Newtonbrook PINE GROVE

In obedience to His Majesty's appointment there will be a special service of Rededication and Remembrance held in Newtonbrook United Church next Sunday, September 6th at 11 a.m. A special invitation is extended to all those in the community who have relatives in the army and especially those whose relatives took part in the raid at Dieppe.

We extend deepest sympathy to parents and friends who have been bereaved due to the recent raid at Dieppe. Approximately ten families have had sons or husbands who took part.

Mrs. Allard and daughter Isabel left this week to make their home in Toronto. We are sorry to lose them from our midst.

Bruce Summers has returned home after spending the summer on a farm near Sarnia.

We extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. A. H. Douglas in the loss of a sister. The funeral took place last Monday.

Newtonbrook United Church parsonage was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding last Saturday evening, August 29, when Margaret Helen, daughter of Mrs. J. Anderson and the late John Anderson of Camilla became the bride of Leonard S. McKelvey, son of Mrs. W. McKelvey and the late William McKelvey of Glen Cross. Rev. Alexander H. Halbert performed the ceremony. The bride wore a becoming costume of powder blue with wine accessories and corsage of gladioli petals and fern. The bridesmaid was Miss Irene McKelvey of Toronto, sister of the groom who wore a corsage of gladioli and fern. The groom was supported by Mr. Wilmer Stinson of the R.C.A.F. at Manning Depot, Toronto. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McKelvey left by motor on a wedding trip to the Muskoka Lakes and Northern Ontario. On their return they will reside at the McKelvey Homestead near Orangeville.

A Temperance program will be presented next Sunday, September 6 at 10 a.m. in the United Church Sunday School under the direction of the Temperance Secretary Mr. W. T. New. At an executive meeting of the Sunday School it was decided to hold the Rally on Sunday, September 27th which is the day appointed by the O.R.E. Council. There has been an average attendance at Sunday School of 75 during the month of August. Now that the holiday season is over it is hoped that all will get back to Sunday School again.

MEN WHO GO DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS

O men who go down to the sea in ships,
We think of you at night,
As you take your course through the mine-strewn lanes,
Upheled by Britain's might!
O sturdy men of the bulldog strain—
Minesweepers, cruisers, all
Merchantmen, submarines, fisherfolk—
You hold our hearts in thrall!
We think of you, and we pray for you,
In the watches of the night,
Brave men who go down to the sea in ships,
Upheled by God and right!
Laura A. Ridley.

Mrs. Kickebelt received a letter from her son Sergt. John whose exciting experience on the English Channel near France, we reported a few weeks ago and he was well enjoying an eight day leave, after his rescue. He confirmed the report as was in the paper and it must have been an exciting few minutes for John but he tells his mother he is ready to go back in a few days and settle some of these things with a few more of the Huns. A typical Canadian soldier.

Rev. J. H. Dudgeon received a communication on Saturday morning that gladdened his heart and many others not only around here but in London and Western Ontario. Last March word had come to the Mission rooms of the South China Boat Mission that Miss Henrietta Wilson, a missionary who had gone out from Mr. Dudgeon's work in London for this Mission and had lost her life in the raid on Hong Kong. It was impossible to get particulars and it was that they all believed she had suffered by the hands of the Japanese. On Thursday last Mr. R. R. Walker went to New York to meet some returning missionaries and one of them was Miss Western who had been very close to Miss Wilson in her work in and around Hong Kong. She had the good news that "she was still alive in Hong Kong" but could get no word to us. It is now hoped that some way may be opened that she will be able to return to Ontario again. She certainly will have a story to tell.

Special services will be held next Sunday in the Congregational church when the pastor will be assisted by Mr. Fred May, Evangelist of Toronto. Mr May plays several musical instruments and will bring them along with him, such as the theremin, the solovox and the accordion. One of these instruments he plays without touching it and we believe it is the only one in Canada. Mr. May is a good preacher as well and folks are in for a rare treat. Three services will be held at 11 a.m., 3.30 p.m. and 7.10 p.m.

On Labor Day, September 7, the Faith Mission of Toronto will hold their annual Fall Conference in Pine Grove. This is the seventh year they have been here and everyone is looking forward to a good day. The pilgrims will be present from many parts of the province and give reports of their work. The Rev. D. N. Cameron of Toronto will bring two messages, one in the afternoon at 1.30 and the other in the evening at 7.30. Services will be in charge of Rev. J. Allan Wallace, the Supt. for Canada.

Visitors to our community on Sunday last were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oultrum and family of London, Ontario, also Mr. James Taylor from London on Wednesday last. Mr. Taylor gave a Bible reading at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. The ideal weather has allowed the farmers in this vicinity to be with the exception of a few through with the harvest. All report an excellent crop.

With The Veterans

Our Chaplain, Rev. W. F. Wrixon, is calling a memorial service at the Church of England on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in honor of Geo. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams, Richvale, and all the other boys in the district who gave their lives for democracy in the recent raid on Dieppe, France. It is expected a large congregation will assemble to honor these young men who died that we might live according to the dictates of our conscience. Cards are being sent to all veterans in the district who are asked to be in front of the church by 2.45 p.m. wearing berets, arm bands and medals. This service is not for veterans only but for all loyal citizens in the community who are able to attend. The regular monthly meeting held in the Municipal Hall last night was adjourned early out of respect to our bereaved comrades.

God Save the King!

NATIONAL SELECTIVE SERVICE REGULATIONS

★ EFFECTIVE: SEPTEMBER 1, 1942

★ THOSE AFFECTED

ONE GROUP of regulations (A) applies to all workers, male and female, and their employers, except any persons employed:—

As female domestic servants in homes where there is not more than one servant employed; By a provincial government; As ministers, priests or clergymen; As professional engineers or science workers under the Wartime Bureau of Technical Personnel; In part-time subsidiary employment which is not a regular occupation; In agriculture, hunting, fishing, trapping; As teachers; As nurses and probationers; In casual labour; As students at work after school or on holidays other than long summer vacation.

The other Group (B) applies to all workers.

★ THE REGULATIONS

GROUP (A)

1. No worker may quit his job without giving his employer seven days' notice in writing.
2. No employer may lay-off or discharge any worker without seven days' notice in writing.
3. No employer may interview or engage any worker unless such worker has a permit to seek employment.
4. Permits to seek employment may be obtained from National Selective Service officers in Selective Service offices, formerly the local offices of the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

GROUP (B)

5. A National Selective Service officer has the power:
  - (a) to order any person to report for an interview at the local office;
  - (b) to order any person who has been unemployed seven days to take any suitable work; and
  - (c) to order any partially employed person to take any suitable full-time work.
6. No person ordered by a National Selective Service officer to take a job may quit such job without permission of the officer.
7. When a worker has to travel to a distant job, the National Selective Service officer may pay the cost of transportation and certain other special allowances.
8. If a worker at the request of the National Selective Service officer changes from less to more essential work, he may claim re-instatement in his former job when the more essential work is finished.
9. Any employer, employee or other person who violates any provision of the regulations or any order made under them is liable to a fine not exceeding $500 or a jail term of not more than 12 months or both.

Note:—Agricultural workers may take seasonal or temporary employment outside agriculture with the consent of Selective Service Officers when such work will not interfere with farm production and by taking such work they will not lose their right to postponement of military service.

★ EMPLOYERS

Read the orders-in-council setting up the regulations and the Explanation of National Selective Service Regulations which can be obtained from Selective Service offices.

★ EMPLOYEES

Read the orders-in-council setting up the regulations and the Workers' Handbook which can be obtained from Selective Service offices or offices of trade unions.
