off Lindsay and are now waiting to play Gravenhurst. Whitty were extended to the limit to defeat Stouffville, winning the final game by 5-4. Stouffville will have in their lineup a few boys who are known in the Richmond Hill hockey circle. They are our own Douglas Moore who is keeping goal, Jack and George Ramsey of Victoria Square who are the leading scorers for the team, also Gord Minton, Lyle Petch, and Pete Jewett, all of Unionville, but all have played for the Hill until this last year.

Scarboro Rangers emerged group winners on Tuesday evening when they defeated Oshawa by the score of 4-1 at Unionville. This made it two straight victories for the Rangers over Oshawa, winning the first game in Oshawa by the score of 6-5. Scarboro are now waiting for other groups to complete their play-offs.

Choral Group To Carry On

In response to many requests the choral group featured at the recent Lions Show will carry on as a community organization and singers from Richmond Hill, Richvale, Maple, Thornhill, or any surrounding community are invited to join. A meeting will be held in the Richmond Hill High School next Monday evening, March 11th and all interested are invited to attend. Monday's meeting will be partly devoted to organization as well as practice.

Garbage Collection NOTICE

The Council last year inaugurated a garbage collection for the entire village with the aim of rendering a needed public service to householders and the hope of making Richmond Hill a cleaner, healthier and more desirable place in which to live.

All householders are urged to make regular use of this service, and to refrain from dumping garbage in back yards.

Householders are also asked to keep in mind the regulation which requires that garbage be placed in suitable covered containers which can be handled by one man.

The co-operation of all will be appreciated.

On Sunday evening church goes to the United Church were favoured with a choral service sponsored by the Silver Toned singers of Toronto. This is a group of girls from the age of 14 to 18 and come from all sections of the city. They are under the direction of Mr. Ernest Stolls, well known to several residents of the Village, having lived here a few years ago. Several numbers by the chorus with duets and solos were capably rendered by the girls.

Richmond Hill district this week extends a warm welcome to two war brides from Britain. Both made the crossing on the Aquatania and arrived in Richmond Hill Tuesday. They are Mrs. Bill Adams and Mrs. Len Hallowell. Mrs. Adams is in Canada ahead of her husband, Sgt. Bill Adams who was taken prisoner at Dieppe and spent some years in German Prison Camps. They were married in June 1945 after his release. Bill is expected home in two or three weeks. Len Hallowell arrived home in December after nearly four years overseas, and has been anxiously awaiting the arrival of his wife. Mrs. Hallowell is a native of Surrey, England, and they were married April, 1944. Both brides report a delightful crossing, and are high in their praise of the treatment they received, and of the Red Cross for kind care and attention. "Yes, we're thrilled with Canada," both said, "and we're looking forward to seeing more of it and meeting the people." The Liberal joins with the people of the district in saying "Welcome to Canada".

WEDDING

MORIARTY-EMERSON

Spring flowers adorned the altar and sanctuary of the Church of St. Mary Immaculate, Richmond Hill, for the wedding on Saturday morning, March 2nd, of Martha Alicia (Lee) Emerson to Stanton John Moriarty.

Rev. F. McGinn performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial high mass. Mrs. W. W. Oster presided at the organ, and a number of Dr. J. Ronan's Cathedral Boy Choristers sang during the Mass and at the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by Edwin J. Nye, the bride wore a floor length gown of ice blue satin with sweetheart neckline and slightly gathered bodice. A small cap of matching satin held her finger-tip veil. She carried a white prayer book on which rested a small corsage of rosebuds, freesia, forget-me-nots, and lily of the valley. Blue satin streamers hung from the prayer book showered with rosebuds, sweet peas, and baby's breath. Her only ornament was a gold cross, the gift of the groom.

Miss Veronica Oster was the bride's only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of pastel pink crepe made on similar lines to the bride's dress, matching cap, and shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of roses, sweet peas, violets and forget-me-nots.

Mr. Wallace Moriarty, brother of the groom, was best man, and Mr. Vincent McCullough and Mr. Arthur Sauve were ushers.

Mrs. Charles Grimwood, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Jas. Murphy, cousin of the groom, received the guests at the Fireside Tea Room. Mrs. Grimwood was in black crepe with sequin trim, dusty pink accessories, and corsage of roses, carnations, sweet peas and forget-me-nots. Mrs. Murphy wore brown crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of roses and freesia.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls the bride wore a striped wool dressmaker suit with matching hat, and brown accessories, and corsage of roses, sweet peas and freesia.

On their return the happy couple will reside in Richmond Hill.

1946 Membership For Red Cross

During the past week, through various channels of publicity we have been made aware of the drive for membership by the Canadian Red Cross Society. This is definitely not an appeal for funds, but rather an appeal to the people of Ontario to renew their membership for 1946. If Red Cross is to continue to be a benefit to the Canadian people in peace time, and to remain a strong and potent factor in the mitigation of suffering throughout the world, membership must be maintained at a high level.

The Richmond Hill Branch of the Canadian Red Cross will have completed its wartime task by the end of March this year, but it is hoped that the Branch charter will still be retained with a standing Red Cross committee in charge.

The 1946 membership fee of $1.00 will be received and an official receipt returned by any of the following officers of the Richmond Hill Branch: Mrs. J. E. Smith, secretary; Mrs. F. Dolan, treasurer; Mrs. P. C. Hill, president.

High School Notes

A very successful Literary meeting was held last Friday in the gym. Third form was in charge of a very well planned program. They presented a one-act Irish comedy entitled "Spreading the News" written by Lady Gregory. The play was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The cast included George Bailey, John Atkinson, Margaret Scott, Bob Hood, Ken Hirtz, Sally Hogg, Belford Panke, Violet Mihoreau, June Butt and Shirley Heeley and was under the capable direction of Miss Izzard. Hilda Thibert favoured the audience with two solos accompanied at the piano by Mr. Tapscott.

Recently eight new pictures were purchased by the Literary Society and during the program they were on display. Each room received one new picture.

During the program Gordon Cluising, president of the 1944-45 War Effort Society, presented the school with a new amplifying system which was dedicated to the boys of Richmond Hill High School who gave their lives in the recent conflict.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBERTSON—In loving memory of my dear mother, Florence May, who passed away February 21st, 1944. A wonderful mother, woman and aid. One who was better God never made. A wonderful worker, so loyal and true.

One in a million, that mother, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right, honest and liberal, ever upright,
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
A wonderful mother, that mother was you.
—Sadly missed and ever remembered by Bonnie, Charlie and family.
