ST. MARY'S EVENING GUILD

Well done, thou good and faithful servants of the Evening Guild, for the splendid way you turned out last Saturday. You are asked to repeat the dose this coming Saturday, December 7th, at Endeans' on Yonge St. Hope the 'gobblers' will be more plentiful than last week, in any event the little food scout will be prepared with the necessary 'feed'.

Experience teaches fools from kicking mules, and for the benefit of those who kicked themselves for being so 'dressed-up', that day, we suggest that you get out those old red flannels from storage and be well fortified this time, better not take chances fooling with 'Jack Frost'.

The response to our first thought, the church, was very gratifying to the executive, the rector and congregation as a whole and by the way, the W.A. just exceeded our number by two, at the Corporate Communion.

Hope the old tonsils didn't get too much wiggling with so much singing on Sunday, Flo? It was grand to see your angelic countenance glancing choirward. Another removal from the sick list noticed by the reporter was Mrs. Allison. We hope that our sick convener will soon be able to sit up and take nourishment, her phone number is 248r24.

For mothers only, (single girls, keep on knitting) get busy with a baby size for the sixteenth, as you and your husband have a dinner engagement on that date with the Men's Club, in the Parish Hall. More about this lovely invitation at our next meeting Tuesday, December 10. Parliamentary Procedure, whew! sounds political, but isn't Mr. Norman Todd, (he is married to Helen) will tell us to wit and to you, just how a meeting should open and close properly. Please see that you, as a member, have this date marked on your calendar and see that you look at the date every day until you find yourself at this important meeting, December 10.

WEDDINGS

JOHNSTON—HEYDON
St. John's Chapel of St. Michael's Cathedral, decorated with standards of white and yellow 'mums and candelabra, was the setting for the marriage of Marie Margaret Heydon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Francis Heydon, Richmond Hill, to Robert William Johnston, Richmond Hill, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John E. Johnston, Sunderland. Rev. Father Morgan officiated and one of the St. Michael's boy choristers sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white brocade with draped skirt with fingertip veil caught to a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of ivory roses and white 'mum petals. Mrs. J. O'Driscoll attended the bride, gowned in burgundy velvet fashioned after the bride's gown. Ted Johnston was groomsmen, and Jack Johnston and Bus Heydon ushered.

Receiving, the bride's aunt, Miss Mae Heydon, was gowned in black sequin-trimmed crepe. The groom's sister, Mrs. Elliot Tomkins, assisted, gowned in rose beige crepe. For the wedding trip, the bride donned an aqua suit dress and corsage of amazon lily and carnation petals.

The Young Adult Fellowship Group of Richmond Hill United Church will hold a crokinole party on Monday, December 9 at 8.30 p.m. in the Sunday School room. Come and enjoy yourself with us.
