Thornhill District News

Thornhill Horticultural Society held an executive meeting at the home of Mr. P. Bone on Wednesday evening, November 7th. It was decided that a banquet would be held on November 22nd (Thursday), at Lawrence Memorial Hall. The guest speaker is to be Rev. Dr. W. Harold Young. Entertainment will be under the direction of Mr. Bert Betts.

Owing to the increased membership of the Society, and the limited accommodation, only those having tickets will be admitted. Members are being canvassed.

Thornhill United Church Young People will be entertaining Lansing Young People on Monday evening, November 18th at 8 o'clock. A Christian Education worker of Parkdale United Church will be guest speaker. This is to be an open session, and a good attendance is requested. The speaker is most interesting. Lansing Young People have a splendid group, and all the young people of the Village are asked to attend. At the close of the meeting, there will be a social time, recreation and a sing song.

Miss Marjorie Jamieson, Miss Ruth Hicks, Mrs. Jean Morton and Miss Betty Bone have been attending the annual Young People's winter school for the Toronto Presbytery. This course takes about six or seven weeks, and Miss Jamieson has been taking part in some of the leadership.

Some time around the end of January, there will be a variety night in Thornhill United Church including a play, now in rehearsal, under the direction of Miss Betty Bone. The play, entitled "The Perfect Gentleman", is given by the permission of Samuel French & Sons, and the program will also include assisting artists. At present a committee is working on the details.

Miss Betty Bone has been transferred to Jesse Ketchum school. This is a new nursery school, just opened, and is a demonstration centre. Whether these nursery schools will remain as part of our post-war plans is still undecided, and there is no question as to their value and necessity, particularly in these days of crowded living quarters, increased traffic and other hazards. Betty is extremely interested in her work.

The second in the series of local leader training schools was held in Thornhill United Church Sunday School room on Thursday of last week. Miss Gray, former instructor, retired from service in the Department of Agriculture the previous Saturday, and her place was ably filled by Miss Abell, a former CWAC. This project is given free by the Department and each Institute in the District is required to send two "leaders" to absorb the instruction given and return with it to their local Branch. Finally, a summary day is put on, when members are asked to prepare certain dishes, in this case "Salads", and present them for show in order to ascertain what has been learned. This day is to be put on at Agincourt this year.

Presbyterian W.A. and W.M.S. held their regular monthly meeting at the home of the Misses Welsh on Thursday afternoon, November 8th. This was the Thank-Offering meeting for the W.A., and results were most gratifying.

A special ceremony for Remembrance Day was held in Trinity Anglican Church on Sunday last, when the names of those who had fallen in the two world wars were read out. There was also special music, appropriate for the day.

Mr. L. K. Fletcher of Green Lane, has been ill for some time as the result of an injury. He is improving slowly, but will be laid up for another two or three weeks. Mr. Fletcher is staying in the city for the present.

Earl Haig Home and School Club held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, November 13th. Mr. N. G. S. Ingram of York Mills, manager of the Toronto branch of Ginn & Co., and also a member of the Collegiate Board, was guest speaker. He spoke on the procedure adopted when appointing a school board, and outlined plans for enlarging the present building, which is rather overcrowded just now.

Mr. Preston spoke on health education; the introduction of the patch test for TB; a new test in hearing which is to be given this Thursday; the complete physical examination which is given to grades ten and twelve; and the new course in health education which was inaugurated this year.

Guest soloist was Mrs. Dobson, and her accompanist was Mrs. Johnson. Mr. Preston then introduced three of the teachers, Miss Burgess, Miss Brodie and Miss Schissler, who spoke on the rapid strides made in Arts and Languages, how these studies have been brought up to date by changes in setting and methods of teaching. Art has become associated with almost every phase of life, and languages have proven invaluable in certain types of work and particularly during these war years.

Rev. Albert Johnson of the Ontario Temperance Federation was a very interesting and inspiring guest speaker at Thornhill and Carrville United Churches on Sunday.

The Battery to which Lieutenant Kenneth Duncan is attached is expected to be transferred to England this week. Lt. Duncan has just completed a very interesting leave in Scotland.

Jack Watkins, formerly with the Navy, has started back with Trans-Canada Airlines.

The public school teachers of Vaughan, Township are holding a banquet in the Presbyterian Church, Woodbridge, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27th. The chairmen of the various school boards and their wives are cordially invited to be present.

About one-fifth of the pupils of the school have been absent in the last week due to an epidemic of 'flu. Her many friends will be glad to know that Miss Minerva Tweedie has returned from the hospital, and is getting along very well.

A series of cartoons by Miss Ruth Collins, local artist, is appearing in Chatelaine magazine.

Lady Windle and her niece, Miss Marjorie Nazer, have moved to Toronto. The home has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. M. Baldwin of Toronto, who are now occupying it.

A familiar sight on the streets of Thornhill for many years, the Chinaman who owned the laundry at Willowdale has sold his business and is returning to China.

Saturday, November 17 is a day to remember, for on that day the Fortmeters are holding their White Elephant sale and bazaar in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian Church from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Tea and cookies will be served; one table will be devoted to home baking, and there will be a grand assortment of Christmas gifts and novelties, so plan to attend this sale and do your Christmas shopping early and in comfort, without having to leave your own community.

A memorial service was held in Thornhill Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon last, guest speaker being Rev. A. McLean of Willowdale. Miss Russell, formerly of Hamilton and now of Toronto, was the guest soloist.

Correction

In last week's write up on Thornhill hockey team we regret that we inadvertently listed Oscar Smith and Frank Hooper as "the late". Mr. Smith is now living in Willowdale and Mr. Hooper in Toronto. Mr. Livingston was president of the Metropolitan Hockey League and Mr. Wilson president of the Metropolitan Railway.—D.M.F.

Two pupils of Miss Marguerite Boyle, Misses Gwen Newton and Hazel Campbell, were presented by the army last week with district depot pins. These were awarded in appreciation of faithful service rendered with the Victory Entertainers at army camps and military hospitals throughout Ontario. A year ago Gwen received her pin for having completed fifty shows with the troupe.

Bart Edwards, chairman of the 1st Thornhill Scout Troop committee wishes to call a meeting of all parents and adults interested in Scout movements and activities, on Monday evening, November 19th at 8 o'clock in Victoria Hall. This is for the purpose of nominating a new group committee and discuss other important matters.

EVENING DRESSES LEGAL NOW

Big news for women looking forward to Christmas and New Year's parties is found in a recent Prices Board statement that restrictions on the manufacture of evening dresses and evening skirts have been removed. Back on the market, too, will be bridesmaids' gowns and dinner dresses.

Young People Back Woodbridge Project

At a general meeting held in the Public Library, Woodbridge, Thursday evening, November 8, a young people's branch of the Woodbridge District Memorial Committee was organized. Its purpose will be to sponsor events in aid of the Memorial fund and to support the Memorial committee in its objective to establish a Recreational Centre for the young people of Woodbridge district. All young people who are interested in seeing this project become a reality, and we all should be, are invited to attend its next meeting, Tuesday, Nov. 13th, at the Public Library, at which time plans will be made for future activities. Watch the papers for further announcements. Its first dance is being held in the Orange Hall, Woodbridge, on Friday evening, Nov. 16th in the form of an "Olde Tyme Hoe-down", so if you can't make the meeting on Tuesday evening, come and enjoy yourselves at this dance.
