

WEDDINGS

MABLEY—WAND

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Newtonbrook United church parsonage, Wednesday, September 2nd, when Florence Mary Wand, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wand, of Newtonbrook, became the bride of Cecil Charles Mabley, son of James A. Mabley and the late Mrs. Mabley, of Richmond Hill. The bride was attired in a romance blue sheer dress with matching turban and shoulder-length veil with corsage of tea roses and cornflowers. She was attended by her sister, Gertrude L. Wand, who wore pale pink sheer with lace insets and flower headdress, and corsage of sweetheart roses and fern. The groom's younger brother, Norman Mabley, R.C.A.F., was best man. A reception followed at the bride's home after which the couple left by motor on a honeymoon to Northern Ontario. The bride's goingaway dress was of rose wool with black accessories. On their return they will reside at Richmond Hill.

MANNING—MILLS

In St. Peter's Church, Hamilton, at 4 o'clock on Saturday, August 29 the wedding of Florence Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Mills and L.A.C. Norman W. Manning, R.C.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Manning and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. Manning, Maple, was solemnized, Rev. W. R. Symons officiating. The church was decorated with Picardy gladioli.

The bride wore a dress of heavy white brocaded satin with long train, her full-length embroidered veil falling from a coronet of net. She carried a bouquet of Better Time roses. Her only ornament was a silver wings set with marcasite, the gift of the groom.

The maid of honour, Miss Elizabeth Murley, wore a blue georgette gown and Mrs. Fred Andrews, senior bridesmaid, wore a pink gown of similar material, their head dresses being coronets in matching colours. They carried bouquets of Talisman roses. Miss Antoinette Mills, sister of the bride, and Miss Daphne Manning, sister of the groom, as junior bridesmaids, wore dresses of organdie over taffeta in pink and blue respectively, with matching doll hats.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Percy E. Mills. Mr. Russell Manning, brother of the groom, was best man and Mr. Ted Tiller, Guelph and Cpl. Douglas Jacobs, R.C.A.F., Toronto, were ushers. The bride's mother wore an orchid sheer crepe gown with cream accessories and a corsage of roses. The groom's mother wore a turquoise blue crepe gown embroidered with silver and black accessories and a corsage of roses.

Preceding the wedding march "My World" was sung by Miss Jean Stewart and during the signing of the register "O Promise Me" was sung by Master Arthur Maude, cousin of the bride.

At the reception, held at the Pines, the guests numbered 65. After the reception L.A.C. and Mrs. Manning left for their wedding trip to the Thousand Islands and other points. The bride wore a travelling dress of black silk crepe with black accessories. On their return they will reside at 205 Brucevale Ave.

Out of town guests were present from Toronto, Burlington, Maple, Aurora, Uxbridge and Guelph.

Those who entertained for the bride were Miss Betty Murley of Guelph, cup and saucer shower; Miss Eileen North, miscellaneous shower; Mrs. A. Jewell, pantry shower, and Mrs. C. Wright and Mrs. C. W. Manning, kitchen shower.

READ—NIXON

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at Maple Saturday, September 5th, when Mary Olive Nixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Nixon, was united in marriage to William Charles Read of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Read of Kent, England. Rev. C. E. Fockler officiated. Asters and gladioli were banked in the drawing-room where the bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her away. She was wearing a graceful gown of white net and lace, on long lines, her fingertip veil held by a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried red roses. She had on the groom's gift, a gold, heart-shaped locket. Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy McLean, and her sister, Miss Eileen Nixon. Miss McLean was in midnight blue crepe chiffon, and Miss Nixon in shell pink, fashioned on princess lines. They wore matching shoulder veils and carried bouquets of pink roses with pink and blue ribbons. Lou Alderson was groomsmen. At the house reception, the bride's mother did the honors, wearing ciel blue crepe with hat of dusky rose, and a corsage of pink roses. The wedding trip was through Ontario, the bride going away in a shadow blue ensemble with beige and brown accessories. The couple will reside in Toronto.

WALKER—KEFFER

On Saturday, September 5th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilfrid Keffer, Maple, was the setting of a pretty wedding when their daughter Dorothy Agnes, was married to Mr. John Henry Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Walker of Newmarket. Rev. H. McKay officiated and Miss Marion Watson played the wedding music. During the signing of the register Miss Margaret Fockler sang O Perfect Love.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a dress of white satin and net fashioned with sweetheart neckline and fitted torso bodice. The satin motive was repeated in the scroll embroidery on the skirt. The veil was a scalloped halo embroidered with seed pearls and was of fingertip length. She wore a single strand of pearls, the gift of the groom and carried a shower bouquet of white Kilarney roses and sweet peas.

Miss Betty Keffer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was of all pink net with peter-pan collar and buttoned to the waist. Her dress also had taffeta scroll embroidery on the bodice and skirt and she wore a shoulder length veil caught with flowers and carried a bouquet of sunset-pink roses and baby's breath. Mr. Wilbert Walker, brother of the groom, was groomsmen.

Mrs. Keffer, the bride's mother, wearing a parade brown two-piece dress with brown accessories and a corsage of Sweetheart roses, assisted by Mrs. Walker, the groom's mother, wearing a black wool crepe dress with black accessories and corsage of Better times roses, received the guests.

After the reception the bridal couple left for points north. For travelling the bride wore a navy tailored suit with navy accessories and mink furs. On their return they will reside in Newmarket.

BIRTH

MOON—Mr. and Mrs. William Moon (nee Irene Burns), York Mills, wish to announce the birth of a daughter at Mrs. Stanford's Nursing Home, Richmond Hill, Wednesday, September 9th.

Social and Personal

The United Church choir held an unexpected celebration on resuming practise on Tuesday evening. The "celebration" was a pleasant surprise to most of the members, being a generous gesture on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Middleton, choir librarian and veteran of the bass section. The choir greatly appreciated Mr. Middleton's hospitality and the assistance of his wife.

The Bridge Tournament held by the Red Cross last spring was such a success that it has been decided to repeat it, beginning the first week in October. It will be divided into two eight-week periods, the first to be finished early in December. The players will be grouped as before, mixed and singles. Will all those wishing to take part in the tournament please send in their names before September 30th to anyone of the following committee: Mrs. N. J. Glass, phone 20; Mrs. O. L. Wright, phone 78; Miss J. E. Doran, phone 216. The games will be held each week, all players paying 25 cents as previously, and it is particularly requested that very simple refreshments be served. The Red Cross would appreciate it very much if as many as possible would take part in this tournament, as there are now so few ways of raising the greatly needed funds for the work of the Society.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Michell announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Audrey Elizabeth, to Donald James Smellie, son of Mr. Nelson Smellie and the late Mrs. Smellie. The marriage will take place at 4 o'clock September 12th at Thornhill United Church.
