Church Leaders To Visit St. Mary's

The congregation of St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, is fortunate in having as guest preachers for the 73rd anniversary services on Sunday next, two of Canada's outstanding church leaders. Bishop Fleming is one of the leaders in missionary work. Known as "The Flying Bishop" of the Arctic, Bishop Fleming was the first to make use of the aeroplane in traveling about his diocese. The Diocese of the Arctic covers a territorial area of two and a quarter million square miles, a land area of 1,204,697 square miles, or one-third of the Dominion of Canada. Dr. Fleming is a forcible speaker with many romantic stories to tell of the land of "The Midnight Sun". He will preach at the 11 a.m. service. Archbishop Owen, the beloved Primate of Canada is fond of Richmond Hill. His work of Primate takes him to many parts of the Dominion, and in addition he has to administer the great Diocese of Toronto. Dr. Owen is president of the Canadian Council of Churches. He will preach at the 7.30 p.m. service.
