King City District News

Mrs. J. Phillips has returned home following a surgical illness.
Wren Ninette Holingsworth has returned from Esquimalt, B.C. and is taking a rehabilitation course at Ottawa. She visited her parents a week ago and was an interested spectator of Eaton Hall Hunt.

Mrs. G. H. Stone is gaining in strength after a long illness. She has received many cards, letters and visitors which have passed the time pleasantly away which she remembers with thanks. Her daughter Mrs. Whitney left a week ago for her home in Elmvale. Mrs. E. Patton and Mrs. J. Clift accompanied her home, returning immediately afterward.

The recent death of Miss Mary Teasdale, Aurora, was a source of deep regret here. Born at Laskay, Mary was widely known and leaves to mourn her early death a number of close friends and school chums. This community extends sympathy to the mother and family.

In the passing of the late J. M. Walton, Aurora, a familiar figure in King Township has been removed. His interest and connections remained active until a long illness set in. Much of the historical data of Kettleby and other sections has been set down in accurate and interesting manner by the late Mr. Walton. His wife and daughter have been extended expressions by a great number of friends in these parts.

Miss Audrey Patton has returned from an extensive trip through the Canadian West, visiting Vancouver, Victoria and Banff. While travelling she met a Canadian mother from Bowmanville who lost her three only sons in the war and a husband who passed away suddenly. They became friends finding experience on the journey of life a means to understanding.

Mrs. Jas. Patton and family have received many interesting gifts from Cpl. Gordon Patton, now with the Toronto Scottish. 1,200 tulip bulbs have come from Holland, valuable trinkets and souvenirs from other European countries, numbering more than 20 all told.

Alfred Barker Returns
After four years overseas service, Alfred Barker came home on Oct. 1st. We expect to hear something of his experiences but in the meantime he is a welcome visitor at King, especially among his many friends on the W.I. whom he so faithfully remembered with letters of thanks. Mrs. McAllister of Richmond Hill and other 'equally important' friends have shared in the home-coming.

Visiting his cousin at King, Mrs. David McAllister over the week-end was Earl Barnes, Toronto, son of Charlie Barnes.

King Athletic Association has made final negotiations for the Memorial Park grounds, which will be a recreation park in memory of its war heroes. There is something binding in its purpose. Long needed to take care of the energies of growing children, and expand the healthy interest of young people in the realm of sports as well as countless other offices to fill, a recreation centre for King and district can express in fine terms the ideals and motives of pure minds and the give and take which life draws upon so constantly. The organization and groups of citizens behind the project are willing to take the burden of ways and means. But more than that is required, the understanding and support of many people over a long period of time. It requires vision and labor to carry the plan through to a successful finish. And none must violate the pledge to make this a centre of the highest moral calibre worthy of commendation or generations to come.

Miss Hilda Patton is at her home here having completed a term as director of a farm camp at St. Catharines.

Mrs. Ed. Patton, Edmonton, and Mrs. Earl Patton, Winnipeg, received a visit from Miss Audrey Patton on her trip west.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Follitt and Harold spent the week-end at Hillsburg. While there Mr. Follitt was instrumental in releasing Wm. Everdell, over 80, a Hillsburg townsman who was in the habit of taking a Sunday morning walk over Donald McMurphy farm. While climbing a wire fence his heel caught and he was thrown backward his head touching the ground. Unable to help himself or call for aid the old gentleman hung suspended in this position for probably two hours when the McMurphy children made the discovery and summoned aid. Not close enough to actually discern the figure the children were greatly alarmed. Mr. Follitt found the victim unconscious and in poor condition, Donald McMurphy removed him to his home in Hillsburg and medical aid was sought. The fact that the accident occurred about 80 rods from the McMurphy house and on Sunday added to the delay of discovery.

Mrs. McMann and son Bobby, Aurora, were visitors of George Brown on Sunday.

Mrs. A. McClure addressed Maple Presbyterian W.M.S. at the thank-offering meeting when Mrs. E. Keffer and Mrs. Victor Orr were made life members. Present were two charter members of the Society, Miss A. Walkington and Miss S. Robinson.

Eversley W.A. bazaar will be held in King United Church basement on Saturday, December 1st. The Presbyterian ladies are busy making preparations.

Mrs. Rock's sister of Utterson visited her recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson have moved into their newly built home here.

Dr. S. Gordon Chalk is at his farm home, Chalk Hill for a few holidays.
The funeral of the late Thos. Brydon, con. 11, King, was held last Saturday, interment in Bolton cemetery with Rev. R. G. McKay, Woodbridge, conducting. The service was held at his late home with a large attendance from a wide district in King and Albion. King council was fully represented. In Scottish traditional manner the bagpipes were played from the residence and later into the cemetery.

Deceased passed away as a result of an explosion while examining dynamite in blasting a stump on his farm.

He is survived by his only brother, Dr. Brydon, Brampton, an Aunt is Mrs. John Redmon, Aurora, a sister of the deceased's late mother, Margaret Hall.

A reception given by Robertson Masonic lodge for one of their members, Wm. Hoiles, recently appointed to the office of District Deputy Grand Master, Toronto District "D". District lodges were well represented with past District Deputy, A. Dickson and the Grand Lodge Registrar, Lockie Wilson as speakers, among other speakers. The new District Deputy has earned the office and secretary to him is D. M. Ross. As a token of regard Robertson Lodge presented the Deputy with a 17-piece china tea set.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Rolfe spent the week-end in Toronto.

Cragg, Kettleby United minister, preaching at 11 a.m., and the pastor, Rev. H. Wilson at 7.30 p.m. Special music for the day. Service in King Baptist cancelled that date.

Anniversary service will be held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Strange, morning and evening with Rev. M. E. Burch, Mimico, a former minister at both services, Maple Presbyterian choir singing.

On October 31st a rummage sale will be sponsored by the W.A. of St. John's Anglican Church, Oak Ridges in the parish hall.

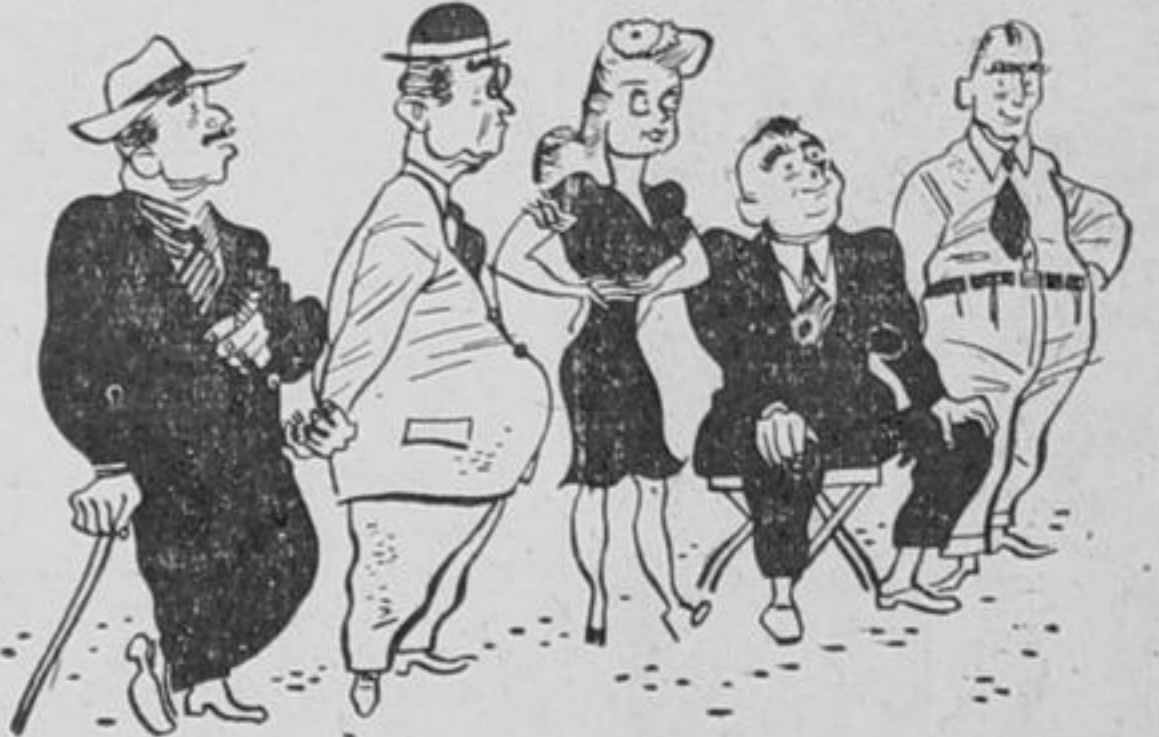

King United Bazaar will be given by the W.A. on Thursday, November 22nd in the church basement.

Pte. Murray Ezard arrived at his Laskay home last week from two years service overseas. He enlisted with the Second Division R.C.E. For the first time a month ago he happened upon his brother Russell driving a truck in Holland. They visited their brother Bert afterward, the first time the brothers have met while over there. Murray looks well and was met by a joyous mother at the Toronto depot. His friends are glad to see him.
