Thanksgiving Day will soon be here. We in Canada can show our gratitude by helping those less fortunate than ourselves. Give generously to the National Clothing Collection. The coat or dress that is too small for your little daughter will keep some little youngster warm. Any clean, wearable clothing for men, women or children is acceptable, but do give something to this good cause. Usable footwear is also badly needed. Please take your donation of clothing to Norman Reid, north west corner of No. 7 highway and 4th concession between the dates October 1st to October 20th.

ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Bruce on No. 7 highway to see a demonstration of brushes. Mrs. Gladman showed the ladies her products and received orders for a number of them. Contests were held and Mrs. Atkinson proved to be quite an artist and for her efforts received a set of pyrex custard cups. A percentage on the sales made was donated to our choir. Mrs. Bruce served a delicious lunch at the close of the evening. Door prizes were won by Mrs. W. Craig and Mrs. Wood. Don't forget the Hallowe'en Masquerade dance at Buttonville Community Hall. Everybody welcome. Sunday was Rally Day at Brown's Corners United Church. There was a large attendance. The talk by the guest speaker, Mr. Ewart Stiver of Unionville, was greatly enjoyed. The children sang hymns with the parents joining in the choruses. Piano accompaniment by Mrs. S. J. English. Mr. D. Fountain visited his brother at Sharon on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Dimma spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. Reid. The Sept. meeting of the Buttonville Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. Rodick. The guest speaker for the afternoon, Mr. A. Bruce, gave a very interesting talk on the history of Melville Church. Miss Mary Keffer favored us with a solo accompanied by Miss Jane Keffer at the piano. The Misses Keffer then sang a duet. Mrs. C. Burr moved a vote of thanks to those who took part in the program. Lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. C. Burr and Mrs. J. Rodick. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Elliott and roll call will be answered by "What you like best about the month of October".

woman in a bombed-out home a bit. A:I'm giving the most precious things in my house—my boy's clothing. He's still overseas, and he's gained so much weight that he'd never be able to use the clothes again. I know he'd want me to give them so some one in a war-torn country can be warmer next winter. Q: Have you heard any one from the other side telling why the National Clothing Collection for overseas war relief is needed so desperately?

A: Yes. My husband wrote that last winter, while he was warm in his woollen Army uniform he saw children naked and blue with cold. He said that if destitute people overseas are to be saved, they must be clothed before cold weather sets in again.

A: Yes. In Belgium my son came across a family that had just one ragged shirt. When one of the boys wore the shirt to go out foraging for wood in the snow, the others had to stay inside to keep from freezing. Q: Do you think the end of the war has lessened the need for clothing which the National Clothing Collection is now rounding up for overseas war relief?

A: No. Not at all. Hundreds of factories overseas have been destroyed. But it will be years before those factories can get enough materials and make enough clothing to cover the basic needs of the 125,000,000 people now destitute overseas.

A: No I don't. I hear that all factory war production in Belgium and France was for vital war equipment to help liberate other peoples. Clothing for war relief will have to come from our country. Q: Do you think the National Clothing Collection now going on for overseas war relief will build good will for the Dominion?

A: Of course. If you give clothing which will protect some unfortunate woman or child from the cold next winter, the family is going to be grateful to you. When you consider all the people we're going to help, I think it will strengthen the movement toward a Democratic way of life over there as soon as the destitute regain their health and strength.

A: Yes. I come from a foreign country. I was only a child after the last war, and I would have died without the kind help which Canadians sent to me. I will never forget it, and I know this clothing collection will make millions of others overseas feel as I do. Q: Do you think men or women will be more generous in donating used clothing to the National Clothing Collection for overseas war relief?

A: Women, because they like to rummage through their clothes closets, and pick up things around the house. Men cling to old clothes. They say they're more comfortable in them.

A: Men will be more generous. You'll notice how a mother will hang onto clothes her child wore years ago because the child looked "adorable" in them. Men would give those clothes to keep some other child in comfort. Q: What is the most unusual article of clothing you have found for the National Clothing Collection for overseas war relief?

A: My long-waisted wedding dress of the last war which I thought was such a knock-out when I married my husband before he went over there in 1915.

A: A sateen bathing suit with bloomers. There's enough material in the bloomers alone to clothe a ten-year-old child. A: My plus-fours. You'll remember they were the knickers we all thought were so smart for golf and hiking about 10 years ago. A: High button shoes with a tassel and baby blue tops which my daughter adored when she was a little girl.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Vaughan and Richmond Hill Branch of the York County Veterans is a real live going concern. Their membership is made up of wives and mothers of veterans and servicemen and they meet once a month in the Municipal Hall, Richmond Hill, on the first Tuesday of the month. Mrs. W. Adams, the mother and wife of a family of veterans, is the president. One of her sons was killed in action at Dieppe and another taken prisoner. Mrs. Adams has hard working, co-operative officers to assist her.

During the war years, 1939 to 1945, they sent overseas 169 parcels, $184.00 worth of cigarettes, 22 cartons of chewing gum, 250 pairs of socks, 50 pairs of gloves, 25 sweaters, 25 pairs of mitts, 25 helmets, 148 handkerchiefs, 48 utility aprons, a number of large quilts of which 61 were donated for Russian Relief, 24 crib quilts, 2 afghans, 1 pair of blankets; to Red Cross, 2 baby layettes, 10 pr. baby booties, 3 baby sweaters, 3 baby bonnets, 8 girls' dresses, 3 girls' skirts, 1 girl's sweater.

Contributions were made to Ditty Bag Fund and British War Victims. Now the entire organization are actively engaged in the National Clothing Collection now going on.

We men take our hats off to our women who have kept the home fires burning in a real practical way.

The regular meeting of Vaughan and Richmond Hill Veterans is held the first Tuesday of every month and all who have worn the King's uniform are welcome.

Our Poppy Fund appeal is just around the corner. More about this next week.
