MARRIAGE
ELLIS-ROBINSON—At Newmarket on Friday, November 16th, Margaret Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Robinson, Newmarket, became the bride of Sgt. Brydon Ellis, R.C.A.F., son of Jas. C. Ellis and the late Mrs. Ellis, Rev. Henry Cotton officiating.

Doctor: "Your husband must have some rest. Here is a sleeping powder."
Wife: "When do I give it to him?"
Doctor: "You don't give it to him. You take it yourself."

Social and Personal

Mrs. R. Hall of Whitby is visiting this week with her son Mr. Morley Hall.

Mrs. Wm. Elliott entertained at a shower given for Mrs. H. Reesor on Saturday evening.

Miss Bernice Wilkinson of Whitby visited with Mr. and Mrs. Al White over the week-end.

Mrs. J. W. Bryers and little daughter Judy are spending this week in Toronto with her sister Mrs. Hugh Miller.

We welcome home from overseas this week Capt. D. A. McGillivray, Spr. I. R. Moore, Lieut. (W/S.) Helen W. Hickson and Pte. "Ted" Mansbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Chamney, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. H. Charles were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith in Ottawa the past week-end.

Remember the "Toy Fair" to be held in St. Mary's Anglican Parish Hall on Saturday afternoon, December 8th under the auspices of St. Mary's Evening Guild.

L.A.C. and Mrs. Harold Reesor arrived home from Calgary last week. Mrs. H. Reesor is staying with Mrs. E. Reesor, Markham Rd. while Harold is stationed at Centralia, Ont.

Trustees L. J. Clement and D. Kerr attended the convention of the Association of Public School Trustees and Ratepayers at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto the past week-end.

District Deputy Governor Lion Rev. B. Newman of Markham was the guest speaker at the Lions annual meeting on Thursday last. He spoke to the club on Lionism and the Lions International and gave a very interesting talk on what Lions are doing in other countries.

About forty friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Miss Emily Colbran last Saturday evening and presented her with a purse and money on her departure from Jefferson district. The party was an entire surprise to Miss Colbran but she replied in a very fitting manner. A delightful luncheon was served.

Mr. Paul Angle is returning to his home Friday after spending a three weeks tour of Western Canada and visiting a National Rose Show at Milwaukee. Mr. Angle travelled to Vancouver and other centres in the West on behalf of the Allied Florists and Grocers of Canada of which he is president.

The new organist and choir leader of St. Mary's Church was introduced to the congregation at the services on Sunday last. Miss Lightbody lost no time in getting down to her duties, and in addition to the regular services, met with some 20 children during the afternoon. This group will be formed into a junior choir and it is expected that they will assist at the special Christmas services now being planned. Other children anxious to sing or learn to sing are invited to the Sunday School where they may meet Miss Lightbody. It was announced that a reception for Miss Lightbody will be held by the choir at the close of next Sunday evening service.

The annual Bazaar of the Presbyterian Women's Association will be held on Saturday, December 1st beginning at 3 o'clock in the Sunday School room of the church. Mrs. Stuart Parker of Toronto will open the bazaar. There will be home baking for sale, also aprons, hand knitted baby garments and other articles too numerous to mention. A good variety of house plants will also be for sale. The young people of the church will have homemade candy sale and a fish pond. Afternoon Tea will be served, so come and enjoy a sociable afternoon with friends and at the same time do your Christmas shopping pleasantly and profitably.

ENGAGEMENT
The engagement is announced of Orpha Annie Archibald, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Archibald and the late Ralph Archibald of Elgin Mills to Charles Robert Swan, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Swan, Thornhill, the marriage to take place early in December.

CARL OF THANKS
Miss Elizabeth Glover wishes to acknowledge the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended her during the recent illness and death of her brother.

REED-LANGSTAFF
A marriage of interest to this district took place in St. Mary's Church, Dorchester, England, September 15th, when Elizabeth, only daughter of the late Dr. Garry Langstaff and Mrs. Langstaff, "Thornhill Springs", became the wife of Col. Nigel Reed.
Mrs. Reed has visited and kept in touch with Thornhill friends but has not lived here since 1921, when, after the death of her mother she was sent to school in England. During the war years she was engaged in special work for the war office.

Richmond Hill Youth Council Constitution

1. To create and foster a spirit of generous consideration among the youth of the community.
2. To promote the theory and practice of the principals of good citizenship.
3. To take an active interest in the civic, social and moral welfare of the community.
4. To unite the members in the bonds of friendship, good fellowship and mutual understanding.
5. To provide a forum for the full and free discussion of all matters of public interest.
6. To provide suitable entertainment for the youth of the community.

Preparations are now under way for the Youth Council Dance which will be held in the High School Gym on Friday, November 30th featuring Wm. Smith and his orchestra.

At the last meeting an educational picture was shown and proved very popular with the young people. At this week's meeting a guest speaker will be present and an enjoyable evening is in store for everyone.

December 4th a concert party will entertain the council and its members.

RED CROSS NOTES

Will all those who have Red Cross wool kindly see that their finished garments are returned to the Red Cross room by December 12th.
