INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

With the increase of fire hazards, property owners should review their insurance policies, and due to the increased cost of materials would be well advised to increase the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them are caught some time or other without protection. The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

flowers (them too!) this year it will be necessary for every member to make a special effort to enter as many classes as possible with your best blooms. Yours may be the only flower for that class, so bring them along. There are several prizes worth trying for. The T. Eaton Co. have donated a beautiful crystal vase embossed with silver for the winner of the most points in the flower section—points to be given as follows: Special and first prize, 3 points; second prize, 2 points; third prize, 1 point. The Robt. Simpson Co. have donated a lovely tray with 8 glasses.
This prize will be given for the winner of the best vegetable collection.
Read your prize list carefully and obey the rules. Entries will be received from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Please bring your entries tagged for classes as this will help the secretary to place you quickly and properly. The doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the judge for the show will give a talk on flowers with pointers for next year's shows. Everyone is welcome.
Remember the date, August 28, Wednesday.

Misses Vera and Ila Weighill were visitors in Kitchener on Sunday attending the opening of the new Apostolic Church.

Letters From Overseas

The following letter was received by Mrs. P. C. Hill from a citizen of Richmond, Surrey, England:
July 11th, 1946.
To the citizens and friends of Richmond Hill, Ontario, Canada.
I am deeply touched by your thought and help during our time of need. Yesterday, July 10, 1946, I received your gift box of various nourishing food which was duly delivered intact. (Eleven packages per list).

For seven long war years we housewives have had to and still have to spend weary hours queuing for our meagre rations which are necessary for our existence. We are still shackled with ration books, food points and coupons and such is the shortage that ten months after the cessation of war we must face further cuts from our limited diet. Our richness of life and variety of food has disappeared from this isle. We have had years of hardship and we shall still have to suffer hardships before we drift towards that plenty and variety which should be the lot of every individual. We have to do without those things which we are used to and which help to make a happier existence. Still our hopes are high and while it still seems we must tread along the path of austere-ty and unsatisfied desires it is towards a goal of happiness, security and plenty for everyone which is the desire and aim of the governments of our country. And so to the citizens of Richmond Hill, Ont., very many thanks and good wishes to you all. Also thanks to Mrs.
Norman McGibbon who laboured to pack those things which gave me joy and delight and variety.
Mrs. C. M. Baker.
