Black and White Show at Markham

The fourth annual Black and White Show sponsored by the York County Holstein Club will be held at Markham Fair on Friday, October 2nd when most of the exhibitors of previous years as well as some new breeders will have their herds in competition. Present indications are that there will be about one hundred Folsteins in the show.

These Black and White shows have spread very rapidly till practically every county now has his Holstein Day similar to our York Township on Keele Street, 11/2 miles County show which has always had such a splendid reputation. The a wards will be made this year by Mr. Fred Hobbs of Bloomfield in Prince Edward County, a past president of the Canadian Holstein Association As usual there will be free catalogues of the entries and exhibitors at the Black and White Show so spectators can follow the judging.

There will also be the usual Showmanship Competition for boys and girls who are sons, daughters or employees of owners of pure-bred Holsteins residing in the Black and
