Mr. Beattie, President of the R. M. Kellogg Co. of Three Rivers, Mich., together with his family, visited Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Johnson on Monday, June 24th, having made the trip especially to see the new strawberry "Colossal". Mr. Beattie has two acres set out, which should produce about 200,000 plants. Strawberries were something of a disappointment this season, for the hot, dry weather shortened the season.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Bone and Arthur, and Mrs. B. Heslop, were guests of District Number 7 of the Ontario Horticultural Association at the Agricultural College at Guelph. Mr. P. Bone, as second vice-president of the Ontario Horticultural Association, brought greetings to District No. 7.

Mrs. Bone and Arthur left last week-end to spend the summer months at their cottage.

Visitors at the home of Miss Winnifred Simpson last week included Dr. Nelson Simpson of Manitoulin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpson and children. Mrs. Puckering and her sister, Mrs. Hathaway, aunts of Miss Simpson spent the week-end at her home.

Bayview Ladies' Guild divided into two groups last winter, the ladies living at or close to Steele's Avenue, meeting at the homes there, and those living farther north meeting at the homes in their district. The treasurer of the Steele's Ave. group gave a buffet luncheon at her home to close the season. This group contributed a very lovely layette to the bale being sent by Thornhill Presbyterian Church to a North mission, as well as collecting clothing for the National Clothing drive just completed. The ladies in the Bayview district wound up the season with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Harper. The bale for the North Mission, being sent by the Presbyterian Church, was packed, and a bundle of clothing for the collection was taken up to Thornlea school. An air mail letter from Holland was read, acknowledging grateful receipt of a parcel from the Guild.

Miss Winnifred Simpson of Yonge St. has sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. S. Tobias of Hamilton. Miss Simpson will be staying with friends in Toronto.

Ten members of Thornhill Women's Institute attended a quilting party at Happy Acres, the home of Mrs. J. Sumner last Thursday afternoon. Seated around the quilting frames which had been placed under shady trees on the spacious lawn, they made an attractive picture in their bright summer frocks. Needles flew swiftly to complete two quilts which had been pieced by Mrs. Sumner in readiness for quilting. These she plans to sell, donating the proceeds to the Institute. Delicious refreshments served on the lawn in the late afternoon were thoroughly enjoyed by the guests.

Donald and Mary Davidson and children are spending their vacation at the cottage in Haliburton.

Thornhill United Church Sunday School picnic held at Centre Island last Friday was highly successful. The day was beautiful and a good number attended. Mr. McGuire is Sunday School superintendent. Mr. Dyer and Mr. Purdy were in charge of the races, which were keenly contested, and a good time was had by every person.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. Kane (nee Eleanor Crawford of Garden Ave.), on the birth of their son, George Leslie, on Tuesday, June 25th. Congratulations also to Mr. Kelson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ball (nee Janet Clapham) on the birth of their sons, and to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Watkins on the birth of their twin daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Pherrill attended the wedding on Saturday, June 22nd, at Woodville, of John A. Wickett, formerly of Thornhill, to Miss Nellie Shaw of Woodville. Honorary Captain E. A. Currie officiated at the ceremony and Mr. Pherrill was best man. The couple will reside in Lindsay where John is employed by the D. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker left early this week for a short trip to Muskoka, after which Gordon will report back to Christie St. Hospital.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. E. A. Copp of Yonge St. in the death of her father, Mr. Hutchings, who was stricken with an illness while enroute from Newfoundland.

Sympathy is also extended to Mr. and Mrs. G. Walker in the death of their twin sons, Barry and Gary, born June 13th. One infant died three days later and the second passed away on Saturday, June 29, burial taking place in Thornhill Cemetery on Sunday.

As usual, Thornhill came to the fore in the National Clothing Collection which ended on Saturday last. School children collected and deposited cartons of good used clothing, particularly winter garments, in the three schools in the district, and the results were highly satisfactory. Almost forty cartons of clothes, one large trunk of clothing (the trunk having been donated), and two or three cartons and bags of shoes were picked up by Mr. Geo. Nuttall from Thornlea, Langstaff and Thornhill public schools, and taken to headquarters. Up to and including July 15th, clothing may still be collected and shipped collect to the warehouse, and although the overall picture of the Drive looks very well, as time goes on, the need in Europe appears to be getting greater. Any further donations will be most appreciated. Many thanks to those contributors who helped to make this drive a success, and to the local chairman, Mrs. Jamieson and her committee, Mrs. Crowhurst, Mrs. Pattenden and Mrs. Bestin.

PEGGY AIRD BRIDE IN CORONATION GOWN Granddaughter of Lady Aird Married to Richard Scott

Lady Aird's gown, which she had worn to the coronation of His Majesty King George VI. and Queen Elizabeth, was worn by her granddaughter, Margaret (Peggy) Munday, for her wedding Friday in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, to Richard Bertram Howard. The gown was slightly remodelled for the recent bride, the three-cornered deeply fringed ivory satin cape, formed the bodice, the "V" finishing at the waist and the deep fringe falling softly over her arms to the elbow and down to the train at the back forming a bustle. The bouffant skirt of ivory satin was worn over a nylon mohair petticoat giving a hoop effect.

Her oval veil was an heirloom of net edged with rosepoint lace and it was draped over a Mary Stuart halo. She carried the white satin prayer book which had been carried by her mother on which was a corsage of swansonia and from which fell streamers of the same flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aird of Maple, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Scott Howard, of Toronto. Performing the marriage ceremony was Canon R. A. Armstrong of the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto, assisted by Rev. W. F. Wrixon, rector of St. Mary's. The service was fully choral and Mr. Aird gave his daughter in marriage.

Attending the bride were her sister, Eleanor (Nell) Aird, as maid of honor; Frances Stevens, as bridesmaid, and Mary Aird Baillie and Joan Lewis as flower girls. They all wore frocks of sea blue. The senior attendants' gowns were of bengaline made with round necks, cap sleeves, and full draped skirts; and the flower girls were in sheer, the frocks smocked to the waist, long skirts, puffed sleeves and Peter Pan collars. They all wore halos and veils caught at the back with open American Beauty roses, which matched their shower bouquets of the same roses.

Frederick Howard, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were James Stuart, Edward Cayley, William Tamblin and John Jarvis. "Nonekin" Farm, the home of the bride's parents, was the setting for the reception. Her mother received, wearing a brown and white printed mesh dress with dark brown taffeta grille, large brown hat trimmed with white daisies which had brown centres. Mrs. Howard, mother of the groom, also received and wore a black crepe skirt with flowered top and flowered hat. Lady Aird was also in the reception line and chose a gown of black sheer and lace with black hat and corsage of gardenias.

For their wedding trip to Muskoka, the bride wore a navy blue wool boucle suit, two rows of shoulder ruffles giving a cape effect; navy hat with white pique bow and corsage of white flowers.

LANGSTAFF The Women's Fellowship of Langstaff Baptist Church has discontinued its weekly meetings for the summer months. Last Thursday was the last meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. W. Stephenson, Newtonbrook. The meetings will commence again in the fall.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TWP. OF NORTH YORK

SUMMER HAZARDS

Sunburn, Contaminated Water, Poison Ivy, Unpasteurized Milk, Fatigue, Inability to Swim.

It's our first peacetime summer — let's make the most of it and don't let the above summer hazards ruin your vacation. It takes two weeks to suntan safely and first exposure shouldn't exceed 10 minutes in the morning and 10 in the afternoon. A sunburn is a real burn. Poison Ivy grows meekly in waste places and is equally at home in rich woodlands or near bathing beaches. The plant's poison can easily be carried by clothes especially if the clothes are damp and have come in contact with the plant. Don't scratch, use lots of laundry soap and scrub well for several times under running water. Boil or chlorinate the drinking water and use only pasteurized milk. If you can't purchase pasteurized milk then pasteurize the milk yourself. Additional salt is required during the summer heat to compensate for greater loss from perspiration and to maintain a correct salt level in the blood.

Because restaurants — and many housewives as well — think that the only way in which to make a palatable sandwich is to cut off all the crust, vast quantities of bread are being wasted every day throughout the length and breadth of this country.
