Snider, became the bride of Rodney John Nelson, son of Mrs. W. J. Nelson, Lansing, and the late Mr. Nelson. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in full-length gown of white chiffon over taffeta, with lace bodice and floor-length veil caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her attendants were Mrs. James Harrop, Toronto, as matron of honor, and her youngest sister, Muriel Irene Snider, as bridesmaid. The attendants were dressed alike in shell pink sheer with small net flowered hats. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Ivan Nelson, Lansing, the ceremony being conducted by Rev. Geo. Burry and Rev. Garnet W. Lynd. Receiving with her daughter, Mrs. Snider was gowned in a full-length dress of fuchsia sheer. Mrs. Nelson, mother of the groom, wore a dress of black tweed with hat to match. Donning a dress of tweed effect wool with brown accessories, the bride left with her husband for a motor trip to eastern points, after which they will reside on Melrose Ave., Toronto.

YOU SLEPT WELL THAT NIGHT, DIDN'T YOU?

BUT GEORGE WAS AT DIEPPE!

NICE fellow, George—one of the lads from the office. Remember, you had him out for dinner one night. He made a great fuss over your kids—and your wife was very pleased. And then, all of a sudden, he slipped away and joined up. Left his good job, his girl and his future. And he was at Dieppe, slogging up the beach into a murderous rain of steel—fighting for you and your wife and those kids of yours he played with. And that same night you slept well, didn't you... in a soft bed. You had an egg for breakfast too. But George didn't. And you've still got a good job and you wear good clothes.

And being conscientious, you worry about these things a bit. But you just haven't been able to push yourself into doing much more than pay your taxes. Well, those taxes aren't enough. Think of what George gave up, and then sit down with your wife and ask yourselves, "What else can we do?" Sure, you've given up a few little luxuries. But there are lots of things yet that you can cut down on. Do it gladly. Because you'll really get a kick out of investing the money you save in Victory Bonds, and in knowing you're not letting George do it all.

Just keep thinking about George and what he gave up. And remember, those Victory Bonds you buy aren't giving—they're lending your country money to help protect you. That money will come back to you with interest.

WORK—SAVE AND LEND FOR VICTORY!
