Thornhill District News

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mellish and Miss Betty Mellish of Vancouver, are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mrs. and Mr. J. A. Pearson of Yonge St. Earl Haig Collegiate have inaugurated a Home and School club. The first meeting was held last Tuesday night, October 9th, and it must have been an unfortunate choice insofar as Thornhill is concerned, for there was a very poor showing of parents. This first meeting was for organization, and there was a fair representation. Mr. N. L. Morton of Colborne St. was appointed Recording Secretary.

The Year Up Club is a new organization formed recently for the main purpose of organizing good times, not only for the youth of the Village, but for members up to 30 years of age. The officers were elected early in September and a corn roast was held. The Hallowe'en dance to be held in Lawrence Memorial Hall at the conclusion of the children's party will be one of their first ventures, but plans are going forward for a Sadie Hawkins dance later on. Then, for the winter months it is hoped that a Ski Club can be formed. This Club has the backing of older organizations of the Village.

Plans are going forward to give the children a time to remember this Hallowe'en when a party will be given for them at Lawrence Memorial Hall. Already contributions have been received from various organizations, to defray expenses, and an undercurrent of excitement is felt amongst the children as costumes are discussed and false faces purchased.

Sunday next, October 21st, will be Youth Sunday at Trinity Anglican Church and the Boy Scouts are expected to turn out. This Sunday is being observed throughout the Anglican Churches in Canada and the Episcopal Churches in the United States. The service will be held in the morning at 11 o'clock.

A thriving young people's organization has been inaugurated in connection with Trinity Anglican Church, and a list of officers will be included in next week's edition. So far, several successful evenings have been reported, and on Tuesday night, October 16th, a weiner roast was held at the rear of Mr. George Lake's property on Yonge St. About 40 young people turned out for the good time. Rev. S. A. R. Wood is in charge of each meeting. The 93rd anniversary of the United Church will be held on Sunday, Oct. 21, with Rev. G. B. McLennan of Manor Road United Church, Toronto, and Rev. Chas. Mellow of Leaside, as guest speakers. Special music and beautiful decorations will mark this important occasion.

Thornhill Scouts and Cubs held their annual apple day on Saturday last, and Mr. Bart Edwards reported that they collected approximately $36, and that further donations amounting to $7 or $8 were handed to him.

Mr. E. Grainger has resigned as Scout Master owing to pressure of business, so Mr. H. Swabey will be acting as Scout Master next Sunday when the Thornhill Scouts and Cubs march from Thornhill Public School to Trinity Anglican Church to take part in Youth Sunday, being observed there. The boys are to meet at the school at 10.15 in the morning. Further interesting news of our local Scouts and Cubs may soon be released.

Mr. J. A. Thompson of Yonge St., who suffered a severe heart attack on September 30, is coming along as well as can be expected, and his doctor is pleased with his condition. Mr. Thompson is still confined to bed of course, and will be for some time to come.

The W.A. and W.M.S. of Thornhill Presbyterian Church met for their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Harper on Bayview Ave. last Thursday, Oct. 11. It was a Thank Offering meeting for the W.M.S. Mrs. Mizen gave a report of the meeting at Richmond Hill when Mrs. Dixon was guest speaker, and a very nice offering was reported. A contest was held at the close of the meeting, the prize being won by Mrs. Mizen.

Preparatory Services will be held next Sunday, October 21 in Thornhill Presbyterian Church, and Communion will be observed the following Sunday, October 28th.

The Fortnite Club held a meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Gordon Campbell on John St. This was a "working" meeting, and sewing on articles for the bazaar held a dominant place. The Club will be meeting every Thursday evening until the Bazaar is over, this bazaar to be held in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian Church on Saturday, November 17, and next week's meeting will be at the home of the Misses Welsh on Centre St.

The collection of used clothing in Thornhill is going forward by leaps and bounds. Mrs. Saunders Findlay who so generously opened up her home for this purpose, reports she can hardly get into the house, even the veranda is full. There are beautiful suits, several overcoats just like new, fur coats, and lovely quilts and blankets. In fact, some of the things have never been worn at all, and the condition of these articles is something the Village can be proud of. Eleven large boxes are all ready packed to go, and there are still stacks of things to be sorted and packed. Mrs. Findlay says the house will still be open for donations until Saturday night, and anyone wishing to add a last minute contribution may contact her at Thornhill 116. There is room for more.

The following letter was received by Mrs. A. Brillinger, Yonge St., in answer to one she wrote a lady in London, England:

"Thank you very much for your letter I received this afternoon. It was very kind of you to answer my letter. Yes, we have to give coupons for the things you sent. I had to give 20 coupons for a baby's layette, everything is in coupons, even wool to knit baby things, and then we cannot get white wool. It is a dirty yellow, and I am one of those people who do like a baby to look nice. Unfortunately, we have been very unlucky this year. My husband was discharged from the forces on medical grounds, and this year has been in hospital twice with an operation on his head, and he has only been able to do a week's work so far, so you can guess a little how I have been feeling. Your kindness in writing and your offer to send what I need, has cheered me immensely. I have enough first tiny baby things, but should be grateful for petticoats and dresses say for baby from three months onwards, or really I should be grateful for anything you will send, as I think clothes rationing here in England will be for some time to come. We are allowed 24 coupons for six months. I have a boy of twelve, a little girl of four and the other expected July 20th, and to keep them clothed is a problem. Never mind, as you say, we are glad the war with Europe is over. We had our place badly knocked about and lost a good bit of our household goods, but our lives were spared, thank God. I am glad for your sakes you did not suffer like we did. Well, again thanking you for your kindness and your interest in me, and I shall certainly look forward to hearing again from you. God bless you. Yours sincerely, D. Keat."

A box of clothing has been sent this lady by Mrs. Brillinger for Thornhill Women's Institute, the articles for which were donated by Bayview Ladies' Guild. This is only one phase of the post war work to be undertaken by the Institute, so when contributions are once more requested for our annual sale to be held early in December, we know the cause will be found worthy. Mrs. Clayton Jaeger has been appointed Convenor of this year's sale, and contributions will be welcomed by her at her home on Yonge St. Stoker 1st class David McLearn, R.C.N.V.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fitzgerald, John St., is home on a 14-day leave. He arrived on Saturday, Oct. 8th, and expects his discharge at the expiration of his leave.
