Thornhill District News

The euchre party held in Thornhill Lawrence Memorial Hall last Wednesday, October 14th to raise funds to send parcels to boys of this community on active service was a huge success. Since the euchre party donations have been coming in and the fund has increased to the sum of $200. Mrs. Schafer was in charge of the euchre, Mrs. Bone, Mrs. Nightingale and Mrs. Reynolds in charge of refreshments and Mrs. W. Ball was in charge of the tickets for the draw. We wish to thank all those who sent in donations and all others who helped in any way to make this success possible.

Rev. Maurice Kaminsky, Superintendent of the Jewish Mission in Toronto, will preach in Trinity Church next Sunday morning. Rev. H. A. Jamieson, rector of St. Saviour's Church, Toronto, will preach in the evening.

The Christian Education Advance Convention covering the seven northern townships of York County will be held in St. Paul's Anglican Parish Hall, Newmarket, on Wednesday, October 28th, 1942. The theme of the convention will be "The Church Reaching and Teaching Every Person". The afternoon session will commence at 2.30 o'clock and the evening session at 7 o'clock. Several outstanding leaders will participate in the discussion. A cordial invitation is extended to Sunday School and church workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wells of Forest were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jamieson.

On Monday evening, October 25th at 8 o'clock the Thornhill Y.P.U. will hold a "Spooks Party".

The wet weather of last Saturday prevented the hike which had been planned for the United Church Sunday School. But a splendid program of games and an interesting story hour made a most enjoyable afternoon. At the close an appetizing war time lunch of soup, sandwiches and cookies sent everyone home happy and satisfied.

Dr. Duncan conducted anniversary services at Edgeley last Sunday evening.

The 90th anniversary of the present United Church building will be fittingly celebrated next Sunday. Rev. Fred Smith of Toronto and Rev. Roy Hicks of Aurora will be guest speakers for the day.

The committee chosen to select the contents for the Xmas boxes to be sent to soldiers on active service from Thornhill and district have completed arrangements to have parcels shipped before the end of the month. The following will be the contents of each box: 1 lb. Xmas cake, pkg. cheese, 7 pkgs. hot chocolate, 3 chocolate bars, tin of meat spread, tin of peaches, 2 pkgs. soup, can of peanut butter, pkg. biscuits, tin of milk, 1 tin of nuts, concentrated orange juice, pkg. oxo, life savers, gum, pencil, writing paper and envelopes, razor blades and socks. This generous assortment was made possible by the enthusiastic work of the committee who planned the euchre to raise funds for the Xmas boxes and the co-operation of the citizens of Thornhill and district who attended the euchre, and last but not least by Mr. Percy Bone who supplied all the contents of the boxes from his store at less than cost, and gave Xmas wrappings and cards and the services of his professional packer. At the top of each box will be a waxed Maple Leaf which Betty and Arthur Bone gathered and prepared to send to the boys. The box committee are also co-operating with the men of the village who have planned a dance to raise funds to provide all the boys with plenty of smokes.

NEWTONBROOK NEWS ITEMS

An entertainment will be held in the Sunday School hall of the United Church next Friday evening, October 23rd at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the Sunday School to which all the parents and friends are cordially invited. Come and enjoy a happy evening with all the members of the Sunday School and encourage them in their worthwhile work. The program will consist of music, moving pictures, etc. This will take the place of the summer picnic. There will be a silver collection taken.

The Golden Rule Mission Band held their Thanksgiving meeting on Saturday afternoon with a large attendance. Georgina Plain presided and opened the meeting with a call to worship and the Members' Purpose followed by a hymn and prayer. After the devotional service Wilma Adair told a story of "The First Thanksgiving" and Betty Moore gave a recitation "A Thanksgiving Heart". Nancy Cole contributed a piano solo very acceptably. Mrs. Gordon Jackson was the guest speaker and gave a very helpful talk. Plans were made for the Halloween Party on Saturday afternoon, October 31st at 2.30 in the S.S. hall. The boys and girls are asked to bring either sandwiches or cookies.

Newtonbrook United Church has passed another milestone in its history when it celebrated last Sunday its 102nd anniversary. The weather was ideal and many former members were present from a distance. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with chrysanthemums around the altar and baskets of gladioli placed in the windows which gave a friendly welcome. Rev. A. H. Halbert, the pastor, conducted the morning service and the special preacher was Professor A. S. Orton of Emmanuel College, Toronto, who delivered a most inspiring sermon, taking for his text, Jeremiah 17:12 "A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary."

He emphasized the need of the sanctuary in these troublous times. No nation can destroy God. No one can be raised up to take His place. If God's spirit is in our hearts we have liberty. These words will pass. God is still on His throne for He is the Lord of Lords and King of Kings. He urged the people to make room for Him in their hearts and lives. Miss Ruth Green of Toronto was guest soloist and was appreciated very much. The choir also gave special music.

Mrs. Duff sang two solos at the evening service. Rev. R. G. Carruthers of St. Cuthbert's United Church, Toronto, was the guest preacher. He paid tribute to the pioneers who established the church 102 years ago for their courage, faith and vision, also to those who have carried on faithfully throughout the years. He appealed to all the church membership to take their share of responsibility in carrying on God's work. He is depending on you. A former Sunday School superintendent who served over fifty years ago, in the person of Mr. Fred James of Toronto attended the morning service. Mr. James was also the first choir leader. His many friends were pleased to see him again. The pastor read a message from another former Sunday School superintendent, Mr. W. L. Courtice of Pickering, who sent cordial greetings to his friends at Newtonbrook United Church and regretted that he was unable to attend. Many familiar faces of our young men who have joined the King's Forces were very much missed at these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Miss Mary Valliere of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Brumwell, Master Gordon and Jean Brumwell were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt last Sunday and attended the anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wells entertained Miss Ruth Green last weekend.

Guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Halbert last Sunday were Professor A. S. Orton, D.D., Miss Maida Hutchinson, Mrs. Foreman and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shepherd of Toronto, Hon. G. S. Henry and Mrs. Henry of Orillia, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wideman of Markham.

Mr. and Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Woods and Mr. Fred James of Toronto attended the anniversary of the United Church last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Thomas Wice has been visiting friends in this community. Mrs. Wice sold her home some time ago to Mr. Mercer and since then has been staying with her sister at Goodwood.

The members of the Women's Association met at the home of Miss Edna Street one evening recently and presented Mrs. T. Wice with a leather overnight bag. Mrs. Wice was a member of the W.A. for many years.

Pte. Harold Duggan of Petawawa Military Camp spent last week-end at his home here. His brother Jack has enlisted in the Air Force recently.

Mrs. Robert Pinder Jr. is visiting relatives at Newmarket this week.

Mr. Leslie Grisdale returned home last Monday from Toronto General Hospital where he was taking treatments. We hope he will soon be much improved in health.

The Red Cross group met in the church school room for a sewing meeting last Thursday afternoon. One quilt was completed.

The W.M.S. meets this week at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wells. This will be the Autumn Thankoffering meeting. Miss E. Palethorpe, a former missionary in Korea will speak.

Newtonbrook United Church was the setting for a pretty autumn wedding on Saturday afternoon, October 3rd when Thelma Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Riddell was united in marriage to Ernest Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Southern of Steele's Ave., Newtonbrook. Rev. A. H. Halbert officiated and Mrs. William Woods of Maple, aunt of the bride, played the wedding music. Mrs. Alfred J. Robertson of York Mills was the soloist. The bride given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin on long lines extending into a train, a finger tip veil with a floral head-dress and carried a sheaf of white mums, roses and bouvardia. The bridal attendants were Mrs. David Robertson of Toronto, sister of the bride and Mrs. Paul Street, gowned alike in soldier red crepe with matching headdress and carrying white mums with dahlia petals. Little Miss Marilyn Murchison of Lansing, niece of the bride, was flower girl dressed in a long white taffeta dress with tucked waist and trimmed with soldier red and matching headdress. She carried a nosegay of white mums and red dahlia petals. Allan Southern, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were David Robertson and Arthur Gould of Toronto. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Yonge Street. The bride's mother received in a day gold crepe dress with touches of navy and a corsage of gladioli petals. The mother of the groom wore a twinkle blue costume with matching hat with corsage of roses and pink bouvardia. The groom's grandmother also received in a becoming gown of wine green with matching hat and corsage of little pink roses. For the wedding trio the bride wore a blue wool suit with matching hat and corsage of gladioli petals. They will make their home on Parkview Ave., Willowdale.
