On Monday, May 3rd the pupils of Langstaff Public School presented their annual operetta in the Lawrence Memorial Hall before a large audience. The senior pupils presented "Beauty and the Beast" written entirely by their principal, Mr. C. McGuire. The intermediate pupils also presented an operetta entitled "H.M.S. Midget". This was written by their teacher Miss Marion Halfyard. The cast of "Beauty and the Beast" included: The Beast, Michael Wade; Lord Monterary, Russell Ma-deaux; Lady Monterary, Audrey Thompson; Enchantress, Dorothy Wyatt; three daughters, Dorothy Spencely, Peggy Reid, Marion Weaver; Page, Arthur Bone; First Lady, Hazel Little; Second Lady, Violet Preston. A chorus of 18 also assisted. In Miss Halfyard's operetta were: Captain, Robert Thompson; First Mate, Donald Reid; Soloist, Hartely Kertland; Captain's daughter, Doris Russell; governor and friend, Kathleen Johnson and Patsy Smith. The pianist was a pupil of the school, Miss Betty Preston. Musical numbers were presented by the junior room and Gwen and Kathleen Lake and Dorothy Spencely formed a delightful trio. Arthur Bone made a short appeal on behalf of Canada's 4th Victory Loan. The Bee and Bluebird Clubs displayed work done in the past year. Twenty-one dollars, the proceeds of the evening, were sent to the Telegram British War Victims' Fund.

The monthly meeting of the Young Ladies' Guild of Thornhill United Church met at the home of Mrs. P. Bone on Thursday evening, May 6th. The election of officers was conducted by Mrs. Bone. The officers for 1943-44 include: President, Mrs. R. Wesley; Vice-President, Mrs. E. Jacques; Secretary, Loretta Dean; Sick Committee, Mrs. R. Eaton and Mrs. Sparrow. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess Mrs. H. Moor.

The Young People's Union of the United Church invite the congregation to be present with them on Sunday evening, May 23rd when they will have charge of the evening service.

Miss Evelyn Dean, Miss Jean Hicks and Miss Geraldine Wesley attended an executive meeting of Toronto Centre Presbytery Y.P.U. at the home of president Jack Sheldrake on Thursday, May 6th.

Mr. Jack Wallens, student of Victoria College, and an active member in Young People's work of the United Church addressed a large gathering in the church auditorium Sunday morning. The downstairs of the church was filled and some of the members of the congregation were forced to use the gallery. This was a great encouragement to the Crusaders Club who had charge of the service and who dedicated the Honour Roll. Ralph Hicks told in a few short remarks the work and aims of the club since its beginning last fall. Margaret Martin sang a most appropriate solo entitled "Follow the Gleam" and in the absence of Patsy Grainger, Dorothy Shouldice very capably unveiled the Roll of Honour.

Jack told of the early Crusaders and how only the first one was really successful. He brought to mind the crusade that we know so well, that of Richard the Lion Heart. In a very fitting way he outlined a few of the precious characteristics of a Christian Crusader, and in closing he urged each one of the boys and girls and members of the congregation alike to remember that they are the only people whom Christ has to carry on His Crusade.

Election of officers will be the main feature of the May meeting of the W.L. which will be held Thursday, May 20th at the home of Mrs. Percy Maude, Centre St. The roll call will be answered by payment of dues. As this is a special meeting all members are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Caines of Newtonbrook and Mrs. Fred Denby of Winnipeg had dinner with Mrs. Olga Denby and family on Tuesday last.

Sentry: Who goes there?
Major: Major Jones.
Sentry: I can't let you proceed without the password, sir.
Major: Drat it, man, I've forgotten it. You know me well enough.
Sentry: Must have the password.
Voice from the guardhouse: Don't stand there arguing all night; shoot 'im.

There's a good yarn going the rounds about a couple of Toronto girls who spent last winter down south. It seems that they found themselves on the shore of a beautiful and very secluded lake one afternoon, after a two-hour walk in the country. The day was warm and the water looked inviting. They decided with a little thrill at its devilishness, to strip and go in.

After a refreshing bath, the two damsels walked up the beach a short way and sat down to dry off, not having a towel with them, and while lolling there in the sun a high-pitched voice fell on their ears.

"Hello girls!" it squeaked, and the girls jumped; then, recognizing it as probably the voice of a very small boy, one of them answered, while both peered into the bush in vain, looking for the boy.

"Hello, little boy," she sang out, "how old are you?"
Back from the inscrutable greenery, like an echo, came the reply: "Eighty five, goldarn it!"
