

THORNHILL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION
EUCHRE AND DANCE
 — In —
Lawrence Memorial Hall
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 5th
KEN ROSE AND HIS ORCHESTRA
FOWL AS EUCHRE PRIZES
ADMISSION 50 Cents

PAISLEY SHAWL
SOME WOOL SOME ANTIQUES
 Full line of gifts including China, Linens, Toys and all handicraft products.
CHRISTMAS CARDS BY COUTTS
LaGrove Gifts and Handicrafts
 Yonge St., Thornhill Telephone 102

RADIO, REFRIGERATOR, WASHING MACHINE and ELECTRICAL APPLIANCE SERVICE
GUARANTEED PARTS AND WORKMANSHIP
Pick Up and Delivery Service
 Phone Mr. Margeson Thornhill 122

Phone 177 Thornhill After Hours 89J
GEO. A. KELSON CO.
 THORNHILL
 Specialists in
PLUMBING — HEATING — EAVESTROUGHING
HOT AIR FURNACES
ROOFING AND INSUL BRICK
PUMPS — SOFTENERS — SEPTIC TANKS — SIDING
INSULATION — TILE
WE REBUILD ANY PUMPS
IRON FIREMAN STOKERS Installed and Serviced

Radio and Refrigeration Service
 MEMBER PHILCO SERVICE
 Guaranteed Radio and Guaranteed Refrigeration Service
 Appliance Service Domestic and Commercial
LESLIE C. LINDSAY
 Steele's and Yonge St. Phone Thornhill 135r21
Thornhill Hardware
 Yonge Street Phone Thornhill 33

F.L. LOWRIE, R.O.
EYESIGHT SPECIALIST WILL BE AT
AUSTIN'S DRUG STORE
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 12th
 and the Second and Fourth Wednesday of each month
FROM 9.30 A.M. TO 12.00 NOON
Eyes Examined, Glasses Fitted
 OPTICAL REPAIRS BROKEN LENSES REPLACED
 Prescriptions for Glasses Filled
 For Appointment Phone Richmond Hill 33

DAVIES' DRY GOODS
A Word of Advice
 While manufacturers and wholesalers are reverting to peace time conditions there is still a scarcity of many commodities and some practically unobtainable.
 We have a fair assortment of articles suitable for Christmas and New Year presents.
 We are now laying aside purchases until needed, and suggest you see our windows and make your selections early.
 You have an opportunity to win one of the six valuable prizes we give annually with every 50c. purchase.
 Telephone 119

Thornhill District News

Thornhill may justly be proud of its younger generation. Last week's edition carried an account of a pupil in Thornhill Public School having won the County Oratory contest, and on Friday night last at the 16th annual Commencement Exercises of Earl Haig Collegiate Institute, several of our boys and girls brought further honour to the Village.

Veronica Erasee, a former pupil in Mr. Dyer's room and now in grade 10 at Earl Haig, won the Gold Medal donated by Branch 68, Canadian Legion, for the best essay in grade nine on "What Canada Means to Me and What I Owe to My Country."

Bruce Stephenson was chosen class representative to receive the silver cup presented to his form as champions in sports.

Peter Wade won the Gold Medal for general proficiency in Grade 11. Mary Kertland was a special proficiency prize winner for languages in grade 12, and she also received her graduation diploma (middle school).

Barbara Howard received her honour graduation diploma (upper school).

The choir of Thornhill United Church is busy preparing special Christmas music. A beautiful candle light service is being arranged for the evening of Christmas Sunday.

Sgt. David Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Kennedy of Centre St., arrived home with the Royal Regiment last Wednesday evening. David had been overseas for about three years.

Pte. Arthur Morton, husband of the former Jean Hicks and son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Morton, arrived home with the Royal Regiment last week. He is on furlough until the 3rd of January, and he and Jean are holidaying in Kitchener. Arthur was away for about a year and a half.

Graceful boughs of evergreen and tall branches of late autumn leaves artistically arranged round the walls of Lawrence Memorial Hall, made a perfect setting for the annual banquet of Thornhill Horticultural Society last Thursday evening, November 22nd. J. Teeson and Mr. E. Koehler were responsible for these decorations.

Two hundred guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner on tables made beautiful with potted plants and tall, flickering candles. Seated at the guest table were Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Young, Rev. S. A. R. and Mrs. Wood, Rev. J. S. and Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. G. Lake, Mr. E. Koehler, Col. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Bone, Miss Simpson, Mr. P. Bone and Mr. and Mrs. W. Wells.

During the dinner hour and later at a sing-song, Mr. Bert Betts entertained most acceptably at the piano.

After a few remarks by the president, Miss Simpson read the list of winners, and these were presented with prizes by the guests as follows:

Mrs. J. W. Wells—Percy Bone Rose Bowl Trophy, donated and presented by Harry (Red) Foster, who incidentally was accompanied by Mrs. Foster, for best table centre.

Mrs. E. G. McKean—Special prize donated by Mrs. E. Jackson, for vase of flowers arranged for colour harmony.

Mr. P. Bone—Prize donated by Mr. Geo. Lake for six quart basket of potatoes.

Miss W. Simpson—Prize donated by Mr. N. Smellie, for best six quart basket of tomatoes.

Mrs. E. G. McKean—Special prize donated by Mr. E. Koehler, for best tuberous begonia in pot.

Mrs. W. Banks—Prize donated by Mr. Marsbergen for collection of begonia blooms in bowl.

Arthur Bone—Prize donated by Mr. Walter Wells for collection of vegetables.

Mrs. W. Banks—Prize donated by Mrs. B. Heslop for best corsage.

Mrs. J. Hamilton—Won the T. Eaton Trophy (presented by Col. Reeves) for the highest total points in all flower classes during the year.

Mr. E. Koehler—Won the special prize donated by Miss Simpson for a basket of zinnias.

Mr. P. Bone—Won the blue ribbon trophy for best basket of gladioli.

There were 40 cash awards given the members for their exhibits of flowers, fruit and vegetables, at the close of the banquet.

After the special prizes had been awarded, the guest speaker, Dr. Young, gave an address on "Taking Time to Live". He felt we had lost sight of the simple things of life in the increased tempo of a modern existence. Dr. Young is a very interesting speaker, and has a way of capturing and holding the attention of his audience. During the evening, he was presented with a special prize because he had the best garden in Algonquin Park this summer. At the conclusion of his talk he was thanked by Mr. C. Jaeger who then presented Mrs. Young with a bouquet of flowers.

Mr. Willard Simpson thanked the ladies for the delicious meal they had provided, which was under the patronship of Mrs. B. Heslop, Mrs. P. Bone, Mrs. Johns and Mrs. Styan. Mrs. Heslop replied, and a delightful evening was brought to a close. Thornhill Horticultural Society was formed over 30 years ago, and for its post-war plan has chosen "Home Beautification".

Mr. P. Bone is president of the Thornhill Horticultural Society and is also Director of Toronto Horticultural Society. He is also an Associate Director of the Canadian National Exhibition, which duty enabled him recently to attend a luncheon with the president and other directors of the Exhibition. This luncheon was given in honour of one of the Rajahs of India who is Trade Commissioner to Canada, and was held at the National Club.

The Year-Up Club are holding a Euchre and Dance on December 5th at Lawrence Memorial Hall. Ken Rose and his Orchestra will supply music, and the euchre will commence at about 8.30 p.m. Admission fee is 50c, and everyone is most welcome.

Thornhill Women's Institute will hold its regular monthly meeting at Lawrence Memorial Hall on Friday, December 7th. As the White Elephant Sale and Bazaar is scheduled for Saturday, December 8th, most of the time will be spent in preparation for it. Elsewhere on this page a general list of articles to be sold is given, so that some idea of the wide selection of goods offered may be had. If you have been satisfied with our sales in the past, you are going to be more than satisfied this year, because the scarcity of gifts is a recognized fact. You cannot afford to miss this sale, so plan to be on hand.

Mr. J. W. Blackburn is opening a store for local supply in what was formerly known as the "Grill", adjacent to Thornhill Garage. As soon as possible, he will carry a line of radios, appliances, and furniture, but in the meantime, Mr. Blackburn offers his services to give a complete service guarantee to the community. The annual meeting of District No. 5 of the Ontario Horticultural Association was held in Lawrence Memorial Hall, Thornhill, on November 14th. Mr. P. Bone, president of the Thornhill Society, welcomed the guests, and Mr. Godson was in the chair.

Miss Dove of North Toronto Horticultural Society, gave a most interesting talk on how to properly conduct a meeting, and Mr. Little of Richmond Hill gave a fascinating address on the growing of Iris.

Mr. John Hall, President of the Ontario Horticultural Society, spoke to the visitors. Mr. John F. Clarke, lecturer of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, gave an interesting lecture and displayed the products of things made with wood and cones.

Mr. E. Koehler of Thornhill gave a demonstration and arrangement of winter bouquets (colored weeds).

The election of officers conducted by Mr. John F. Clarke, resulted in Mr. R. D. Little of Richmond Hill being elected as the new president of District No. 5, his office to take effect after the Ontario Horticultural Convention which is held in February.

Mr. L. Godson of Toronto has held the position of president for 21 years.

The W.A. and W.M. Auxiliary of Thornhill United Church will hold their joint meeting at the home of Miss Lee and Miss Baxter, Old Yonge St. on Thursday, December 6th at 3 p.m. This is an important meeting as there will be special business, annual reports, and a shower of dishes, canned goods or fruit for the Victor Home for Girls, as well as the election of officers for 1946. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone interested.

A meeting of all adults vitally interested in the First Thornhill Troop, Boy Scouts, has been called for Monday evening, December 2, at Thornhill Public School. A slate has been drawn up and each member of the Group Committee has a list of prospects to approach for the position of Scout Master. The results will be brought to the general meeting on Monday night. Also, a Group Committee for the coming year will be nominated.

Such well known men as Mr. Sparrow, Mr. Clarke Locke, Mr. Horwood and Mr. Edmunds will be present, and a good attendance is requested.

The present Group Committee have laid the ground work for the Scouts, so that the hard work has been accomplished and all that is necessary now is someone to carry on. Plan to attend this special meeting. The presence of every adult in the village is urgently requested.

NEWTONBROOK

LATE MRS. WM. STARLING

The funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Starling took place on Monday, November 19th from Myers Funeral Home and was largely attended by relatives, neighbours and friends. Mrs. Starling, who before her marriage in 1903, was Martha Ann Valliere, second eldest daughter of Mr. James and the late Mrs. James Valliere of Richmond Hill, Ont. was born in the township of York and was well known having resided in Markham and York townships all her life. In her early life she became a member of Zion Methodist Church later being transferred to Newtonbrook United Church. She is survived by her husband, five sons and one daughter and eight grandchildren, also an aged father, four brothers and seven sisters.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. H. Halbert of Beeton, and Rev. P. I. Davidge of Newtonbrook. The pallbearers were four brothers and two brothers-in-law. The many and beautiful floral tributes bespoke the sympathy of a wide circle of relatives and friends for the bereaved family. Interment took place in Richmond Hill Cemetery.

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

CHRISTMAS TREES

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

CHRISTMAS TREES

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

CHRISTMAS TREES

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

CHRISTMAS TREES

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

CHRISTMAS TREES

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

CHRISTMAS TREES

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

CHRISTMAS TREES

We are now taking orders for Christmas Trees of all sizes.
J. H. ROBERTS
 Stop 24 Yonge Street
 Phone 195r4 Richmond Hill

H. Wilson Writes

(Continued from Page 1)
 surely a first consideration.

2. Ample supply of pure water.

3. The selection of a site where reasonable "quiet" would be assured and with plenty of room for future extensions.

4. Fireproof buildings as far as humanly possible, plus adequate fire protection within and without.

5. The size of the buildings, equipment and accommodation with recreation facilities for nurses and staff.

6. The availability of surgical and medical staffs, nurses, dieticians, engineers, kitchen and sundry help.

Since I am neither architect, engineer or cost expert, I refer simply to the recent fund of about 7 million dollars subscribed for the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, with the suggestion, not only that the initial project be in suitable proportion, costs estimated within safe limits (leaving as large a balance as possible for future maintenance), likewise the amount which is likely to be payable back each year through taxation. Obviously I do not expect the taxpayers of Vaughan, Markham and Richmond Hill to get off "Scot free!"

I presume appeals would be made to the Ontario government and possibly to the Federal government for assistance and together with public subscriptions it is to be hoped the necessary funds could be raised without borrowing.
 Yours very truly,
 Harold Wilson.

MAPLE

Mrs. Boswell spent the week-end visiting her niece in Niagara Falls.

Maple W.I. held a very successful euchre last Thursday evening. Prize winners, ladies, 1st, Mrs. Donald Allen; 2nd, Mrs. Earl Palmer; consolation, Mrs. Galloway; gents, 1st, Mr. Wm. Orr; 2nd, Geo. Lawrie. The six pound Christmas cake was won by Miss Florence Keulnor, an employee of De Havilland Aircraft Ltd. The second lucky draw, a three pound cake, was won by Mr. Alfred Laurette. The Women's Institute wish to express their sincere thanks to Mrs. Eldon Wade who made these beautiful cakes. The next euchre date will be announced later.

If you are at all interested in the welfare of our village come out next Monday and vote. Vote as you see fit, but vote!

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr. George Cooper. Rev. G. Johnson, rector, officiated. The bride's going away costume was a brown wool dress and robin's egg blue coat with brown accessories. The happy couple left by motor for Niagara Falls, N.Y. They will reside in Maple.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple, on November 24th was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Helen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, was married to Frederick Henry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white slipper satin with insertions of chantilly lace. Her elbow length veil was held by a sweetheart halo of white net and she carried a cascade of red roses and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Harry Cooper, sister of the groom, as matron of honour, wore pastel blue crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of carnations shading from shell pink to deep rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alex Strachan, sister of the bride and Miss Audrey Stanfield, wearing similar gowns of pastel pink crepe with feather headdress and shoulder length veils. Miss Lorraine Cooper, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid wearing pale orchid chiffon with matching head-dress of orchid feathers. The bride's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses a' swansonia. Mrs. Wm. McCullough sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church and during the singing of the register sang "Became" with Mrs. E. Wade at the organ. Ushers were Mr. Harry Cunningham and Mr.