

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HERE

First Presbyterian Church built in Richmond Hill in 1821, four years after the congregation was founded by Rev. William Jenkins. It was replaced by the present structure in 1880.

NOTICE

To Domestic Users of Electric Light and Power

The power controller of the Department of Munitions and Supply has ordered that after September 20th, 1942, the power used for street lighting shall be reduced by at least 20% from that ordinarily used and has prohibited certain uses of electricity.

Richmond Hill Hydro Electric Commission R. D. LITTLE, Chairman.

MARJORIE E. DUDGEON WOODBRIDGE, ONT.

Teacher of Piano and Theory

Pupils prepared for Toronto Conservatory Exams Qualified Teacher of the

KELLY KIRBY KINDERGARTEN

For Children of Pre-School Age — 3 - 6 Phone 63r21

Davies' Dry Goods Store

MISS E. ORME

Richmond Hill Telephone 119

Wartime restrictions on manufacturing cause a scarcity of many lines. This is true of things for the children, as for grownups, so this week we suggest you give some thought to the following items for junior members of the household:

- Babies' Crepe Dresses, White, Sky, Pink $1.39
Babies' Crib Blankets, Pink and Blue, from 49c.
Infants' fine wool jackets, knitted in attractive patterns, white, sky, pink $1.25
Children's wool sweaters, buttoned to neck, with collar, all over fancy stitch, white, pink, sky, sizes 1, 2, 3 $1.69
Colored Broadcloth Rompers, sizes 1, 2, 3, from 98c.
New Rayon Cordura Baby Pants, contains no rubber, overlap stitch on leg, tape tie at waist, white only, medium & large 49c.
Babies' Chinchilla Booties, washable fast colors, white, pink, sky, sizes 0, 1, 2 . 89c.
Babies' Maderia Rompers, white, trimmed blue and plain blue, sizes 1 to 3 ... $1.49
Simplicity Patterns ..... 15c., 20c., 25c.

Thornhill

Rev. R. E. Morton of Newcastle was a Saturday guest at the home of his brother in Thornhill. White here, Mr. Morton administered the baptismal rite to little Lois Ellen Davidson, daughter of Aircraftsman Donald Davidson and of Mr. Morton's niece, Mary.

Gunner Kenneth Duncan of Petawawa Military Camp paid a short visit to his parents at the United Church parsonage on Sunday.

Mrs. T. R. M. Duncan of Sault Ste. Marie, who has been visiting for some weeks at the United Church parsonage left last week for Simcoe where her husband is training with the Army Medical Corps.

Married — At Thornhill parsonage, on Saturday, September 12th, Samuel Joseph Roach to Irene Mary Disher, both of South Porcupine, Rev. J. S. Duncan officiating.

Thornhill United Sunday School resumed its sessions with a good attendance on Sunday morning. The leadership of the school, which had become vacant through the enlistment of Donald Smellie, will now be undertaken by Principal Dyer. The assistant superintendent, Mr. Neil McDonald of Willowdale, presided on Sunday and introduced Mr. Dyer to the school. Plans are being made for the observance of Rally Day and for the observance of the Sunday School Anniversary in the near future.

Dr. Duncan was the guest speaker at the opening meeting of the United Church W.M.S. on Tuesday. The subject was "How We Got Our Bible."

Sunday evening worship will be resumed in the United Church next Sunday. "The Amazing Story of Chiang Kai Shek" will be the subject under discussion. In the morning the sermon subject will be "Spiritual Reinforcements."

Thornhill United Church is planning to participate in the world-wide communion service on October 4th.

Miss Rose Marie Harrison and Mrs. George M. White of Toronto spent Sunday with Mr. George and Miss Irene Rowbottom.

L.A.C. Edward A. Stossel of Coe Harbor, B.C., spent Sunday with Mr. George and Miss Irene Rowbottom.

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY FOR AUDREY MICHELL AND DONALD SMELLIE

Standards of white gladioli and asters against a background of palms formed the setting in Thornhill United Church, for the wedding on Saturday afternoon of Audrey Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Michell, to Donald James, only son of Mr. Nelson Smellie and the late Mrs. Smellie. Dr. Jas. S. Duncan performed the double ring ceremony. Mr. Floyd S. Davies played the wedding music. Mrs. A. Willshire of Newtonbrook, soloist, rendered "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love". Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with a train, her full length veil was held in place with orange blossoms. The attendants, Miss Patricia Michell, sister of the bride, in yellow taffeta and Miss Elizabeth Smellie, sister of the groom in blue taffeta, carried sheath bouquets of yellow gladioli with mauve asters. Mr. Wentworth Bellsmith of Newtonbrook was best man. Bryan Sharpless of Ottawa, and Robert Eaton of Dunnville, both with the R.C.A.F., acted as ushers. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Michell received in China blue crepe, matching hat and corsage of yellow roses, assisted by Mrs. Sharpless, sister of the groom, in black crepe, hat to match, with corsage of red roses. The happy couple proceeded to a popular Georgian Bay point for a short honeymoon, the bride going away in a dress of gold wool, brown accessories, kolinsky furs and corsage of scarlet lilies.

Salvage Notes

Next salvage collection will be on Monday, September 21.

BASKETS — The committee are urging that all clean fruit baskets be given on this collection. There is a demand for them now and all can be disposed of readily. After October 1st there will be no further demand for them until next season.

F. H. Fletcher of the Government controlled Fairmont rubber company was in the village checking up on the rubber collected by the committee. When he learned that over 8000 lbs. of rubber had been collected and forwarded he expressed himself as highly gratified at the work of the committee.

Meat rationing wouldn't be so bad if they'll cut down on the baloney.

Newtonbrook

Wedding bells are ringing in our midst again.

Miss Dorothy Kelly of Toronto is visiting her aunt Mrs. J. R. Smith.

Miss Sybil Skelly of Washington, D.C., visited her home recently. She was accompanied by her friend Miss Short of Australia.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jack of Drewry Ave. have sold their home to Mr. Cunningham. They have moved to their new home on Connaught Ave.

Inspector H. A. Halbert and family moved to his new home on Johnson Ave. this week. His inspectorate will include Weston, Forest Hill, Leaside and Scarborough.

Mrs. H. V. Moore visited relatives in London last week.

Mr. Charles Willis sold his home on Athabaska Ave. to Mr. Saunders of Toronto. Mr. Willis is with the R.C.A.F. at Jarvis, Ont. and is a veteran of the Great War.

A missionary program will be presented in Newtonbrook United Church Sunday School next Sunday at 10 a.m. Rally Day service will be held on Sunday, September 27th when we hope to have all the girls and boys back to their classes again. Ninety-one were present last Sunday.

The Young People's Union executive meeting of the Suburban Area of Toronto Centre Presbytery will meet at the home of Miss Evelyn Dean this Thursday evening at 8.15 to make plans for the fall season.

Miss Beatrice Johnstone spent her vacation in Washington, D.C. with her friend Miss Sybil Skelly.

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor, formerly of Yorkton, Sask. have moved to our midst to make their home.

Mr. Richardson of Toronto is building a large modern bungalow on Talbot Rd. Mr. T. Small of Toronto is the contractor.

The Salvation Army drive which was launched last Monday, September 14th was preceded by a mass meeting at which Sir Henry Drayton was the guest speaker. Rev. A. H. Halbert opened the meeting with prayer and afterwards extended a welcome to those who attended the meeting from neighbouring towns. Mr. A. W. Burt, K.C., was chairman.

Seven more young men around the ages of 19 and 20 years joined the King's Forces recently from our community and are now in uniform. These are Robert Risebrough, Burton Saver, Douglas Wardle, George Duggan, Ross Heaton, Ernie Claringbold and Jerry Whitmore. About 60 from this community are already in the King's Forces. George Page has been officially reported killed in action in the Dieppe raid and several are missing.

The Women's Association met last Thursday for their September meeting with the president Mrs. W. T. Wells in the chair. It was decided not to hold an anniversary supper this year. Mrs. Halbert conducted the devotional. Two quilts were completed.

The Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met last Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage with a good attendance. Mrs. A. H. Halbert presided and led in the devotional exercises "The Bible in the World Today" and was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Heck who spoke on "The Bible and Modern Missions"; Mrs. W. T. New on "The Bible in China"; Mrs. J. R. Smith "The Bible, the Soldiers' Book"; "The Bible and Our Children" by Mrs. G. Jackson and "Dear and Familiar Verses of the Bible" by Mrs. V. Reid. The new study book "The Church in the City Streets" was introduced by Mrs. Gordon Jackson, and a paper on "The Stewardship of Self" was read by Mrs. New. The Thank-offering meeting on October 20th will be addressed by Miss Palethorpe, a returned missionary from Korea.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH (Anglican)

RICHMOND HILL Rector: Rev. W. F. Wrixon, L.Th. 4 Markham Road Sunday, Sept. 20 Trinity 16 8 a.m.—Holy Communion. 10 a.m.—Sunday School. 11 a.m.—Morning Prayer and Sermon. Five minutes instruction for children. The evening service is withdrawn as a gesture to our Presbyterian friends who are celebrating their 125th Anniversary. Choir practice Friday 8 p.m.

RICHMOND HILL UNITED CHURCH

Rev. C. B. Brethen, B.A., Minister Sunday, Sept. 20th 10 a.m.—Sunday School. 11 a.m.—Morning Worship. 7 p.m.—Evening Worship. All are welcome.

King Township District News

Mrs. Bruce Miller, Misses Betty Miller and Beulah Gray of St. Mary's are guests of Mrs. Colin Stewart at King.

Mr. and Mrs. James Patton visited Mrs. Patton's sister at Tavistock last week.

Mr. Robert Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Norris of King has enlisted in the Postal Corp of the R.C.A.F.

Mrs. Yelland of Ottawa recently visited her sister Mrs. E. Kyle.

Mr. Ronald Kyle is employed as assistant chemist at the E. D. Smith plant at Winona.

In autumn of 1936 the commodious Community Hall at Nobleton was opened. A trustee board elected by the people, of Messrs. Norman Robb, L. B. Goodfellow and Russell Snider, supported by the entire settlement of citizens, and strongly aided by Nobleton Women's Institute, the building was not only erected but financed and finally cleared of debt in six years' time. Voluntary labour in the actual building process, and voluntary effort all through these years have made the enterprise a success and brought out the co-operative spirit of the community in general. A small cash balance on hand will help to build up future undertakings for the good of humanity.

Mrs. E. Campbell and Helen of King have moved to Toronto where Helen has been employed by a business firm for some time.

Miss Jean Ross of Strange has taken an office position at the Ajax munition plant, Pickering.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McClure, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wells, Mrs. Phillip Bridgeman, Mr. Malcolm Tawse and Mr. Harper Wells attended the funeral of the late Martin Hutchison of Lemonville on Sunday. Deceased was born on the third concession of King above Eversley and was a member of an early resident family. His mother was a member of the Gray family.

Word has been received at King of the sudden and serious illness of Mrs. Harvey Wells of Ewatts, Alberta.

Mrs. Charles Cohen of the third is again in a Toronto hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ferguson and family visited her sister Mrs. Mathews of Bronte on Sunday.

Capt. and Mrs. Walsh and son of third line attended Eversley church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Jean Weinger of Codette, Sask., arrived last week at her mother's, Mrs. John Burns, Kinghorn, who is reported somewhat improved following a serious hip fracture recently.

Twenty-five members of Snowball and Temperanceville W.I. Branches were guests of King W.I. on Sept. 8th. The visitors contributed the program presided over by Mrs. W. Jennings of Temperanceville. Miss Mae Harman read a group of Wilson McDonald's distinguished poems; Mrs. E. Reddick read a helpful article entitled "Useful Work Lifts Spirits When Worried"; piano solos were rendered by ten year old ladies, Doris Mitchell and Grace Appleton much to the delight of the gathering; contest by Mrs. Copson. Mrs. Nelson Thompson gave a paper based on the Institute motto, as applied to "Conversation and Friendships". There is no education to equal the art of being a good conversationalist. Parents would be well advised to speak carefully, converse intelligently with even young children. Nothing can give the child more pleasure, or be a source of more genuine education than this type of environment. Conversation fosters friendship, one of the chief joys of life.

Dr. A. C. Taylor, Christie Street Hospital, addressed Laskay W.I. on the value of Women's Institutes and the outlook of the farm industry. "In time," he pointed out, "farming will be known as a profession."

Miss Jennie Kerswill, former assistant of x-ray department in the hospital at London, Ontario, addressed Temperanceville W.I. on the subject of cancer and treatment.

Miss Kerswill has been appointed to the Stewardess staff of the Trans-Canada Airline. Following a brief study course at Winnipeg along with operational work her station will be assigned to her.

Church Announcements Strange Presbyterian W.M.S. sent a missionary bale valued at $69 including 3 complete layettes.

September 20—Harvest Thanksgiving Service at Christ Church, Kettleby. Rev. J. J. Robbins, Bolton, guest speaker.

September 20 — Teston United W.A. service. Austin Chambers of Toronto, speaker.

September 20—Snowball United Thanksgiving service. Rev. Dr. Cranston, Toronto.

September 20—Pottageville United Anniversary.

September 20 — Mr. Carscadden of Institute for Blind at Eversley Presbyterian.

September 20 — St. Stephen's, Maple, Harvest Thanksgiving, 9 a.m., Holy Communion; 7 p.m., Evensong. Thos. Mitcheltree at the organ.

September 27 — Temperanceville United Anniversary.

September 27—All Saints, King 10 a.m., Holy Communion; 7.30 p.m. Evensong. Vocal soloist and a brilliant violinist.

STORE CLOSED

Property Sold

We are giving up business, and wish to thank our many customers in the village and surrounding district for their loyal patronage during our many years in the grocery business.

F. E. SIMS

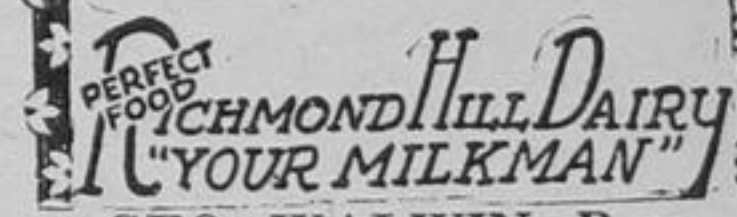

Keep Fit

Drink plenty of Milk, and be sure of an ample supply, pure and wholesome, by having us call every day.

Milk, Cream, Butter, Chocolate Milk and All Dairy Products.

Milk is the best food you can possibly serve your family.

GEO. WALWIN, Prop. Phone 42 Richmond Hill

Harvest and Threshing

Is hard on clothes. We have a fine stock of overalls, work shirts, socks, gloves, etc., everything the farmer needs for his sturdy farm work.

We invite you to make our store the headquarters for your clothing needs. We aim to please and promise you satisfaction.

R. J. CRAIGIE

Men's, Boys' and Children's Shoes, Rubbers and Goloshes

Yonge and Richmond Sts.

Richmond Hill