ST. MARY'S EVENING GUILD

(By Guild Reporter)
Seven certain members joined a certain Guild,
Seven certain chairs we'd like to see filled
With Doris A. Helen S. Thorah,
Olive, Ethel, Milly and Dot,
How about it girls? You're on the spot.
The meetings you've missed, now count up to four,
Please oh please don't miss any more,
Just look up your program and plan to be present
At the very next meeting, we know 'twill be pleasant
For we are to have a very fine guest,
And of course the Guild must turn out in its best
To greet the ladies of the W.A.
In our most gracious Evening Guild way.
Mrs. Little will speak on a Book Review
Which we know will be of great interest to you
Who like to read in your moments of leisure
And from which no doubt you derive much pleasure.
Turn over a new leaf on the twenty-eighth
And prove by your presence that you really have faith
In the Guild, of which you're a member
And continue to come from now till December.

KEFFER—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Amelia Shunk Keffer, who passed away January 26, 1946.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. Her weary trials and troubles are past.
In silence she suffered, with patience she bore
Till God called her home to suffer no more.
—Ever remembered by husband and family.

R.H.H.S. WHIRL

(By Pat Watson)

At the last session of the Literary executive the members put their heads together and came up with (thanks to Janie Little) the idea of a "Courtesy Day", a day in which the girls, arms full of books, will no longer have to struggle to open the door with that one free finger, her discomfort totally unheeded by the male onlookers, but as Richmond Hill's male set rushes to her assistance will graciously o'erstep the threshold. A day in which one's blunders in reading and arithmetic will not be followed by loud laughter but rather by a sympathetic silence. Nor will the petty feuders dare pass the objects of their wrath, heads held icily aloft. Yep, I'm still talking about a day in R.H.H.S.

Answering many requests from Youth Council members, the president of said council, Chester Unger, has arranged for the dance in the "gym" Friday evening to be exclusively a "Hoe Down". For them as what don't know how to square dance but want to learn, the caller has strict orders to call off slowly at first in order that the beginners miss none of the instructions. If they still have trouble mastering the art, personal help will be given them. Incidentally the price is only 40c. for members so grab yourselves a girl feller and come along. They tell me it's muscle-building as well as fun.

That enterprising lady of literature, Miss Izzard, has arranged for those with a love of Shakespeare to view at the Royal Alex., this week and next, Donald Holfit in his interpretations of Hamlet, King Lear, As You Like It and The Merchant of Venice. Those who were down to see King Lear Monday evening claim that the classroom classic surpasses even "the killers" in drama. Last Friday afternoon the boys' senior basketball team was defeated 17-14 by St. Andrew's in a home exhibition game while up at St. Andrew's the junior team was also defeated 30-5. However the senior team redeemed themselves Monday by a 34-16 victory over our arch rivals, Aurora. The improving juniors suffered another defeat.

Our hockey team double defeated Aurora last week, seniors winning 5-1, juniors 2-1. Scorers in the senior tilt were John Atkinson 2, Mack Clement, Norm Stundin and Bruce Jones with singletons while in the junior game the scorers were Stan Ransom and Jim Mansbridge. It looks like a good hockey season.

FORESTRY DEPARTMENT PRESENT PICTURES

To a very small but interested group of members of the Young Adult Fellowship Group of the United Church the Department of Lands and Forests presented the following films on Wednesday, January 15th: (1) Tomorrow's Timber; (2) Three Little Bears in the Woods, and (3) Portage. The pictures were both interesting and educational.
