Dec. 8th, All Saints W.A. Bazaar and Afternoon Tea in church basement at 3 p.m., attractive sale. Features by Junior W.A.

Nov. 16, W.I. Conference conducted by Miss Collins, forum on Care of Clothing at Nobleton for Schomberg, King and Nobleton branches.

Nov. 18, Rev. Mr. Turnbull, former missionary in Bolivia, guest preacher in the Baptist circuit.

Rev. Harry Wilson announces future evening service in King Baptist Church each Sunday at 7 p.m., one half hour earlier.

Mr. J. T. Saigeon is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. S. Roberts, King.

Two business concerns will be set up at King. Mr. W. J. Reid will establish electric and acetylene welding business, to which he will apply skill and experience of several years, with outstanding firms. Mr. Benson, recently moved to King in the late Mrs. Silk's house, will set up a try industry on the property he purchased from Jas. Patton near the station. Preparations are in progress to fit the building for the industry.

Mr. George Armitage and family have moved from Maple into an apartment in Mrs. W. J. Crossley's house.

Miss Janet Thompson, Charleswood, Manitoba, visited Mrs. Aubrey Campbell last week.

Deer hunting are Harold Hollingshead, Victor Cull, Joe Willis, Clifford Douglas, D. Patton, and others from Victoria Square and Toronto.

Bruce Rawlings and Bride Honoured

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride on Saturday evening, more than 60 friends met to welcome home Bruce Rawlings and his bride, Grace McArthur of Nova Scotia. The couple were discharged from service in the R.C.A.F. before their recent marriage at the bride's home.

Receiving with the bride were Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Roy Hollinshead, Miss Grace White and Miss Lois McBride.

After the welcoming remarks made by Laura E. Rolling, Miss Mary McBride attended the bride in the opening of many lovely gifts showered upon the couple, showing the esteem and popularity of a native son and his choice of a life companion. The gifts will prove adequate and beautiful in their home. We wish them long life and success.

Bruce has returned after more than three years in the air force to his occupation as operator on one of the Danforth bus lines and they are living in Toronto.

Noted among the gathering were families of the Rawlings and Rutherford connections, Russell Rawlings, a brother also discharged from the air force and Dave Glass, from the army completed a happy group.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods, the groom's aunt from Toronto, were here for the occasion.

Impressive services were held at Maple United Church on Sunday, serving the 75th anniversary with a former minister, Rev. S. Wesley Dean, Toronto and Rev. R. R. McMath, Newmarket as guest preachers.

Suitable to Remembrance Day was the unveiling of a beautiful stained glass window dedicated in memory of John A. and Elizabeth Kinnee and John H. G. and Agnes Kinnee and erected by their children and grandchildren, the subject of which is "The Good Shepherd" from a painting by Bernard Plockhurst.

Making the presentation was Morley J. Kinnee, which was received on behalf of the trustees by Dr. F. W. Routley. Unveiling the window was Mrs. C. B. Hall, formerly Mabel Kinnee, of King.

It was recalled that Agnes Kinnee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Kinnee represents the fifth generation of the family serving the church. 75 years ago the names of Kinnee and Dickout were among those recorded on the building committee. The union of these families has brought service and loyalty to Maple church and the memorial dedicated the devout and ardent service of future members of the families.

The Late William O'Brien

Suddenly on Sunday a seizure claimed the life of William O'Brien in his 78th year at his home. After coming to the house in the morning he complained of not feeling well and with no more warning dropped. Deceased was a farmer, a Presbyterian and a life long liberal in politics. He is survived by his wife, the former Esther Greenbury, and two sons, Hugh and Fred. A daughter Mary died a few years ago.

Mr. O'Brien was the son of the late William O'Brien, born in King Township and was highly respected by a wide circle of friends. Always good company he made many friends and his passing is a shock.

The funeral was held on Tuesday from his home, Rev. C. H. Bowman conducting with interment in King cemetery.

To the wife, sons and grandchildren, we express sympathy.

When Toronto groups ask for a special supper in the country it can mean only one thing, it is about time rural groups began staging old fashioned suppers. When sugar and lard and apples come into their own again the countryside will abound in organized feasts. When the teachers and officers of St. James Bond United Sunday School asked Temperanceville to cater them an evening dinner recently the local church ladies entered into the work with zeal. About 40 of the Toronto group enjoyed the hot meal and worship period followed by recreation.

Schomberg Women's Institute based their monthly program on historical research, finding interesting material in the presentation of a paper by Mrs. Edward Marchant, entitled My Grandmother, My Mother and I. The story had been composed by the speaker's mother, Mrs. Perry, several years ago, making the grandmother mentioned, Mrs. Marchant's great grandmother. Suffice to say historical setting went as far back as the time when one of England's first railway trains were operated. An added feature bearing historical significance was the antique display shown by Mrs. Ernest Pearson. There was a record written in 1892 by 11 year old Fanny Cunningham in Prince Edward Island concerning her 10 brothers and sisters, their birthdays, etc. She later became the mother of Mrs. James Pearson, 95, Schomberg's oldest resident and a charter member of the Schomberg Institute.

Mrs. Moynan, president of Toronto Presbyterial W.M.S., will address Eversley W.M.S. on November 23 at the home of Mrs. Fred Curtis. She will be accompanied by Mrs. L. W. Zuefelt, district president and Strange W.M.S. will be guests of Eversley society. It is the annual thankoffering meeting. Mrs. Moynan will be introduced by Miss Alice Ferguson in whose home as a daughter of Dr. Goforth, she spent many an hour as a girl. It will be a home gathering for the guest.

Mrs. F. Curtis entertained Eversley Presbyterian W.A. last week at the regular meeting when Bazaar preparations were in progress.

Nominations for King Twp. Council will be held at King on November 23rd.

VICTORIA SQUARE

The regular meeting of the W.A. will be held Wednesday, November 21 in the Sunday School room at 8 p.m. The group leaders urgently request that all members be present if possible to help make final arrangements for the Bazaar.

The Bazaar under the auspices of the W.A. will be held Wednesday, November 28 in the basement of the church commencing at 3 p.m. and continuing into the evening. In addition to the following booths, food, miscellaneous, novelty and fish pond, sewing and snack bar, there will be a slightly used article counter. Come and enjoy a sociable afternoon with friends and do your Xmas shopping pleasantly and profitably.

The Y.P.U. was resumed last Sunday evening with Miss Marion Boynton's group in charge. Miss Viola Avison was in the chair. Scripture was read by Barry Collard, solo by Miss Peggy McKay, instrumental by Miss Coral Perkins, Harold Forster gave a reading and Miss Marion Boynton took the topic.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Mortson spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Avison.

The Y.P.U. next Sunday evening will be in charge of Miss June Collard's group. Topic will be taken by Mr. Ewart Stiver, Unionville.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mortson on the birth of another son, Garry Bruce, a little playmate for John Wayne.

Miss Jean Brumwell had tea Sunday evening with Miss Marjorie Sanderson.

A number from here attended the parade at Richmond Hill on Sunday in commemoration of Remembrance Day.

Everyone was sorry to hear of little Marion Nichols' accident when she severed a cord in her hand on a piece of glass, and wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Nichols, Miss Vera Nichols and Mr. Wilfred Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wellman of Headford spent last week-end visiting friends at Petrolia.

Misses Grace Boynton and Ann Linfield of Toronto spent Saturday at Grace's home here and had tea with Mrs. Haig at Gormley.

Mrs. Douglas Gee and Shirley and Mrs. Wes. Wellman and Mrs. Wes. Helmkey of Creemore visited with Mr. and Miss Hopper Monday.

Mrs. Harry Spry of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spry of Maple Creek, Ont. were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. McRoberts Sunday.

Mrs. E. Avison, Mrs. McEachern, Mrs. Wellman and Murray, and Miss Marion Boynton motored to Toronto Thursday of last week and had tea with Miss Ruby Avison.

The November Thank-offering meeting of the Mission Band will be held Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Joan Paul.

The Junior Farmers are holding a dance Friday, November 16th in the community hall. Refreshments will be sold by the J.W.I.

Mrs. H. Forster spent Thursday of last week visiting with Mrs. Haig of Gormley.

About 16 ladies motored to Brown's Corners Wednesday of last week to attend the W.M.S. Thank-offering meeting there. An address and moving pictures were given by Mrs. Young on the work among the Indians at God's Lake, Man. Mr. Young was a missionary there and is now serving with the forces overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Collard entertained about 32 of their friends at progressive euchre Wednesday evening

NORTHMOUNT

The Lions Club put on two dances recently in the gymnasium of Earl Haig Collegiate. These dances were on Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 9 and 10. The dance on Friday was open for everyone and an orchestra played. The dance on Saturday was for the benefit of the teen-agers of the district and the music that they danced to was from records which were supplied by The Robert Simpson Co.

We wish to extend our sympathy to the family of Mr. Grisdale of Newtonbrook who passed away Saturday, November 10th.

A good number of members were present at the W.M.S. meeting held at the Parsonage on Tuesday, Nov. 13th. The guest speaker was Miss Chase, a missionary from Alberta who gave a very interesting address. Mrs. C. O. Bales took the study book and Mrs. New was the leader. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Davidge, and a social half hour was enjoyed.

ending of last week, which was also a shower for the fish pond at the bazaar. Ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. A. Buchanan. Gents' first was won by Phil Rummy. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson and Mr. Herman Mortson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beatty and daughters Lorraine and Verna Belle of Capreol spent a number of days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Beatty.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leese of Maple were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Beatty.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sanderson's for tea Thursday of last week included Mrs. Martha Houck, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houck and Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. Benson Myers of Cashel and Mr. and Mrs. John Nigh of Headford.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Perkins with Joyce, Lois and John David and Miss Vera Boynton, all of Richmond Hill, dined with Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson and Mabel Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson and Donnie of Weston were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Snider.

Banks are continually making small loans to meet these emergencies which can upset the best-planned budgets.

Three out of every five bank loans are for less than $500. Many of these are used to take care of such expenses as doctor or hospital bills, temporary embarrassment at tax-time, a sudden journey, the winter's coal bill.

Again, educational needs of the family often are financed by small bank loans.

These small loans enable individuals to consolidate debts, and to pay back from income.

Small loans furnish just one more example of the service available to you at your bank.
