Dedication And Memorial Service Most Impressive

An impressive and memorable ser- | of years. address Rev. E. A. Currey said it the pioneers of this district with gifts to the church which they founded and supported. Furnishings dedicated were: pulpit and chairs, presented by L. A. Hood; Bible by Jas. Thomson and family; communion table, by Mrs. Glendenning; baptismal font by the Davidson Mission Band; doors by Mrs. Wm. Brown.

Pte. Roy Alexander Walke , who was from the village and the surroundkilled in Dieppe, he paid tribute to ing district. the many young men who made the supreme sacrifice. He spoke of Pte. be a parade from the north end of Walker's life in our community the village featuring a Clown Band where he had many friends, and and other attractions. closed with the text inscribed on the life for his friends."

vice was held in Brown's Corners | At the conclusion of the service a United Church on Sunday, December | number of friends remained to wit-8 when a dedication service was con- ness the baptism of baby Sidney

Coming To Town

Santa Claus will be in Richmond Hill Saturday afternoon, December 21 and at his Ice Palace in the Rich-In unveiling a memorial tablet to mond Hill arena will greet children

Commencing at 3 p.m., there will vear round, and every year.

At the arena there will be a huge The Christmas. tablet, "Greater love hath no man Christmas tree, and Fairy Queens | 29 than this: That a man lay down his will hand out gifts to all the child- work of the child-

Rev. H. J. McKay unveiled a tab- Everyone is invited and a record ish, who was choirmaster and or- whose visit here is sponsored by the ganist of the church for a number Richmond Hill Lions Club.

Maple Women's Institute Hear Inspiring Christmas Message

Speaking to the members of Maple | Christian fellowship. Women's Institute this week Mrs. F. O Holy Child of Bethlehem S. Rumble brought the Christmas Descend to us we pray, message in an inspiring manner. Cast out our sin and enter in, Speaking on the subject of "Christ- Be born in us today. mas" she said "Once again the great | We hear the Christmas angels, Christian festive season approaches, The great glad tidings tell and the birthday of Christ is cele- O come to us, abide with us brated throughout the world. In a | Our Lord Emmanuel.' lift to the weary heart. So let us Merry-Christmas'."

others cannot keep it from theming something for themselves, but parents will be welcome. bringing presents for children not so privileged as they. All of which is CANDLELIGHT CAROL SERVICE fraternity of human need will surely find happiness entering their own hearts. J. M. Barrie has said 'Those yet it is good for us all to be as held on Sunday next, December 22 | Some men will turn aside in hate, children sometimes, and never better at 7.30 p.m. It is expected that the than at Christmas when its mighty usual large congregation will gather first Christmas gifts taken with mas Carols in a setting of everadoration by wise men long ago to greens, flowers and many candles. the infant Jesus established the cus- The service will be held half an hour tom of Christmas giving. When later to accommodate those who live some childish heart is made happy, out of town. some aged one made comfortable by kindly thought the spirit of Christ- SURPLUS GOVT. BUILDINGS mas is indeed shedding cheer and gladness.

place in our celebration of Christ- that surplus government buildings mas and has done so down through are housing approximately 16,220 On Calvary's hill the storm will the ages. At the birth of Jesus the persons and a "conservative" estiangelic choir sang 'Glory to God in mate placed at 28,000 the number the highest, and on earth peace, good who would be in such accommodation will to men.' So, at this time of year by the end of February. Financial we join in songs of adoration and assistance in meeting conversion praise. The beautiful Christmas costs was $2,066,164. The program hymns and carols give expression to involved co-operation by municipal, day when the nations of the world "Old traditional customs make are seeking to re-establish them- Christmas something stable and unselves after being engaged in the changing, something to cling to in a most deadly conflict of all history changing world. So let us observe we turn with fresh hope in our hearts | Christmas in the same old way, for to Him who said 'It is more blessed | who will say that it can be improved to give than ot receive.' And what upon. After doing what we can to opportunities we have for giving brighten the lives of others which make the Christmas season a festival The meeting was held at the home had associated with the newly install- Bro. R. A. Bigford: Treasurer, R.W. "The Compliments of the Season" of friendship. Friendship shines of Mrs. Parnell White and there was ed Master in his work and as a mem- Bro. I. B. Musselman; Director of brightly today as it has always done a generous response to the roll call against the dark background of self- giving gifts for the Sick Children's ishness by which the world is cursishness by which the world is cursishnes ed. Self interest is so often the cently was sent to Britain. The disdominating motive of our lives, but trict president, Mrs. J. Snider, and the secret of true Christmas joy will district secretary, Mrs. Vanderburgh, O Little Baby, Holy Child, never be found by those whose were present and spoke briefly. The thoughts turn inward. Those who ladies are planning a social evening A wondrous light shines in her eyes of the members of Vaughan Lodge fully and well in all kinds of weamake of the Christmas season a time for Maple Lacrosse team of which to minister lovingly to the great notice will be given at a later date.

PHONE

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT The annual Christmas party of who bring sunshine to the lives of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church Sunday School will be held in the "It is the essence of Christmas Sunday School room Saturday afterthat we should think of others. Even noon, December 21 at 3.30 o'clock. the small child may learn the bless- An interesting program is being preand Sunday schools we have the attraction. After supper Santa Claus White Gift Sunday when the child- will pay a visit to the school. All ren are encouraged to come not seek- pupils of the Sunday School and their

in the true spirit of Him whose birth- The Christmas season is not comday we celebrate, He who came not plete without a Candlelight Carol to be ministered unto but to min- Service. Such a service is now an annual event at St. Mary's Anglican "Christmas for the children we say | Church, Richmond Hill, and will be Founder was a child Himself. The | to sing the old and well loved Christ-

USED FOR HOUSING

A survey by the Central Mortgage "Music, too, holds an important and Housing Corporation reveals our feelings and draw us closer in provincial and federal authorities.

CAPITOL THEATRE Yonge at Castlefield

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 20, 21 JAMES CRAIG, FRANCIS GIFFORD in " SHE WENT TO THE RACES "

> -- AND --OLIVIA DE HAVILAND, IDA LUPINO in " DEVOTION " SELECTED SHORTS

MONDAY & TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 24 JOHN HODIAK. NANCY GUILD in " SOMEWHERE IN THE NIGHT "

--- ALSO ---CHARLES BOYER, JENNIFER JONES in " CLUNY BROWN "

CHRISTMAS DAY, DECEMBER 25 " CANYON PASSAGE "

Probably every country in the world has its own peculiar Christmas customs, but the ideal in each is no doubt the same, namely, that peace and good will may prevail, ducted by Rev. E. A. Currey, as- John English, grandson of our late that all men may bask in the smile of the Divine Infant.

Christmas is and should be a festival of good cheer because it recalls the greatest news ever delivered to mankind, the news, as a carel that is almost universally sung puts it, "Christ is born in Bethlehem".

In Canada from the time of the earliest pioneers, the season of Christmas has been always one of light-hearted merriment albeit a season, too, of thoughtful religious observance. The Christmas spirit exemplifies a Canadian ideal, and if Canadians could have their way about it, that the spirit would not be confined to a brief time at the end of each Calendar year, but would be the prevailing spirit the

That is the way The Liberal feels about it, and with that thought in view, we wish all our readers a right merry

Sons Who Served In War Local Institute Hear Sons Who Served In War Local Institute Hear Now for the kinder and better as wise, thoughtful parents. Now for the kinder and better in connection with school buildings. As the date of your school meeting draws near, see that these are well attended and trustees are let in memory of Sidney John Eng- crowd is expected to greet Santa Temperanceville Honors

F.O. Bob Rumble and W.O. James ished by all. Kerswill, both of the Air Force,

Tokens of gratitude and esteem was silently revered, these young were extended to 30 servicemen of men having perished in the conflict. the Temperanceville district at a It is worthy of note that individual Turkey Supper and presentation held | centres in King Township have each in their honor at the church on Sat- honored the service personnel of that and pencil sets were presented by omitted by each community to show Mrs. Maurice Beynon, on behalf of appreciation and good will to those sored by the W.I. Branch of which to protect those on the home front she is president. The memory of and to bring about the peace cher-

Installs Father-in-law At Masonic Investiture

The annual Installation of the ber of Grenville Lodge in Toronto when there are many who need en- will make the true significance of the Worshipful Master and Investiture of came to see the ceremony and concouragement. There are always day come into our hearts, let us put the officers of Vaughan Mason c gratulate W. Bro. Sharpe on his ele lonely hearts, those who are physi- up the Holly wreath, light the Lodge took place on Tuesday evening, vation to King Solomon's chair. The cally handicapped, and many facing Christmas candle, join in the sing- December 10 in the lodge at Maple. | other officers elected and appointed from us may do more than we real- old custom of extending to friends ter, W. Bro. Andrew Snider, installed Bro. H. Bryan; S.D., Bro. R. Noble; Mrs. Lynett. ize to gladden the pathway or give a and dear ones the old, old wish 'A his father-in-law, W. Bro. Ernest J.D., Bro. D. Crook; Chaplain, Sharpe. Many of the brethren who Bro. C. H. Bowman; Secretary, W.

Lying there in Mary's arms,

A starry herald was their guide

The shepherds from the nearby hill Have come to see their Infant King; edness of giving. In our churches pared including movies as a special A day will come when Thou wilt

> To men, the art of shepherding. Others walk the streets this night

> Devoid of wonder or surprise, Not knowing that a King is born, And God looks through a Baby'

A time will come when Thou wi

The Truth of God in Galilee; Others will gladly follow Thee.

There will be those who will not love, Will pass Thee by without glance: They cannot see the light of God

Alight in Thy fair countenance. Thy words will simply be just words;

They'll fall on hearts grown strangely cold. E'en though Thou speak of God and

Of treasures they are new and old break;

A cross up-raised against the sky And cruel sin shall nail Thee there, Mock Thy suffering, watch Thee

Then in a garden fresh and cool,

So on that night so long ago, When star and angel told Thy Guant fear was stilled, brave hope was born. And man walked on a friendly

O Infant Jesus, Son of God; We, also bow in Holy joy. my praise doth occupy our voice, Thy way of life our lives employ.

Our fellow-men along the way, And show to them Christ's happi-

-Rev. M. R. Jenkinson,

Tyler, Bro. Robt. Ramsay; Assistant | the announcement in The Liberal. Secretary, Bro. G. Watson.

It was gratifying to the new officers to see the presence of so many Thy coming, to his home of men; tinued success of Vaughan Lodge.

Memorial Tablet And Chimes Dedicated

St. Mary's Angli an Chur h was filled to capacity Sunday afternoon when impressive services were held marking the unveiling of memorial who gave their lives in World War II. Rev. W. F. Wrixon, Rector, was in charge of the service assisted by Rev. L. C. Secrett of Willowdale, a former Rector. The Memorial Tablet donated by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gamble was un-Robert Gamble, one of the boys honored at the service. Other names on the tablet are: George Adams, Fred Carter, Charles Hill, Roy Russell, Ernest White. Following the dedication by the Rector there was three minutes silence and the Last Post and Reveille sounded by James Butler. "Joyous Church Bells" then was heard on the new chimes in the

Christmas Story

Owing to weather conditions many members were absent from the Wo- Editor, The Liberal, men's Institute December meeting Dear Sir:held in the Municipal Hall last urday, December 14. Gifts of pen particular district. Nothing has been Thursday. Those present, however, have been held in the majority of the community, the event being spon- men and women who offered service Hill told the story of "The Doll's contests occurred a greater interest the property of a sheltered child.

sponsibility for visiting a soldier at | Schools of the different townships. | don Orr, Maple, Ont.; 2nd Vice-Presgenerally cheering him with suit- tricts is likely to double during the Secretary, H. E. Ross, King, Ont.; able gifts, etc.

Three Christmas carols were sung

The executive and members of the Institute join in wishing everyone and extend a cordial invitation to the Ceremonies, W. Bro. A. E. Snider; women of the community to come to S.S., Bro. N. Lund; J.S., Bro. W. their monthly meetings, the second Bailey; I.G., Bro. W. Hallowell; Thursday in each month. Watch for

REMEMBER THE MAILMAN

There's one man who serves faith-As she smiles o'er Thy Infant as well as many visitors from neigh- ther throughout the year who rates bouring lodges. After the ceremony a little thought at Christmastime, was completed a number of the visit- and that's your Mailman. In your The learned ones kneel down to ing brethren offered their congratu- Christmas shopping don't forget the lations and best wishes for the con- fellow who lives the slogan "the mail

To bring them here to Bethlehem. Year In Business Teaches Young Veteran Many Things bers are asked to bring gifts, not exceeding 35 cents each in value, to

was worst of all however. In the icles of every description. end he bought a small house from Yet there are eyes, in which alone which to operate but this proved a Local Poet Has Thy light of love doth brightly to move out when they expected to, and he was forced to conduct his These are the souls Thy love hath business from very limited quarters at home. Upon his release from the Proud to feel that they are Thine. army Ralph Torp joined him and the two boys worked hard, even cleaning cellars and trucking away rubbish to We'll see a tomb, a stone rolled make a few dollars. The six by six chicken coop was converted into An Angel standing there speaks out tiny workshop where Ralph painted now on sale. It contains 80 poems To soothe the heart and quell the and repaired articles brought in by David. They were then stored in the tool shed or cellar. It was an unsatisfactory and cramping arrangement and exasperation was reaching a high level when in the spring Mc Lean managed to rent a shed at the rear of Answell Appliances on Yonge St. "What with the telephone and ST. MARY'S ANGLICAN people tracking through the kitchen! at all hours, I guess my mother was pretty glad to be rid of us," grinned David. "However she found the var- on Tuesday, December 17 St. Mary's ied stock I brought in very amusing, Anglican W.A. elected the following particularly the dressmaker's judy officers for 1947: President, Mrs. N. Lord Jesus, touch these lips of ours, with the Victorian figure. And do Chatterley; vice-president, Mrs. N. That we in turn, will live to bless you know that thing sold in a jiffy." McGibbon; treasurer, Miss J. Doran;

held before enlisting, and McLean Little; corresponding secretary, Miss United Church Parsonage, was a mere shell and unsuitable for J. Taylor; Educational sec., Miss I. King Ont. I storing anything of value but it tided | Curry; Pianist, Mrs. W. C. Savage,

Saturday afternoon, December 7th | him over the summer and in Sep-A. S. Farmer conducted an auction tember when the Francis house was sale of antiques, household furniture put up for sale he was able to oband other articles at the McLean tain this desirable property. He says Trading Co., Yonge and Colborne that it seems quite a long time now Sts., Thornhill. The sale was in the since those 'chicken house days' when nature of a first anniversary for it his initial stock consisted of a handis little more than a year since the some antique walnut chair given by twenty-one year old proprietor, David friends (others also were helpful McLean, took out a license to deal and generous) and a few desks and in used articles. When asked what waste paper baskets bought from a made him choose this business the war plant. "There is a heck of a lot youthful veteran who spent eight of to learn about a business the hard his nineteen months naval service on way," he admits philosophically. The a corvette in the English channel, experimental sale was a case in replied that when he came home he point. Bidding was not as brisk as knew definitely that he wanted above it could have been though there was all to "be his own boss". A survey a very good crowd in attendance. of Thornhill showed that there was Many of the articles so painstakingly a good opening for a dealer in used gathered, sold below cost and some articles of all kinds so he lost no collectors' items went for a song. time in getting to work. Days were However young McLean feels that spent in going through the prelimin- it served its purpose in acquainting ary Government red tape and obtain- people with his business and in netting the necessary permits, and more ing him many customers well pleased days in searching for a second hand with their bargains. Now he is truck, as a new one was not avail- busily gathering together an even able. The problem of accommodation bigger and better stock of used art-

Works Published

Congratulations to Robert D. Little, Richmond Hill, who this week had a book of verse published, and the volume, "Rhyme and Reason", is from the pen of Richmond Hill's "poet laureate", is attractively bound, and will make an ideal Christmas gift with a real Richmond Hill note. "Rhyme and Reason" will be on sale at The Liberal

W.A. ELECTS OFFICERS

At the final meeting of the year Torp returned to the job which he recording secretary, Mrs. Robert D. with mounting overhead to consider E. Stewart; Living Message sec., has since carried on alone. The shed Mrs. W. Hall; Dorcas sec., Mrs. W.

Merry Christmas Impressive Service Kindergarten And Nurse Viewed Signs Of Progress

The Liberal this week received the | ture? following letters on school subjects:

carried a most significant item. I which was carried out 100 years ago, refer to the appointment of a school | the erection of schools, and the connurse. To those of us who have duct of the same, but many communmoved from an urban centre to this ities are now faced with a very area, it is indicative of progress. heavy cost in connection with the for six young men from that church When we secure a kindergarten as maintenance, as well as a demand for well, the local school should com- an additional room to be added to pare facourably with a city school. The matter of securing a compe- 60 or in many cases, 70 years prevtent school nurse should te of paramount importance to all your readers. Truly I wish to congratulate the persons who were responsible for veiled by Mrs. J. Clark, a sister of Miss Hallowell's selection. Her ability in training, in University and as located to the best advantage. a public health nurse in the city > schools indicate that she is a person of unusual talent and ability. the nurse wholeheartedly. If some cient for the youth of today. physical defect in our children is noted and reported, let us give our the increase could not this be regrateful thanks and above all, let us not adopt an attitude of ignoring ied on in proper playgrounds located

URGES MORE INTEREST IN EDUCATION

Now that the municipal election felt amply repaid as they listened rural districts and in some instances in rapt attention while Mrs. Lloyd acclamations accorded while where House", her theme being "And when was shown than during the period of I love and cherish them, I serve the war. The average ratepayer was Babe of Bethlehem". The story pic- more interested in the maintenance and Vaughan Plowmen's Association tures two destitute children starry- of roads, the cost of hospitalization, was held in Maple December 11th. eyed and breathless over one glimpse | increase in expenditure of the Child- Officers for 1947 were elected: Hon. of the little lamp in the Doll's House, | ren's Aid, etc. than the educational | Pres., Capt. Aubrey Davis, Newmarsystem or the future improvements | ket, Ont.; President, G. S. Lawson, The meeting voted to assume re- that could be made in the Public King. Ont.; 1st Vice-President, Gor-

Christie St. Hospital each month, and The population of the rural dis- ident, Chalmer Black, Kettleby, Ont.; next decade. Would not the present Treasurer, Andrew McClure, Wood-Mrs. Zuefelt on Current Events re- be the opportune period to make a bridge, Ont. viewed the disturbing situation in survey of existing conditions as well | The 1947 match will be held in as successful planning for the fu- King Township on October 28.

We owe the pioneers in education a debt of grat tude in their division A recent edition of your paper of municipalities into school sections that school built, generally speaking,

No. 25.

Probably should building material become available many antiquated school buildings will be replaced with modern structures which may not be

We must admit that we live in a new age, a modern period and that the education that was good enough Now, let us, as parents egt behind for the early residents is not suffi-

> While juvenile delinquency is on duced by wholesom: recreation carr-

RURAL RATEPAYER

Plowmen Elect G. S. Lawson As Pres. For 1947

The annual meeting of the King

the future with uncertainty, and a ing of carols, read again the Christ-word in season or a helping hand mas story, and engage in the old. Was the fact that the Installing Mas-Gift Giving Party Friday

the unanimous verdict of the youth prosperous New Year. of the village with respect to the dance last Friday at the high school. Executive heads of the youth council are being congratulated on all sides for their effort to stage a Christmas party of such appeal, and many of the young people who thought they had become too sophisticated to believe any longer in Santa Claus received an eye opener when Santa himself, arrayed just as he is in the pictures, appeared among them and distributed favors. Another festive party is planned for this Friday night, It will be held at the Masonic Hall. All membe inter-changed with other members, and after that event there will be dancing with recorded music. New members may join the Youth Council that evening if they wish. "The spirit of Christmas is essentially the spirit of gift giving," explained Chester Unger, president of the council, "and particularly when there is an element of surprise in found opportunity to contribute to its at his apiary next summer.

"It was one of the finest and joll- | success during the year, a work iest parties we have ever held," was merry Christmas and a happy and Don't forget your admission is a small gift not to exceed 35c.

> NO ISSUE OF THE LIBERAL DECEMBER 26TH

Christmas and New Year's holidays falling this year on Wednesday combine to make difficult complications for week- " ly newspaper publishers. Next * Wednesday being Christmas, and * the following day, Thursday, " Boxing Day, there will be no * issue of The Liberal on December 26th. However so that ad- * vertisers may reach our readers with New Year's messages * our issue of January 2nd will be * published Monday, December 30. " We thank all readers, advertis- " ers and contributors in anticipation of their co-operation.

SCOUTS HEAR TALK ON BEES Mr. E. Abram gave the R'chmond the gift giving it ought to be a real Hill Scouts a very interesting lecture last Tuesday night on "One Sea-On behalf of the youth council, son of Bee Keeping'. Mr. Abram Mr. Unger wishes all of the grown- was detained for an extra half hour up well wishers of the organization, answering questions and has promand in particular those who have sed some practical lessons in the art

Youge St. at Glenforest Rd. HUdson 5437

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 20, 21 TOM BRENEMAN in " BREAKFAST IN HOLLYWOOD " - PLUS -ROY ROGERS, DALE EVANS in

" DON'T FENCE ME IN MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 24, 25 JOAN LESLIE in

> " JANIE GETS MARRIED " --- ALSO ---CAROLE LANDIS in " BEHIND GREEN LIGHTS "

SPECIAL CHILDREN'S MATINEE 2.00 P.M. BOXING DAY, DECEMBER 26th.

Quality You'll Enjoy

