Thornhill District News

Trinity Anglican Church will hold a memorial service on Sunday morning, November 11th.

Thornhill United Church Young Ladies' Guild held a most successful white elephant sale and bazaar in the Sunday School room last Saturday afternoon. The weather was perfect and the attendance very good. Needless to say, the baking table was most popular. The Guild was delighted with the receipts which amounted to around $240.00 and wish to thank their many friends and patrons for their aid in making the sale a success. To the convenors and members who worked so hard to put this sale over, a hearty vote of thanks is also extended.

Tr. William E. Rouxel, R.C.D., son of Mrs. H. E. Rouxel, Colborne St., was married in England recently. His bride was the former Miss Rose E. Dowsett of Brighton and Hove, Sussex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dowsett. A picture of the happy couple appeared in a recent edition of a local paper.

Twelve of the children from Thornhill Public School including Melvin Code, Joan Wade, Lyn Giles, Marilyn Mackintosh, Ronny Griffin, Jacqueline Richardson, Audrey Hiltz, Bobby Grainger, Richard Neil, Eddy Hopper, Lee Bishton and John Sanderson canvassed from door to door last week-end and collected a total of $20.00 for the Poppy Fund.

The children of the Village, Langstaff and Thornlea, enjoyed the Halloween party put on at Lawrence Memorial Hall last week to the utmost. A great deal of interest was shown in the venture and the costumes were really lovely. Prizes for best costumes were given to children from five years to twelve, and girl and one boy in each age group, and there were special prizes as well. Mr. P. Bone put on movies for the children and Hap Walker's orchestra donated their services free for the dance which followed the children's party. Scarcely a child could be found on the streets, and young and old alike voted it the best Halloween ever.

The Fortnites hope you will keep in mind their bazaar which is to be held in the Sunday School room of Thornhill Presbyterian Church Saturday, November 7th. Many lovely things have been and are still being made for this event, and a unique feature will be the "touch and take" table with articles ranging from 5c. to 25c.

By a strange coincidence, two neighbours have suffered broken bones within the past few days. Last week-end, Mrs. T. ### All Saints Anglican Celebrates 88 Years

Called to worship in a spirit of thanksgiving and hope the congregation and friends met in holy communion service on Sunday, November 4th to commemorate the 88th birthday of the founding of the first church erected in King City, known then as Springhill. All Saints Anglican Church was hewn from the virgin trees that covered the piece of land given by a James Pulford, as the site for the building. Of "clear lumber" the frame structure was raised from subscriptions headed by John Thompson, Isaac Dennis, George Gordon and others. On November 1st, 1857, All Saints Day, the solemn opening ceremony took place. The door was unlocked with the same 6 inch key used today, by the Bishop of Toronto, the records state. Rev. Dr. Bevan preached the first sermon choosing the significant text, "Lo we heard of the same Ephraim and found it in the woods." Dr. Bevan knew full well the earnest desire of the congregation, who worshipped prior to this time in a small room in the Dennis hotel, to build a suitable sanctuary for worship of the increasing number of Anglicans in the district.

At a later date the edifice was bricked and its progress marked by many improvements now defining it as a well kept rural church. The installation of a pipe organ by the Watson family in memory of their parents and played by Miss Dorothy Armstrong adds to the beauty of the services.

On Sunday the acting Rector, Rev. G. I. B. Johnson, gave a resume of the parish history. Preparation of a leather bound Book of Remembrance is being made to be preserved among the church records.

The special service will be of great interest to Captain, the Rev. E. W. G. Worrall on service still in England, and who will return to his flock at King, Maple and Oak Ridges when his service is ended in England.

Among the oldest members are Mrs. John Cull and Mrs. Alfred Gillham. The Lockhart family have also long been associated with the institution. Wardens are Messrs. Crawford Wells and George Hatley.
