The November meeting of the W.M.S. was held on the 14th at the home of Mrs. Stanley Boynton. 18 ladies were present. Mrs. McCague was in charge of the meeting, who with Miss Mabel Sanders reviewed the first chapters of the study books, "Angola Sow" and "Currie of Chissamka". Mrs. S. mencing at 3 p.m. and will continue into the evening. The groups will be pleased to serve you at the different booths, namely, novelty and fish pond, miscellaneous, food, sewing, slightly used article, and snack bar. Everybody is invited to come and bring your friends.

The men of Victoria Square and surrounding districts are enjoying a season of shooting this fall. Mr. Clare Sanderson has returned from a trip to Clear Lake, east of Bracebridge. He was with a party of 12 and they came home with seven deer. Also Mr. Heber McCague and Mr. Dalton Rumney, accompanied by Mr. Chas. Hooper and Mr. Russell Boyington of Buttonville joined with eight from the Laskay Hunt Club, journeyed to South Magnetawan and returned with eight of the big game, not bad.

In the early hours of Monday morning of this week, Messrs. Frank and Reid Brumwell, Fraser Gee, Floyd Perkins and Harry Forester travelled to the tall timbers to see what Lady Luck has in store for them.

Mr. Ross MacKay of Toronto spent last week-end visiting with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. MacKay.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. Valliere of North Markham will be sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Starling of Newtonbrook, who was a sister of Mr. Valliere. It is the first break in a family of 12.

Ladies, be ready for a quilting in the near future as the War Work Unit has a number of quilts to be done. The day will be published at an early date.

About 20 attended Y.P.U. services last Sunday evening when Mr. Ewart Stiver of Unionville gave a very interesting and beneficial talk on "What a Christian Ought to Know". Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson of Buttonville rendered two lovely vocal solos to the audience. Miss Viola Avison read the scripture. It was regretted that a larger attendance was not present at this inspiring service.

Mr. O. L. Heise attended a meeting of Board of Trustees at Ontario Bible School, Fort Erie North, Ont., on Monday.

NORTHMOUNT

The Earl Haig students will be able to attend the final rugby game of the season between the uneliminated teams, as they will be given a half day holiday on Friday, Nov. 23 partly for that purpose.

Also on Friday night the sixteenth annual commencement exercises will be held at Earl Haig Collegiate. Prizes, medals and diplomas will be presented to those students who have earned them.

A surprise shower was held for Bernice Glass at the home of her mother in Willowdale on Monday Nov. 19th. Many of her friends were present and she received many gifts. A lunch was served. Mrs. Trivett, a friend of the bride-elect, arranged the party. Miss Glass will marry Mr. David Scott on Dec. 1st.

Ronny Clink, Ralph Brown, Murdie Campbell and John Campbell, young men from Willowdale and Lansing went on a short hunting trip on Saturday with the expectation of shooting deer. Unfortunately the total result of the hunt was one jack rabbit. We hope that the luck of these young men has improved by the next deer season.

A Home and School Association has been formed at Earl Haig Collegiate. The second meeting was held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 13th. Many parents were there and they enjoyed an interesting talk by Mr. Ingrahm, a member of the school board. Plans were discussed on the much needed enlargement of Earl Haig Collegiate. The membership is over 80, which is very encouraging for a beginning. Mrs. Pobson was the soloist. Her selections were much appreciated.
