CARRVILLE

The Hallowe'en party held on Friday, October 26th was a success. A large crowd of young folk attended it, although not many appeared in costumes. Margaret Wood won first prize in the girls of the best costume and Gordon Read of the boys. Games and dancing topped the evening. A delicious lunch was served at the end with pumpkin tarts as the specialty.

We are glad to hear that Beth Barton, Dean Wilson and Victor Stewart were able to attend the Hallowe'en party.

Thornhill District News

The last jars of pickles and preserves have been stored on the cellar shelves, and the home-makers of the community will be turning their thoughts to arranging their homes for the winter, and will, no doubt, be discarding things as they do. When that time comes, Thornhill Women's Institute hopes you will keep in mind their White Elephant Sale which takes place on Saturday, December 8th, at Lawrence Memorial Hall.

The community is well aware of the work done by this organization, most of the money for which is derived from these annual sales. During the past year, the Institute has been able to donate money to the Annapolis ward of Christie Street Hospital for the use of the boys in making phone calls; to the Sick Children's Hospital; to the Local Boy Scouts and Cubs; to the Hallowe'en party being put on by the village; to the honey and jam fund for Britain; to the Canadian T.B. Association; Flowers and fruit have been sent to the sick and bereaved, and shut-ins have been visited, a shower for the Navy was held last Fall, and parcels have been sent to an English lady who is very much in need and numerous articles of clothing and bedding were sent overseas.

It was decided at a recent meeting that a certain sum be set aside from each sale to be used in the erection of a community hall at some future date, so it will be seen that the work being done is local as well as war work.

When all of the above facts have been taken into consideration, we know you will find our cause worthy of your support and gifts. Outgrown toys, clothing and hats, odd bits of china, glassware and jewelry, discarded handbags and odds and ends of every description, as well as furniture, all add to the attraction and value of our sale, and once more we are calling on our friends to assist us in this venture. No donation can be too large or too small. If you wish to contribute, please get in touch with Mrs. C. Jaeger, phone Thornhill 107, and she will be glad to have the things picked up.

An error was made in last week's edition when Thornhill Horticultural Society was credited with having sent a donation to the Women's Institute. Miss W. Simpson, who is secretary of the Horticultural Society, sent a cheque for $7.50 as her personal gift to the W.I.

Mrs. Greenfield of Toronto, who was buried in Thornhill Cemetery last week, was a relative of both Mrs. Warwick of John St., and also of Mr. Harry Simpkins, Centre St. Don't forget the White Elephant Sale and Bazaar being put on by Thornhill United Church Young Ladies' Guild in the Sunday School room on Saturday, November 3rd at 3 o'clock. There will be many lovely things to buy and it will pay to get there early. The home baking coun-

Thornhill Presbyterian W.A. and W.M.S. will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of the Misses Welsh on Centre St. next Thursday afternoon, November 8. Mrs. Pattenden is providing the program and a good attendance is desired. Everyone is welcome.

Craftsman Wesley Baker, RCME, is home on a thirty day leave after having spent about four years overseas. Wesley married an English girl who came out here from Surrey about seven weeks before he arrived home, and she spent this time with Mrs. Warwick of John St., Wesley's sister. Mrs. Warwick's sister, Mrs. Cullen, gave a miscellaneous shower for the pair and they received many lovely gifts. The first part of Wesley's leave was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Warwick, and then amongst his brothers and sisters in Richmond Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Baker are living in Toronto for the present.

Craftsman Edward Baker, a cousin of Mrs. Warwick's, returned home last Wednesday night on the Isle de France. He had been away for two and a half years. Mr. Baker's home is in Alberta, and he left on Monday night to return there.

Pte. John Neil is home on seven days leave awaiting his discharge. John has been stationed at Vernon, B.C., and lately at Ippewash. Although he plans to take a position in the meantime, he will be returning to school, perhaps around Xmas time, and since he is interested in forestry, he may attend the O.A.C. at Guelph later on.

Major R. N. Simpson is home on furlough after having spent a little over two years overseas. He was stationed at the Roman Way (commonly known as "bomb alley"). Dr. Simpson has been staying at the home of his sister, Miss W. Simpson, Yonge St., but is going up to Manitoulin on Thursday where he had his practice previous to his enlistment. However, he will be returning for his medical discharge before taking up permanent residence in Manitoulin.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Banks, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynolds, was christened at Trinity Anglican Church by the Rev. S. A. R. Wood last Sunday afternoon.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity Anglican Church was held at the home of Mrs. W. Ball, Yonge St., on Thursday afternoon, October 25. A very good attendance was on hand to welcome the guest speaker, Miss Lee, who gave a most interesting account of her work. Miss Lee is in charge of the downtown church workers, and connected with St. James Cathedral.

The Fortnites are busy these days working on articles for their bazaar to be held in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian Church on Saturday, November 17th.

Several tables of goods have been planned including knitted wear, cups and saucers, aprons, novelties, towels, and one table will be devoted to home baking. All details have not yet been worked out, but will be given in a later edition.

With Christmas less than 2 months away, our local bazaars should be of genuine interest to the district, for the quality of the articles offered cannot be beaten anywhere, and it goes without saying that the prices are low enough to suit any budget.

The meeting this week will be held at the home of Miss E. Francis.

High School Notes

The Athletic Society sponsored a Hallowe'en Masquerade and Dance last Saturday evening in the auditorium. It was the first big social event of the year and many turned out to a gala evening. Highlight was the Grand March in which all those in costume took part. Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to George Bailey, Margaret Scott, Hilda Thibert and Mr. Donald Tapscott. During the evening coffee and cookies were served. A conga line, spot, elimination and birthday dances rounded out a very enjoyable evening.

A bigger and better Glee Club was formed for the ensuing school year on Thursday last. Officers elected were: President, Shirley Paris; secretaries, Donald Mellor, and three representatives from grades 10, 11 and 12, Clare Markey, Hilda Thibert and Ian McAllister. The music club's tentative plans for the year include participation in music festivals, a local concert in March, a closing banquet and other social activities.

MILK COWS IN DEMAND
Fine weather and a great deal of farm work to do seems to have made smaller attendance at auction sales, but does not appear to have lessened the bidding.

The dispersal sale of Lloyd Reesor's herd of milk cows last Wednesday drew a small crowd but bidding was extra good when one grade cow topped the sale at an even $200.00 going to W. J. Murphy of Lindsay and her stall mate went at $189.00. Prices were good throughout the sale. Sellers and Atkinson, auctioneers, conducted the sale.
