GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Did you hear about the little moron who:
Backed out of the street car when he heard someone say that they would grab his seat when he got off?

"Pa, dear," wheedled the fond mama, "Bobbie's teacher wrote us a note saying he must have an Encyclopaedia."
"Encyclopaedia, heck!" growled dad. "Let him walk to school like I did."

Ontario government plans for a new super-highway north from the city of Toronto have been announced. The new highway will be about midway between Yonge St. and Brown's Line and will not touch Richmond Hill, Aurora or other Yonge Street centres. Instead of being situated on a main artery of traffic Richmond Hill of the future will be located on "old Yonge St." The new super highway may solve the traffic problem, but it is a disappointment to those who looked forward to the development and improvement of Yonge Street as the main artery north of the city.

In Sofia last week the new Bulgarian Government announced that henceforth all cooks who spoil food in cooking will be classed as saboteurs and shot.

A city smarty, driving through the country, came upon a horny-handed son of toil sitting by the roadside, leisurely grinding away at a cud of natural leaf and as leisurely doing a careless job of whittling.

"Say, Rube," called the city youth, "have you lived here all your life?" Neither looking up nor missing a stroke in his whittling, the rustic spat disgustedly and replied:
"Not yet."

Rev. Claude A. Watson, a minister of the Free Methodist Church in California and also a qualified lawyer, has been nominated as a candidate for President in the United States on the Prohibition ticket.

It is with narrow-minded people as with narrow-necked bottles, the less they have in them the more noise they make in pouring it out.

While riding a horse at the Circle M ranch, Kleinburg at 9 p.m. last Friday night, Herbert Fluck became weak, fell from the horse, and died almost instantly. Richard Brydges, 559 Perth ave., who was riding beside Fluck said that he made a funny noise, fell from his horse and when he picked him up he was breathing very hard and probably died at the time.

Fluck, 32, who resided at 35 Barron ave., Lambton Mills, was attending a corn roast together with a group of employees of the Toronto General Electric Co. Dr. C. J. Devins, coroner, of Aurora, said that he thought Fluck was already dying when he began to fall. The cause of the weak spell has not been discovered.

READY TO TELL

Claire Wallace, and her surprising information about people and events, provide the touchstone of the new "They Tell Me" program, which returns to the Trans-Canada Network of the CBC, Wednesday, October 4, at 1.45 p.m. EDT. The program will be heard thrice-weekly, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

In Washington they tell the story of a golfing clergyman who had been beaten badly on the links by a parishioner thirty years his senior and had returned to the clubhouse rather disgruntled.

"Cheer up," his opponent said. "Remember you win at the finish. You'll probably be burying me some day, I expect."
"Even then," said the parson, "it will be your hole."

In Lewiston, Idaho, a waitress flatly refused to sell cheese to be taken out of the restaurant, gave in when the customer ordered "two cheese sandwiches — untoasted and without bread."

To the Herald Tribune's Ned Russell, a Belgian summed up his nation's feelings about its liberation from Gestapo terror: "My idea of freedom is to hear my doorbell at 6 a.m. and to be sure that it is the milkman."

Sign at the Red Cross blood bank:
"Please keep your appointments.
Let's not get caught with our pints down."

Some people get the idea they are worth a lot of money just because they have it.—N. Carolina Churchman.

Life isn't very fair to us men. When we're born our mothers get the compliments and the flowers. When we're married our brides get the presents. And when we die, our wives get th' inheritance.—The Clipper, Edmonton.

They say the thing that worries Hitler most is that the underground is planning to make him a part of it.—Walter Winchell.

A memorial service for the late Rifleman George Rothwell was held in Newtonbrook United Church on Sunday morning, September 17th at 11 o'clock. A colour party provided by the Canadian Legion, Branch 66, Willowdale, under the command of Sergeant Hewett, took part in the service and added greatly to the solemnity of the occasion.

Mrs. Keith Kenney, A.T.C.M. presided at the organ, and sang the Lord's Prayer accompanied at the piano by Miss Elise Wells. The service was conducted by Rev. P. I.
Davidge, minister of the church. A large congregation was present.

Rifleman Rothwell was killed in action in France on July 8th this year. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rothwell of Lansing, and the husband of Mabel Brett of Newtonbrook.

LETTERS FROM OVERSEAS

England's Wartime Sweets Leave Much To Be Desired — Canadian Candy Very Welcome — Pineapples Sell At $25.00 Each In London — Peaches $1.25 Each

The following interesting letter was received by Richmond Hill Red Cross from Fl/O. Olive E. Park, daughter of Dr. J. P. and Mrs. Wilson of Richmond Hill:

"Please convey to the ladies of the Richmond Hill Red Cross Society my sincere thanks for their thoughtfulness in sending me a box of 'Lauras', Canadian chocolates, especially Lauras, are a real treat. We do have a "sweets" ration here, but the quality of English wartime candy leaves much to be desired. We like to share our Canadian boxes with our English friends.

You might be interested in knowing that just recently some Canadian Red Cross quilts arrived on this station for the use of W.D. officers.
I have a gay one on my bed of which I am very fond.

As you probably know fresh fruit is very scarce in England. When it is available, it is usually a fabulous price. We have gotten a few plums and apples. Semi tropical fruits, or perhaps I mean "warm climate" fruits are very rare, because they have to be grown under glass in England. None are imported, except a few oranges for children and aircrew.

Peaches sell for 5 shillings ($1.25) each and are displayed in shop windows resting on a padding of cotton wool. They don't taste sweet and "peachy" either! Grapes sell for 1 ($4.50) a pound. Pineapple is practically unheard of. One of our girls saw one in London priced at five guineas, about $25.00.

About a week ago a British Red Cross Mobile Blood Donor Clinic visited our station. As you might imagine, this clinic constantly tours the country visiting army and airforce camps, as well as civilian centres.
They are well equipped, well organized and very efficient. One doctor and 16 assistants took blood from over 700 donors in one day. It was the all time high record for any air-force station and the highest number of blood donations to be taken by one clinic in one day. We're trying to keep up Canada's good reputation. It was quite a thrill knowing that our blood would be used in Normandy within 48 hours. We are all optimistic with present progress of the war.

Again my sincere thanks, Olive Park.

Price Control And Rationing Information

Typical questions consumers have asked the Wartime Prices and Trade Board this week are answered below by the Central Ontario Consumer Branch Committee.

Q. Three weeks ago my purse was taken from my car containing my ration books with all my canning sugar coupons. They have not been returned. As I live on a farm and need the sugar immediately would you advise if there is any way for me to obtain more coupons.

A. Yes...if your books have not been returned you should make application to the nearest Local Ration Board for replacements...if you have the serial numbers of the ration books take them with you.

Q. Last spring I arranged to sell 75 acres of my farm with buildings.
The purchaser agreed to allow me to live in the house until next April.
He now wants to charge me $15 a month rent. Is this legal?

A. Sorry, we cannot advise on this ...as the premises in question are farm lands used exclusively for the purpose of farming, the matter would not come within the jurisdiction of the WPTB...would suggest that you consult a solicitor.

Q. On May 20 last my mother went to a rest home, taking her ration book along. On May 23 the owner requested her canning sugar coupons which I forwarded. As my mother will be with me for the winter who is entitled to these sugar coupons and how many coupons should they remove for her stay there?

A. There is no Board ruling concerning the canning coupons...as your mother will be with you all winter when most canned fruit and jams are used it would seem you should have had the use of the coupons... however it is a matter which must be settled between the owner of the rest home and yourself...the surrender of coupons at hospitals, etc. is based entirely on two week periods...coupons may only be detached from patient's ration books for each full two weeks of residence in the institution...for each two week period they are entitled to remove 1 tea-coffee coupon, 2 butter coupons and 1 preserves coupon.

Q. When I was travelling by day coach from Winnipeg to Toronto, a newsie refused to sell me a cup of coffee unless I also purchased sandwiches at the same time. Isn't this against Wartime Prices and Trade regulations?

There is a Board order banning conditional sales, that is, the sale of one commodity must not be made conditional upon the purchase of another...As you have given us the date of your trip, the newsie's number and other particulars, we shall have the matter investigated. Thank you for writing in about this.

Please send your questions or your request for the pamphlet "Consum-

So far this year, Long Distance calling is almost 10 per cent. heavier than in 1943, when toll calls set an all-time high.

So it is obvious why we must all continue to avoid needless Long Distance calls. Otherwise, pressing war business may be seriously delayed. And such delays can cost lives!

Please make only necessary calls.
