

Short Courses For Junior Farmers

Five one week short courses in Agriculture will be held in York County during January and February, 1946. These will be held as follows:

- Jan. 7-11 inclusive—Belhaven
- Jan. 14-18 inclusive—Sharon
- Jan. 21-25 inclusive—Unionville
- Jan. 28 - Feb. 2 inclusive—Vellore
- Feb. 5-9 inclusive—Schomberg

These courses will cover most phases of Agriculture and while primarily for Junior Farmers, they will be open to all ages. Regular courses of one month discontinued at the outbreak of the war will perhaps be revived by next year but these classes should prove popular in the meantime.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Last Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoad, John St., returned from an overnight visit in Toronto, they were surprised and touched to find the house decorated and a large party of relatives and friends waiting to offer congratulations, and to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Joseph Alfred Hoad and Ellen Morris were married in St. Clement's Church, Toronto, on Dec. 11th, 1895. They moved to a farm in Thornhill 28 years ago and for the past six years have lived in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoad have nine sons and daughters, Mrs. Roy Jamieson, Humber Bay; George, Queenston; Charlie, Guelph; Alf., Ellesmere; Gordon, Renfrew; Irwin, Moscow, Ont.; Vera, recently discharged from the C.W.A.C.; Mrs. Frank Cockbain, Toronto, and Mrs. A. Weaver (whose husband is still overseas) at home. Eight in-laws and 19 grandchildren complete a family circle of 36 members. Of the children only Gordon was unable to be present. He has been in Ottawa Civic Hospital since last July as the result of painful injuries sustained when he was crushed by falling logs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoad were presented with a beautiful new radio and table by their family, and friends and neighbors brought flowers and gifts and good wishes to the happy couple. Their daughter Laura Weavers who had been planning the party since last autumn, supervised the serving of a delicious supper.

Youth Plan For Christmas Party

Skating carnivals, skiing and toboggan parties — that's what is in store for members of the Richmond Hill Youth Council.

Many new ideas and subjects were presented to the council last Tuesday evening when a large number of members were present at the business meeting.

It has been decided that, beginning the first of the New Year, the regular weekly meeting will be scheduled for a Friday night, the same time and place.

A Christmas party will feature next Tuesday's programme when the one and only Santa Claus will visit the Youth Council. Each member is asked to bring a small gift, the price not exceeding 25c. This is your admission fee. Don't forget it. Games and a sing song will be supervised by the Council. Dancing to records will conclude the evening's fun. Young married couples are cordially invited to attend this meeting.
