Mr. Phillip Bridgeman was knocked down and run over by a car on the lower third concession while assisting Leonard Shropshire to extricate the car from the depths of the muddy road on Saturday last. The machine suddenly backed as it became free and fortunately struck a stone, thus averting a complete smash. Mr. Bridgeman suffered bruises and three stitches in a hip wound.

Misses Hilda Patton of King and Mildred Follitt of Temperanceville attended the 50th anniversary of Wesley United Y.P.U. held on Sept. 20th and 21st. As president of the local Presbytery Miss Patton brought greetings from the Presbytery Union. For 50 summers and winters Wesley Young People's Union has carried on continuously, and is probably the only Y.P.U. of the United Church in Canada to achieve such distinction. Former members are distributed across Canada, one, the Rev. Hawtin, having served for many years as missionary in India, under the Presbytery church. Mr. Hawtin and many other visiting members were present. Wesley choir and the Y.P.U. installed two beautiful memorial windows on the occasion.

War Saving Stamp booth operated by four Miss Canadas, knitting club display as well as the usual stock, poultry, needlecraft, domestic work etc., horse racing, jumping and riding competition will find interest for all. The evening dance draws a large number.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bayliss (nee Dorothy Jamieson) of King feel very grateful to friends of the local community for the wedding gift, a beautiful occasional chair. They appreciate the token of esteem and affection.

Ansnoeveld school, S.S. 26, will be enlarged this fall to accommodate some 60 pupils in attendance. When the Hoiland Marsh school was opened Miss Nolan was teacher. The population of this district has increased to such an extent with more land taken up and extensive enterprise carried on, it has been found necessary to engage a second teacher to assist Mr. D. Blake. At present both teachers occupy the same class room. An additional room will take care of this when building operations begin Secretary T. E. Bell states.

Eversley Presbyterian W. M. S. packed the annual bale last week. Mrs. R. Farren gave a paper dealing with the harvest that is gathered unto the Lord from exemplary lives, good deeds, kind words and faithfulness. Sometimes it is a harvest discernible only to God. Not all harvests are garnered in October.

Snowball and Nobleton, centres for King Township Women's Institute branches for the Health Lecture Demonstration by Miss G. E. Hamilton of W.I. Branch Department of Agriculture were fairly well attended on September 14th and 15th. The lecture was most interesting and profitable. Many were not able at this time to avail themselves of the service and will be dependent on reports from branch members who participated. These are days of sharing and service.

In a recent address before Laskay Y.P.U. Mrs. W. Finch likened each individual to a small segment of the map of life. If we live honestly and fully those after us may reap the benefits of our experience as map makers of life.
