MOM and POP. Buffalo Bill invites Mom and Pop to the round up. $500 is offered to the person who can stay on a Texas steer 5 minutes. Pop: Try it Bill. Mom: Don't do it Bill. Buffalo Bill: Sure I'll try it; he whistles and his white horse gallops up to Bill and Bill hops on and rides along side of the steer and jumps on his back. Texas steer runs, bucks, kicks and rolls over his back. Pop: Ride him cowboy. Buffalo Bill stays with it and wins. Bill again whistles for his horse which comes on a gallop and as much as says to Bill I knew you'd do it. Pop: Gosh Bill, I don't know how you could stick it out; he sure is a tough hombre. Buffalo Bill: Now Mom and Pop, we must celebrate. Mom winks at Pop. Where Bill? Buffalo Bill: I reserved a table for 3. Waiter: Here's your table Bill and marches the 3 over to a table where Dusty, Shrimp, Miss Fade Away, Tantalum and Bride, Ella Ash and Tommy are standing waiting. Buffalo Bill: Say, what is this? Mom and Cookie have the whole menu arranged with Baker's Sweetener appetizers, beverages, cakes, pies, jellies, ice cream. Cookie has the glasses filled for the toast to Buffalo Bill. Pop: Here's a toast to Buffalo Bill. Riding a steer against Mom's will. He sure gave us a treat, riding steers is his meat. Mom's giving me an awful look, as much as saying "get the book", so clink the glasses to his health, $500.00 to us would be wealth. Buffalo Bill replies, "Saw Pop, that toast was neat, I can't make a speech, but I can eat Baker's Sweetener. Rhubarb pie 'tis a treat!" Baker's Sweetener can't be beat. Sugar taste, easy to use, no coupons. Diabetes sure like Baker's Sweetener, bitterness is eliminated.
