the Y.P.U. held their corn roast at the "Elbow" with about 40 present. A good time was enjoyed by all present.

We are glad to report Mrs. Lizzie Boynton has been sitting up in a chair in the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stong and Mrs. Annie Mortson spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mortson. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mortson and family and Miss Mabel Sanderson were also Sunday guests.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wallace on the birth of a daughter. Both doing fine.

Rev. Percy Peacock and Mrs. Peacock had Sunday evening dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Collard.

Sunday evening the Y.P.U. had a splendid program with Rev. McKay taking the topic and taking a review of the Conference he attended while on his holidays as his subject, was indeed very interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon of Unionville and their friends were much appreciated for their musical selections. The collection on Sunday evening amounted to around $8.00 and the treasury added the rest to make up another $10.00 War Saving Certificate. The members of the Y.P.U. are to be congratulated on their efforts along this line.

The Community Hall was all aglow on Tuesday evening when the J.F.A. and J.W.I. clubs from Vandorf visited us to put on a splendid program. Any other neighbouring clubs would certainly have a treat in store by inviting these clubs. It was a continuous program of readings, orchestra, guitar solos, piano duets, piano accordion contests. Just a wonderful evening. There was also a lucky draw on local J.W.I. quilt. Tickets were sold to the amount of $17.65. The lucky ticket holder was Mr. Bruce Wallace, secretary of our own club.

Mrs. Wilkinson of Toronto and son John are spending a few days with Mrs. Matheson and family.

We are all pleased to see Mrs. Snider and children Betty and Sammy back in our midst after spending a few weeks in Prince Edward Island. All report a grand holiday.

Mr. Douglas Boynton and Miss Victoria Hollinger of Toronto and Miss Dorothy Oliver had tea Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boynton and family.

Miss Grace Boynton is spending a few days in Toronto with her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clarke.
