

To the Electors of Richmond Hill

Having served you for a great many years, I am again offering my services to you for 1947. If I may be permitted to serve you I can assure you that my experience and knowledge of the needs of the municipality shall be, with the co-operation of the council, directed towards the best interests of the community. As you know the village is growing, and having ample time to care for the duties of office, I would respectfully solicit your vote and influence.

FOR ACTION AND BUSINESS-LIKE MANAGEMENT IN MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

LIBERTY

In ages past our forefathers fought to gain our freedom and liberty to speak, think, worship, and act as we see fit. That liberty has been handed down to us.

The only drawback of this liberty is that it demands self-discipline; in other words privileges gained require duty to be done. In every day life this duty is the conducting of oneself as a citizen of the community and country, fulfilling such demands as may be made upon us.

One of these demands is the selection of our representatives — Municipal, Provincial and Federal.

It is a sad commentary on our recognition of this privilege of citizenship as a duty, that the proportion of citizens exercising this privilege—duty is so small in most places.

Let us in Richmond Hill show the people that WE realize this is a privilege hard-won for us which we will not give up.
