Weddings

McLAUGHLIN-WATERS

In St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, on Saturday, May 4, decked with palms and spring flowers, Rev. W. F. Wrixon officiated at the wedding of Marjorie Odling Waters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Waters, formerly of Islington, Ontario, and Edward John McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin of Toronto. Mr. H. Ball presided at the organ and during the signing of the register accompanied Miss Gloria Bonar, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a white satin gown with finger tip embroidered veil caught to a halo headress and wore a pearl necklace. Her flowers were a cascade of red roses and gardenias. Her attendants, Gloria Huggill was maid of honour in blue with matching headress of flowers and tulle and carrying cascade of pink roses. Audrey Adlam, cousin of the bride, was gowned in pink with matching headress of flowers and tulle and carrying cascade of yellow roses. Mr. George Sawyer of Aylmer was best man and Mr. W. E. Waters and Mr. S. J. Waters, brothers of the bride, were ushers. The reception was held at the Pony Crest Lodge, the bride's mother receiving in mauve crepe dress, black and fuchsia hat with black accessories and corsage of sweet peas. The groom's mother wore a black dress with sequins and corsage of red roses. The couple left on a tour of the southern states the bride wearing a navy blue suit with pink hat and navy accessories and a mink scarf with corsage of pink sweet peas.

BARRACLOUGH-HURRY

Bertha Jean Hurry became the bride of Arthur James Barraclough Saturday, May 1st at a quiet ceremony in Richmond Hill United Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hurry and the late Mr. Augustus Hurry of West Royalty, P.E.I., and the groom is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Barraclough, Richmond Hill. The Reverend Claude B. Brethen officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, attended by her sister, Miss Mildred Hurry, of Toronto, wore a period gown of white silk marquisette over satin, fashioned with bouffant skirt, tiny puff sleeves and heart-shaped neckline. Her veil, caught to a Mary Queen of Scots bonnet was edged with old rosepoint lace and her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She carried a cascade of Calla lilies, Easter lily buds and white sweet peas. Her sister, as bridesmaid, wore a gown of palest pink fashioned on lines similar to that of the bride and carried a cascade of full pink roses with pansies.

The groomsmen was Mr. Paul Clement of Kirkland Lake. Following the reception at which guests were received by the groom's mother, the couple left for a short wedding trip and on their return will live in Bradford, Ont.

MASHINTER-BOOTH

On Wednesday evening, April 17 at 7:30 o'clock in Box Grove United Church the wedding of Elsie May Booth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Booth of Cedar Grove, Markham, Ont. to John Thomas Mashinter, eldest son of Mr. Samuel R. Mashinter and the late Mrs. Mashinter of Maple was solemnized by Rev. George H. Dix. The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a floor length gown of white satin and lace with fingertip veil and bridal bouquet of roses, sweet peas and carnation petals. Hazel Booth, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid in pink lace and net gown with pink veil and bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Edward Mashinter, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Harold Shorting, cousin of the bride, and Jack Topp, cousin of the groom. Mrs. Dix played the wedding music.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride when 90 guests were received by Mrs. Albert Booth in a rose flowered silk dress with corsage of rose and carnation petals assisted by the sister of the groom, Mrs. Baker, in a figured blue silk dress. For going away the bride chose a suit of colonial blue with matching top coat, blue sailor hat and black accessories with corsage of roses and carnation petals. After a short trip to North Bay the happy couple will reside in Maple.

MOORE-NOBLE

Decorated with pink and white snapdragons and palms, Maple United Church was the setting of the wedding of Dorothy Iris Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noble and Alan Andrew Moore, D.F.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Moore. Rev. C. E. Fockler officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore blush ivory satin with long pointed sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her veil of matching lace and net was gathered in Mary Stuart halo. The bridal bouquet was of deep red roses and bouvardia. Miss Betty Moore, her only attendant, was gowned in Queen's blue net over taffeta with matching shoulder length veil, caught by a half bonnet headress. She carried a nosegay of forget-me-nots, pink carnations and token roses. Mrs. Marion Demorest, L.T.C.M., aunt of the bride, played the wedding music. The groomsmen was Mr. Karl O'Connor and the ushers were Mr. Keith Jennings and Mr. Russell Noble.

At the reception held at Maple Villa, the bride's mother received in an ensemble of beige figured silk, tan accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother assisted in an ensemble of powder blue figured crepe, navy accessories and corsage of pink roses.

For their trip to the U.S. the bride chose a dressmaker suit of hunter's green with brown accessories.
