IN MEMORIAM
BALES—In loving memory of a dear brother Rfm. George Eli Bales, who was killed in England November 18, 1942 and buried in Brookwood Cemetery, England.
You're not forgotten, brother, dear,
Nor ever shall you be;
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.
—Ever remembered by sister Margaret, brother-in-law Fred, nieces Shirley and Beverley Thomas.

IN MEMORIAM
BALES—In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Rfm. George Eli Bales, who was killed in England November 18, 1942 and buried in Brookwood Cemetery, England.
However long our lives may last,
Whatever lands we view,
Whatever joy or griefs be ours,
We will always think of you.
—Ever remembered by Mother and brother Jim.

WEDDING

EAKINS—HILL
A wedding of wide interest in Ontario took place in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill on Saturday, November 3rd, when Shirley Havergal Legge Hill, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clinton Hill of "Heathholme", Richmond Hill, became the bride of Lieut. James Warner Eakins, R.C.N.V.R., younger son of Dr. and Mrs. George Edwin Eakins of Port Arthur. Rural Dean Wrixon officiated at the ceremony and Mr. Adelmo Melecci presided at the organ throughout the service.
Chrysanthemums, in a graduation of tone color, were used in the church decoration. Individual tall blooms marked the church aisle, while the chancel was beautiful with massed settings of yellow and white, shading to all white at the altar.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin, enhanced by bands of heirloom Venetian lace. Her full length veil was held with a calot of latticed satin, and as her only ornament she wore a gold necklet from which hung a pearl and aquamarine drop which had belonged to her grandmother. Her ivory prayer book, which had been carried by her mother, was crested with a spray of chartreuse orchids with a cascade of pinocchio petals and maiden hair fern, and she carried a Honiton lace handkerchief.

The bride's attendants were charming figures wearing picture frocks of baroque ivory faille taffeta. Their wattleau bonnets were of matching taffeta with sprays of gold, bronze and green ostrich tips and they carried colonial bouquets of bronze and yellow mums. Mrs. Herbert Jessop Nott was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Nora Jean Quigley, Nancy Elizabeth Hill, and Mary Alicia Eakins. Lieut. Commander Robert Eakins, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Lieut. Robert Hutchinson, Lieut. Oswald Smith, Lieut. William Ramore and Mr. Harry Hill, brother of the bride.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received, wearing an ensemble of wood-rose crepe with mink cape and corsage of mauve orchids. Mrs. Eakins had chosen a gown of teal blue with stone marten furs and bouquet of multi-colored rose buds.

Later, Lieut. and Mrs. Eakins left on an extended honeymoon, the bride travelling in a costume of ming coral wool, fashioned with a brown squirrel girdle, a matching squirrel jacket and brown alligator accessories.

During the toast list many congratulatory telegrams, which had arrived during the afternoon, were read. They came from Toronto, Peterborough, Orillia, Parry Sound, Chapleau, Port Arthur, Edmonton, Boston, Washington and Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The bride is a graduate in law of Toronto University and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity. For the past three and a half years she has been attached to the British Consulate in Baltimore and the British Security Co-ordination in New York and Boston. The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Andrew's College and the University of Toronto and has served with the R.C.N.V.R. since early in 1942.

New Organist And Choir Leader For St. Mary's Anglican

At a recent meeting of the Advisory Council of St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, the Churchwardens reported the resignation of the organist, and asked support for their plan to appoint an Organist Choir Leader. They reported five applications on hand for the position. The meeting voted support of the plan and the Wardens later reported that they had appointed Miss Bernice Lightbody, A.Mus., L.T.C.L., of Toronto. Miss Lightbody who comes from Nova Scotia, is continuing her studies at the Conservatory of Music in Toronto. She expects to take charge of the choir this evening, and will preside at the organ at both services on Sunday. It is expected that Miss Lightbody will have a class in Organ, Piano and Vocal music.

Deanery Education Assoc. Conference

Representatives from many parts of the Deanery of West York met in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, last evening for the annual conference of the Religious Education Association.
