RICHMOND HILL ASKED TO GO

"ALL-OUT" IN CLOTHING DRIVE

A meeting was called Tuesday evening last in the Municipal Hall for the purpose of organizing and promoting the National Clothing Collection in Richmond Hill and district.

J. A. Greene has been appointed Honorary Director; Jas. Butler Sr., Local Chairman; Ned Hill, General Secretary; Mr. Russell Fox, Publicity Director assisted by J. Grainger; Representative Committee, Mrs. J. E. Smith, representing J. E. Smith, M.P. for North York; Mrs. R. D. Little, Mrs. Ralph Paris, Anglican Church; Mrs. (Dr.) J. P. Wilson, United Church; Mrs. H. H. McKay, Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Ned Hill, St. Mary's R.C. Church; Mrs. Wm. Adams, Mrs. L. Zuefelt, Women's Veterans; Mrs. Jas. Hunt, L.O.B.A.; Mrs. Garfield Yerex, Women's Institute; Mrs. Clarence Mylks, Mrs. P. C. Hill, Mrs. O. L. Wright, Red Cross; Mr. Bill Cotton, Mr. Thos. Lamb, Lions Club; Reeve Wm. Neal, W. Middleton, Ralph Paris, Allan Bales, P. C. Hill, representing Village Council; Reeve Jas. Butler Jr., councillor Chester Unger, representing Youth Council.

Gives Space for Packing

Mr. J. A. Greene, Honorary Director, kindly donated space for packing of clothing. It was decided to seek the assistance of the Red Cross and Women's Veterans' organizations for packing the clothing.

The co-operation of Mr. Jas. Stewart of the High School, Mr. Walter Scott of the Public School, and Mr. O. M. MacKillop, School Inspector for outlying schools will be sought.

The drive will be on from October 1st to 20th inclusive. Clothing may be left at Mr. J. A. Greene's or the local post office. Used clothing is needed for both summer and winter wear. All washable garments should be washed but not ironed. The following clothing is needed: suits, men's, women's and children's; dresses, women's blouses, women's aprons, men's women's and children's overcoats, jackets of all sizes, scarves, shawls, footwear (fastened in pairs), blankets.

The public are urged to wrap clothing and mark "Used Clothing Drive" and leave at Richmond Hill Post Office or Mr. J. A. Greene's tailor shop.

Wrapped in Newspaper

Did you know that in Yugoslavia half a million children wander the streets wrapped in newspapers for the want of something better. What about that suit or coat that little Johnny or Mary has grown out of?

Did you know that four families sleep in one small cold room and all try to huddle under one blanket? Did you know that you live in the finest country in the world?

Then show your gratitude by giving.

A meeting of the General Committee of the National Clothing Collection will be held next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Hall.

Women Are Helping

Leading women all across Canada are going into clothes closets and ransacking cupboards and attics to discover all available used clothing that they can spare the needy people of Europe and China, during the National Clothing Collection which takes place right across Canada from October 1 to October 20, inclusive. A cross-country survey today indicated that the outstanding women of Canada are prepared to do their bit to comfort the ill-clad and half-starved people of the war-devastated areas.

Mrs. John Bracken, wife of the leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons, says—"I am happy to contribute to this worthy cause and do so with a thankful and grateful heart. Thankful—that we in Canada are spared the suffering and hardship that so many countries are still enduring—grateful that our sons have come home safely to us.

Nellie McClung, Canada's beloved author, says—"I feel I should send my favorite knitted dress to make the gift worthy of the heroic people to whom the clothing is going.

"I believe this hardy garment would be glad to finish its career in the place where the struggle was the hottest. It has a toughness, an imperishable quality which will comfort some woman's heart. I wore it on many occasions and always felt well dressed."

New Woman M.P.

Mrs. Gladys Strum, newest and only Canadian woman representative at the San Francisco Conference, says—"There'll be a pair of shoes that I wore to the Memorial Building at the 'Frisco Conference to discuss the prevention of war and the terrible sufferings that always follow war.

"I talked with many Europeans at the Conference and learned firsthand what the need is. My practice has been to give away clothing but I'll find some things—even if it means less for myself—for we must not make this an excuse for extravagance for our own clothing."

Mrs. Stuart Garson, wife of the Premier of Manitoba, says—"Knowing the terrible conditions in both Europe and China the least we can do is to make very sure that we are not hoarding away (for a use to which it may never be put, or for sentimental reasons) any good clothing that would be invaluable to these people.

"With this in mind, I have sifted through my cupboards in search of suitable clothing that has survived previous clothing drives. There is a Burberry coat in good condition, also the "going away" coat of my trousseau. These I shall send to the clothing depot when the drive opens in October."

Nothing Glamorous

Mrs. Cameron Dow, Port Daniel, Quebec, president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, writing from her home on the Gaspe Peninsula, says—"I am afraid I haven't anything glamorous to give to the clothing drive.

"However, I have sorted out quite a bundle to go overseas. In it there is a special pair of strong shoes of mine, also a warm overcoat that my grandson has outgrown. Some of his other outgrown clothing will go as well.

"There is a dress of mine that still has lots of good service in it. It has attended a good many Institute meetings. I always felt nice in it. You know how a favourite dress makes you feel good when you wear it."

Guest Speaker Urges Youth Be Tolerant

"Tolerance" was the subject of Rev. Dr. Archer Wallace, guest speaker at a well attended meeting of the Richmond Hill Young People's council Tuesday evening in the Masonic Hall.

"This is a changing world," said the speaker who has had a wide experience with young people in different parts of the Dominion, "and we should keep before us the fact that without change there can be no progress in anything, and without progress where would we be? Perhaps one evidence of this change, this progress, is the bit of conflict we sometimes note between young people and older people.

"Young folks should show understanding of the difference in their point of view with that of their elders, and should avoid friction just as older folks should realize that youth has its own interests, its own point of view.

"The young people of today will be the older folks of tomorrow, and just now they have every right to look to their elders for help, co-operation and above all leadership. To give that leadership should be the duty of not one or two persons but of everyone who can give it, and it should not be given in an interfering, boss-like sort of way but in such a manner that it will be really helpful."

Don. Tapscott provided the music for the occasion. Dr. Wallace will be back in November with another illustrated lecture entitled "The Tale of Two Cities."

Corn Roast Success

The first event of the Youth's Council, the corn roast and moonlight dance held last Saturday evening on grounds off Rumble Avenue, exceeded even the expectations of the most enthusiastic promoters. It attracted a crowd of about 200, some of them married couples. The master of ceremonies was Don. Tapscott who led the sing song while Hugh Yerex supplied the music for the dancing. A fine fire was kindled for the roast and an enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Another big dance will be held in October at which there will be a refreshment booth. Date, place and details will be announced later.

Membership in the Youth Council to date totals 127.

CAR STOLEN

It is not safe to leave your car with the keys in and motor running. This was found out in the Village on Tuesday when Charlie Ryan did just this. Charlie left his car in front of Kerr's grocery store for a few minutes and returned to find it gone. He reported it to the police and in short order it was discovered at Newtonbrook completely wrecked. The driver, Bert Webb of Toronto, was taken to the Toronto General Hospital and was later charged with car theft.

Fuel Situation Really Serious State Richmond Hill Dealers

"Fuel of all kinds will be scarce for the coming Winter, and the coal dealers of the village are striving hard to enable every family in the community to be comfortable during the cold months."

That statement from one of the Richmond Hill dealers sums up the situation as the first of October approaches. Folks who thought the end of the war would mean an end to the coal shortage were badly mistaken. There has been practically no change, and larger supplies are no more available than they were a year ago.

"Conditions are bad and they will continue to be bad," said 'Bud' Jones, when asked by The Liberal for a survey of the situation. "We hope to have enough for our customers if they are prepared to take what we can get for them and to accept it when we can make satisfactory."

I. D. Ramer stated that he has been telling his customers of the shortage and of his desire to do the best he can by them. "Fuel certainly is scarce," he said, "but we don't believe anyone will freeze. We certainly hope not. Alberta coal is coming through now a little more freely."

J. H. Sheardown explained that he is getting about one fourth of what he requires, and that 50 per cent of what was obtainable last year may be expected. "If the present conditions continue," he declared, "fifty per cent of the people will never see hard coal this winter. Things seem to be getting worse instead of better."

"Consumers must make four tons of coal or coke do the work of five," says a statement endorsed by the coal trade in which four precautions are urged upon the public as follows:

1. Buy immediately and store carefully as much of your winter's supply of fuel as your dealer can deliver.
2. Take your dealer's advice. If you use coal or coke accept the types and sizes he offers at the time he offers them. Don't hold out for the exact kind you've always used.
3. Prepare now to conserve fuel next winter—stop every heat leak—clean and repair your furnace—install insulation, heating controls, storm windows, and doors. Weatherstrip.
4. Learn from your dealer the latest scientific methods of getting more heat from less fuel.

Stronger Team Than Ever R.H. Aim for Hockey Line-up

Baseball is definitely over for this season and the question of hockey comes to the headline again. As in future years Richmond Hill will be represented in the Jr. O.H.A. with a stronger team than ever. Practically all of last year's team are available and several of the boys are skating on Toronto arenas limbering up the limbs. In addition to last year's players of Stunden, Clement, Rose, Smith, Easterhouse, Mundell, Rowntree, Cosgrove, Hassard, Sullivan and McCrone the juniors are expected to line up Palmateer, goalie of Newmarket, Haddleton, left winger of Victory Aircraft, and Chit Blakeley who was with Richmond Hill two years ago and joined the army last year, which made him ineligible. Smith who played for Port Credit last year is another boy who would like to play for the Hill.

few local boys such as the Rumney boys, and Everett Baker might give an account of themselves this year.

In addition to O.H.A. Richmond Hill will see three teams entered in the T.H.L., namely Midget, Bantam and Minor Bantam. These teams will be under the guidance of Mr. Grant Nighswander with assistance from Cec. Mabley who will handle the Midgets. In entering the T.H.L. the teams will request that all teams play in Richmond Hill Arena every night it is available to Toronto Hockey League. This would create more interest in this brand of hockey in the Village.

The Richmond Hill Lions Club who have been great supporters of sport in the Village will this year ask all parents of boys to release the Club from responsibility in the event that accidents might happen.

Lions Host To Vets. and Helpers

The Richmond Hill Lions Club were hosts to 14 members of the Armed Services, who have returned home since the Lions last Spring meeting, and fifty workers who gave of their assistance in helping to put the Street Dance over this year. The Armed Service Personnel were welcomed to the Club by J. A. Greene, and Reeve Wm. Neal officially welcomed them home on behalf of the Village. Lion Jim Young, chairman of the Activities Committee, thanked the helpers who gave of their time and work to help put the Street Dance over and make it the best ever. The entertainment of Harry Gibbs, comedian and magician, and Ernie Stratford, comedian, proved very popular and was much enjoyed by all.

GIRL GUIDES

Calling all Guides to the opening meeting in the High School Gym at 6.30 on Wednesday evening, October 3rd.

IMPORTANT

In connection with the clothing drive for devastated countries which commences Monday, October 1, it is absolutely necessary that clothing which goes in pairs such as shoes, stockings, suits, mitts, gloves, etc., be securely fastened together.

BOWLING NOTES

The Men's Trebles scheduled for the local green on Saturday afternoon is filling up fast with several Toronto entries having been received. Local entries who wish to play make sure that your entry is in as the first twenty will be accepted. The Women's Institute will serve lunches at the Club house.

Gar. Yerex and R. M'odie received high for one win at the Townsend Clarke doubles on Saturday last.

MICHAEL SORENSSEN SALE
